VIET CONG WANTS PARIS CONFERENCE TO 'MOVE FORWARD'

ANNOUNCING its readiness to "engage in discussions with other parties," the Viet Cong declared Wednesday in Paris it wants the Vietnam peace conference to "move forward." The announcement stirred speculation the Viet Cong might finally be ready to talk directly with the Saigon government. But a Viet Cong spokesman later avoided saying so flatly. There was no demand for bilateral U.S.-Viet Cong talks. The implication of the Viet Cong spokesman's statement was that the Viet Cong would not reject negotiations within the framework of the formal conference with the Saigon government.

KEY PARTY RALLIES UNDER BANNER OF GEORGES POMPIDOU

THE KEY Republican Independents, led by Valery Giscard d'Estaing, swung their support behind Gaullist candidate Georges Pompidou Wednesday, making him the man to beat in the election to find a successor to General Charles de Gaulle as president of France. The 61-member National Assembly group of the party voted unanimous support of Pompidou, meaning that all Gaullist factions and allied groups now had rallied under the banner of the 57-year-old ex-premier less than three days after the fall of de Gaulle from power.

MARINES KILL 55 NORTH VIETNAMESE NEAR DA NANG

U.S. MARINES ripped into a force of North Vietnamese regulars on the banks of the Vu Gia River near Da Nang Wednesday and reported killing 55 in fighting that raged into the night. Meanwhile, American jets bathed Communists in napalm. Six marines were reported killed and 24 wounded in the day-long battle 12 miles southwest of Da Nang, an area known as "Arizona Territory." Many of the casualties were inflicted by a mortar shell which crashed into a command post.

LEBANESE TROOPS CLASH WITH PALESTINIAN GUERRILLAS

FIGHTING reportedly broke out Wednesday between Lebanese army troops and anti-Israel Palestine guerrillas only six miles from the Lebanon-Israel frontier. The Lebanese government of Premier Rashid Karami fell a week ago after clashes between security forces and demonstrators advocating government support for guerrilla groups based on Lebanon soil. The reorts in Beirut said several hundred guerrillas trying to set up bases in southwest Lebanon, near the Syrian and Israeli frontiers clashed with units of the Lebanese army. There were no details.

The Nation

MANY LOSSES IN VIETNAM TERMED RESULT OF 'OUR OWN MISTAKES'

BRIG. GEN. S.L.A. Marshall said in Washington on Wednesday that 40 per cent of American combat losses in Vietnam are the result of "our own mistakes." He blamed these casualties on foolishness, impatience and heroics by U.S. troops, and singled out "lieutenants, captains and platoon sergeants" as the weakest cog in the American war machine in Vietnam. Marshall, a well known military historian and combat journalist, made the comments in connection with publication of his new book, "Ambush." The book depicts in great detail American units stumbling and bumbling into death traps set by the Viet Cong. American combat deaths in the Vietnam war as of last week totaled more than 34,000.

DEMOCRATS ATTACK NIXON'S CLOSING OF 59 JOB CORPS CENTERS

CONGRESSIONAL Democrats accused the Nixon Administration of "fixing to throw away all the gains" made in the Johnson Administration in combating poverty. They attacked as shortsighted President Nixon's order to close 59 of the 109 Job Corps Centers to save $10 million. "We're going to find out that this has been the greatest failure of any administration," Rep. Carl D. Perkins, D-Ky., chairman of the House Education and Labor Committee, said of Nixon's action. "They're fixing to throw away all the gains we made." The committee voted to urge Nixon to delay action until Congress has decided whether to extend the existence of the Office of Economic Opportunity.

RADICAL STUDENTS TAKE OVER 2 COLUMBIA UNIV. BUILDINGS

BRUSHING aside a court injunction against such seizures and handful of students who tried to stop them, radical students Wednesday took over two Columbia University buildings. Meanwhile, black students occupied the president's office at the University of Louisville and said they would stay put until he meets their demands. Sociology students carried a building occupation at Howard University into its third day. Members of Students for a Democratic Society took over the Columbia University mathematics building early in the day and later occupied Fayerweather Hall, another classroom building.

NIXON ASKS CONGRESS FOR POWER TO MERGE AGENCIES

PRESIDENT NIXON on Wednesday asked Congress to empower the President to combine similar programs under one agency to eliminate duplication of efforts on the federal level and simplify procedure on the state and local level. He proposed a grant consolidation act to give him the power to cut through the tangle of bureaucracy that entwines overlapping federal programs and speed aid to states and local governments. "It is an almost universal complaint of local government officials that the web of programs has grown so tangled that it often becomes impermeable," the President said. Nixon also said taxpayers would benefit from the proposal because the cost of administering the programs would be reduced.

MIT IMPOSES TEMPORARY BAN ON NEW MILITARY CONTACTS

MASSACHUSETTS Institute of Technology has imposed a temporary ban on new secret military contracts at its two defense-linked research laboratories. President Howard Johnson said Wednesday, a special committee of MIT faculty, students, trustees, alumni and lab workers would investigate the defense-related contracts and issue a preliminary report May 31. Until then, Johnson said, MIT will not accept any more military contracts for its Instrumentation Laboratory in Cambridge or Lincoln Labs in Lexington which is at the Air Force's Hanscom Field. MIT operates the two facilities for the government and calls them their "special laboratories," a spokesman said.

MOST OF HUB'S ELDERLY LIVE IN POVERTY, McDONOUGH SAYS

THE MAJORITY of Boston's 85,000 elderly citizens are living in poverty, according to City Councilor Patrick F. McDonough. In a statement to chairmen of the two congressional committees in Washington, McDonough said three fourths of the city's residents over 65 have incomes below $3,000 per year. He said 29,000 of them receive less than $2,000 annually. "It is ironic," McDonough told the congressional leaders, "that many of Boston's aged who subsist on fixed incomes have to pay taxes even as tax money is spent to raise them from poverty."

Leash Law Is In Action In Newton Today

Today is the day the new leash law goes into effect in Newton.

No longer is your dog free to sniff your neighbors' bushes or to take a romp for himself around the neighborhood.

If he goes off your property, he must be on a leash. Otherwise, he will be picked up by the dog officer and taken to the city pound.

Reports To Public On Australian Trip

indicative of this country's her trip to Australia was delivered by Congresswoman Margaret Heckler to some 100 men and women attending the Newton Chamber of Commerce's 11th Government and Business Forum at a luncheon last Friday at the Holiday Inn, Newton Lower Falls.

Cong. Heckler was recently appointed to the Banking and Currency Committee, and in that capacity was a member of the United States delegation at a meeting in the Land Down Under of 600 delegates concerned with the newly organized Asian Development Bank. The U. S. team was headed by the Secretary of the Treasury David Kennedy.

She described the bank as indicative of this country's trend toward joining in a multilateral aid rather than giving bilateral aid. The new policy would match the financial grants to a country's own efforts rather than "merely bestowing our largesse in a form often not helpful to the recipient, often resented or ignored."

Sniping Hot Along Basbas-Shea Front

Mayor Monte G. Basbas and Representative - Alderman H. James Shea, Jr., exchanged angry statements yesterday.

Shea claimed that the Mayor had ordered him to vacate his apartment in reprisal for an attack (Shea) had made upon Chairman Mario DeCarlo of the Newton Redevelopment Authority.

Mayor Basbas replied that he had not ordered

Shea out of his apartment, that he has no authority to issue such an order and that he never attempts to do anything he has no right or power to do.

The Mayor went on to level a sharp blast at Shea.

He said that Shea had made no allegation of wrong-doing on the part of DeCarlo but had

Student Members of SDS

Now Come Close To Treason

Students for a Democratic Society, (SDS), those architects of campus anarchy, held a rally on Boston

Common the other day. A more appropriate place for it would have been downtown Hanoi.

Members of the SDS, a misleading name if ever there was one, not only denounced the U.S. role in Vietnam but also declared their support of the National Liberation Front of the Viet Cong.

That comes close to treason in our book, and some of the liberals who have been crying out angrily when these students have been handled too roughly by police would do well to wake up to the fact that the members of SDS obviously are being used as political pawns.

15 More METCO Pupils Set For Newton In Fall

Newton will admit 15 more Committeeman Alvin Mandell.

Newton will ask the State Board of Education for $44,500 to pay for transportation, salaries of a part-time coordinator, reading specialist and social worker; for some teaching supplies and tutorial help.

One committee member, Francis Frazier, was at first reluctant to approve expansion of the program.

He pointed out that when the project was initiated conditions were imposed stating that there would be no cost to the local taxpayers, that no child would be placed in a classroom containing 25 or more pupils, and that there would be no obligation to expand the program. "We have succeeded in abandoning all three conditions," Frazier said.

An analysis of petitions signed last Election Day was made by Mrs. Bonnie Orlin, of the League of Women Voters of Newton. Mrs. Orlin's comparison of petition signatures with voting lists shows that only about 60 percent of the signatures are valid.

Citizens for Charter Review originally planned to collect only 10,000 signatures. Out of these 10,000 would come the 7,500 "certified" signatures needed to place on the ballot the question of studying Newton's 72 year old Charter.

The new goal is 12,500 signatures. This increase is necessary to compensate for the 40 percent of invalid signatures which cannot be certified by the Election Commission.

Charter Review Days are taking place on May 1, 2, and 3 to help meet this higher goal. On these three days, petitions will be available at the Newton Free Library, Main building and all branch

The Gourmet Adventures of THE HIGHLANDS

In France, teas are made with dozens of aromatic herbs and flowers and drinking them is a national habit. The French word for an herbal infusion, tisane, conveys a double meaning: it is a tea that is good to taste and good for what ails you. For centuries, cups of herb teas, fragrant with flavor and history, have provided the simplest and most pleasant relief for all of man's minor pains and discomforts. Tisanes are taken at bedtime, when the nerves are taut. Chills from a cold, weariness, indigestion can be treated by drinking a healthful, hot tisane. Sipping an herb tea leisurely is a perfect way to end a meal and some of the most elegant restaurants in Paris serve these aromatic herbs.

You don't have to go as far as Paris for a real French delicacy. THE HIGHLANDS RESTAURANT, 1114 Beacon Street, Newton, 332-4400, makes Roast Long Island Duckling a l'Orange that even the French rave about. Dine elegantly tonight. Plan to take Mom out for Mother's Day weekend.

libraries. The Newton Savings Bank and its branches will also have petitions for citizens to sign on May 1 and May 2.

Members of the Newton Board of Realtors, which recently passed a resolution supporting the efforts of Citizens for Charter Review, will have petitions in their offices. On Saturday, May 3, members of the League of Women Voters will be at the Newtonville Star Market with petitions.

A folder explaining the need for Charter Review has been distributed through the Newton Public elementary schools, with the approval of the Newton School Committee, one of the groups endorsing Charter Review.

Other groups include the Newton Board of Aldermen, the Newton Council of P.T.A.'s, the Chamber of Commerce, the Republican and Democratic City Committees, and the League of Women Voters of Newton.

During the past few weeks, members of the League have spoken before many community organizations to explain the importance of studying the Charter.

At these meetings there have been numerous questions about Newton's Charter. Serving as the constitution of Newton, the Charter specifies the number of elected officials, their terms of office, and the method of filling vacancies in office..

The League has mimeographed copies of the Charter, which are available by calling the League office, 332-0590. There is a copy of the Charter in the reference room of the Main building of the Newton Free Library.

The Speakers Bureau of the League of Women Voters is being directed by Mrs. Barbara Shapiro, with the assistance of Mrs. Sylvia Kaufman.

Any group wishing to have someone speak about Charter Review may arrange to do so by calling Mrs. Shapiro at 527-0016. League members who have already spoken about Charter Review include Mrs. Shapiro, Mrs. Jane Montgomery, Mrs. Ruth Hernandez, Mrs. Eloise Houghton, Mrs. Sylvia Apelbaum, Mrs. Mary Lewis Hansen, and Mrs. Florence Rubin.

In speaking recently before the Newton Board of Realtors, Mrs. Rubin, who is president of the League of Women Voters, explained, "Charter Review provides the voters of Newton with an opportunity for responsible citizen action. "When you sign a Charter Review petition, you are using your constitutional right to bring an important governmental issue before your fellow citizens," she said.

West Newton Fire Victim Listed "Fair"

An eight-year-old West Newton youngster was reported in fair condition today at Beth Israel Hospital where he was taken following a fire in which he became a human torch.

Jacob Foguel, of 145 Fairway dr., received burns over 20 percent of his body. The youngster ran from his home with his clothing on fire.

A neighbor, Richard W. Noyes, 57, of 158 Fairway dr., threw the boy down and rolled him on the ground to smother the flames.

Both were taken to Newton Wellesley Hospital. Noyes was released after treatment for burns on his hands. The boy was transferred to Beth Israel after being administered first aid treatment.

When firefighters responded to an alarm sounded by neighbors, the 1 1/2 story family dwelling was blazing through the kitchen, breezeway and end of the house. Damage was estimated at $12,000.

Chief Frederick A. Perkins, Jr., said the youngster was apparently handling a small alcohol lamp when in some unknown manner it fell or alcohol spilled and ignited.

The boy's mother, Mrs. Brenda Foguel, was visiting with neighbors at the time of the incident.

Words Of Wisdom

The experience of history indicates that those who condone or support the violence on campuses of American colleges and universities and the disruption of educational routine on the grounds of preserving a necessary atmosphere of freedom in institutions of higher learning, may be off on the wrong foot.

Anarchy on the campus has virtually destroyed higher education in Latin America. The decline began in 1918 when students in Argentina were given a voice in running the universities.

Through the intervening years the governments of our neighbors to the south have been trying to reverse the trend, but, meanwhile, standards have sunk so low that a Mexican professor was compelled to admit:

"We produce some bad doctors, but they displace witch doctors. We produce some bad lawyers, but they are going to be clerks anyway, with some legal training. Our brilliant students we send abroad."

In the United States, before the meaning of education dissolves in chaos, it might be well to heed the words of Supreme Court Justice Hugo L. Black who said recently—

"I have always had the idea that the schools were to educate children and not children to educate teachers."

National Goodwill Week

Observance of National Goodwill Week, which takes place between May 4 and 10, holds more than usual significance. The nationwide self-help program of Goodwill Industries, providing training and employment for the handicapped, is a particularly fitting and unique illustration of the manner in which it is possible for a worthwhile endeavor to stand on its own feet through the voluntary actions and support of the American people.

The far-flung operations of Goodwill Industries are kept going by the generosity of those who provide the organization with the substance of its existence—used clothing to be mended, as well as used toys, furniture and other objects that, with repair, may be sold for revenue to perpetuate the work of Goodwill.

The repair work is done by handicapped persons employed by Goodwill. Beyond that, Goodwill Industries provide rehabilitation, training and placement of handicapped persons in different industries which may have niches for them.

Over the years, countless thousands of handicapped have found new hope, jobs and economic independence through this outstanding organization. Goodwill Industries has demonstrated the capacity of this democratic system of ours to combine generosity with good business principles.

At this particular time, as answers are being sought for a wide range of social problems, this holds a special significance for the entire nation.

Newton Writers' Works Displayed At Library

Shirlee Newman's "Mary Martin On Stage" and Lilla Walts' "Cave of the Incas" are two new books for children by Newton authors being featured at Newtonville Branch and at the Boys' and Girls' Library, Newton Free Library, respectively, during May.

Mrs. Newman, author also of "Marian Anderson: Lady From Philadelphia" and "The Story of Lyndon B. Johnson" (Westminster Press) is a Newton Centre resident who, with earflaps made on a traditional pattern, and two titles showing typical Peruvian costumes.

Mrs. Walts is now working on a third mystery story with Newton as a locale, "The Mystery of the Persian Urns."

Both exhibits will remain on view through late May.

Police Officer Attends Babson

Sgt. William H. Dowling Jr. of the Newton Police Department is among the 30 registrants for the 17th session of the Command Training Institute for police officers sponsored by the New England Association of Chiefs of Police at Babson Institute, Wellesley. Classes started Monday (April 21) and will continue weekdays until Friday (May 9).

Sgt. Dowling's course will include lectures and seminars on many aspects of police work such as law enforcement, including counter-espionage, which she says was a mystery relations, human relations, decision-making and its factual background.

LETTERS TO THE GRAPHIC

Teachers Respond

Editor of The Graphic:
The recent School Committee decision regarding the Elementary Lunch Program seems to have pleased no one for it is a compromise on an issue which has polarized the community. We, the teachers of Newton, are not pleased for we have taken a position "unequivocally opposed" to a lunch program. It is our opinion that a split session is sounder educationally. This opinion and the reasons for it were brought before the School Committee and the public.

However, we recognize the legal authority of the School Committee to establish educational policies; and we recognize our obligation to support these decisions. It is our sincere hope that other groups in the city will also show their willingness to abide by this decision.

There are many issues of educational significance on which the School Committee must expend its time and energy. Also, we feel that quality education in the city of Newton is in grave danger if the School Committee is forced to function under constant harassment. As one School Committee member stated, "If the only thing to come out of this meeting is that pressure works, then Newton is in real trouble."

Robert R. Weiser,

President
Newton Teachers Association

As far as the system's being technically complex the average citizen has only to listen to the scientific community's thought on the subject, the majority being against it.

The past four science advisors to our previous three presidents have opposed it as the system is wasteful being obsolete before it is built and it is a dangerous escalation of the nuclear arms race.

It is not the people against ABM who are making political hay out of the issue (both Democrats and Republicans are opposing it), but rather the Administration as shown by President Nixon's frank confirmation that Franklin A. Long has been denied appointment as director of the National Science Foundation because of his opposition to ABM.

Yes, the present missile deployment plan represents a sharp reduction of an earlier one, but this proves that it is a "weapons system in search of a mission" designed to keep the military industrial complex in business.

The ABM boondoggle is a local issue in that the money wasted on this useless system could be better spent on domestic problems. Local tax rates are soaring as our city tries to keep up with its needs while the federal government finds new ways to keep up the arms race.

At a time when President Nixon is calling for negotiations with the Soviet Union it could be disastrous to proceed with this escalation of the arms race.

Sincerely,
Newton Coalition For New Politics
Justine B. Dillard,
Correspondence Secretary

Purpose of Meeting

Editor of The Graphic:
To take issue with Mrs. Colbert's anxiety concerning the outbreak of dissident students lately, I feel there are more sides to the issue than simply fuddy duddy employers and lanterns at graduation on Harvard campus.

Students have every right to demonstrate and strike. Pusey may be a myth to Colbert, but he isn't to other elements of American society. I have every respect for Nathan Pusey's point of view and would not challenge his point that criminal actions deserve police reaction.

However, to send squads of riot police into a hall filled with children, however much like obnoxious brats they may seem, is not in my opinion appropriate.

I believe in all that Nathan Pusey is saying, but I don't believe in the man himself. The attitude of "don't do what I do, do what I say" lacks both integrity and intelligence.

Adult backlash is just as dirty as any other kind of backlash. Abrams set a bad precedent by not reacting responsibly, but so did Pusey. They're still children.

Sincerely,
L. Newell Davis, Jr.

Newton, Mass.

Drive Still On

Editor of the Graphic:

Newton Citizens for Charter Review are delighted with the public response to our petition signature drive. A recent article in the Graphic indicated that we have already collected more signatures than are needed. Unfortunately, this is not precisely true.

To put the question of Charter Review on November's ballot, we must file 7,500 "certified" signatures. A signature is certified as valid by the Newton Election Commission only if it corresponds exactly to the signer's name on the voting list. If a woman registers to vote as "Mary J. Green" and signs the petition as "Mary Green," omitting her middle initial, her signature on the petition is not valid. If a man is registered to vote as "John L. Smith, Jr." and signs a petition as "John L. Smith," omitting the "Jr.," his signature is not valid.

THEY DON'T SEEM TO MEET

Election Commission in Newton City Hall to find out his registered voting name.

If Citizens for Charter Review file with only one valid signature short of the required number, the question of studying Newton's City Charter will not go on the ballot.

POLITICAL HIGHLIGHTS

The students at Cornell University, who armed themselves, created a dangerous situation with shocking overtones and implications which could not be overlooked.

Those students should be expelled from college, prosecuted in court, and sent to jail.

But many students, who obviously work harder thinking up things to demand than they do on their studies, should hardly be treated by the news media as if they were veteran diplomats negotiating for peace in the world.

Most of these students are not yet 21 years old. Some of them are teen-agers. They wouldn't have the remotest idea of what to do if they were given a college and told to run it their way.

Yet, at times they are taken far too seriously when they should be told to start studying or get out of college.

Students at publicly supported colleges and universities in Massachusetts would be well advised to understand that authorities on Beacon Hill are not in a mood to take any nonsense whatever from them.

It is surprising to this observer that some people—a relatively few, to be sure—condone campus hoodlumism.

They favor, support and want law and order in the streets. But by some strange form of reasoning they argue that a small percentage of students have a right to disrupt the operation of a college and prevent other students from getting the education they want.

The logic escapes us.

Meanwhile, let's start regarding these demonstrating students in their true light—immature boys and girls two or three years out of high school.

Execution of Sirhan Sirhan May Deter Future Assassins

We would have voted to send Sirhan Sirhan to the gas chamber if we had been on that jury out in Los Angeles.

It would have been a tough decision—one which probably would have meant sleepless hours in the quiet of the night.

We don't believe in the death penalty except in certain cases.

No one who saw an execution could favor capital punishment.

We covered an electrocution in the old State Prison at Charlestown, and it was an experience we relived in horror, asleep and awake.

Yet, it seems that the circumstances, all added up together, warranted the decision that Sirhan Sirhan should die in the gas chamber, and we suspect that would be an even more shocking incident to view than killing a man by sending bolts of electricity through his body.

The execution of Sirhan Sirhan may not be a deterrent to the assassination of a President or a Presidential candidate in the future, but it's also possible that it may discourage some person from seeking a niche in history by shooting down a famous figure.

In the Sirhan case there is no possibility that the wrong man may be going to the gas chamber or that a great injustice may be discovered at a later time.

Sirhan Sirhan is guilty beyond the slightest shadow of a doubt, and he was mentally competent enough to plan the senseless murder of Robert Kennedy.

It's true, of course, as numerous editorial writers have pointed out, that the electrocution of Sirhan Sirhan cannot restore Robert Kennedy to life.

But no one can say with any degree of certainty that it might not cause someone's life to be spared in the future.

A man should be able to run for President or serve as President without becoming the target of a would-be assassin with a fancied grievance or who would like to achieve his own place in history by pulling a trigger.

It's a terrible thing to take a man's life in a gas chamber, but it wasn't exactly fun day when Bobby Kennedy was senselessly murdered.

Surprising Public Approval Of 3-Year-Old Sales Tax

It isn't necessary to make a poll to learn that people don't want to pay taxes.

But a survey made for the Boston Globe showed surprising public acceptance of the three-year-old, 3 per cent sales tax.

One aspect of the Globe poll revealed that the people for the most part don't want taxes increased unless they are taxes levied on somebody else.

For example, a majority of people approve of a proposed 2-cent-per-package hike in the cigarette tax and a boost in the tax on banks, insurance companies and corporations.

Most of them don't even mind paying a higher liquor tax, a bigger meals tax when they dine out in restaurants or a larger tax on their room if they spend the night in a hotel.

But they are overwhelmingly opposed to any jump in the State income tax.

There is substantially less opposition to raising the sales tax from 3 to 4 per cent although the people are against that more than 2-1.

What this observer considered most significant about the poll was that it showed that 60 per cent of the people in Massachusetts approve of the sales tax.

After three years, most people regard the sales tax as a relatively painless impost. For the most part they pay it pennies at a time and don't feel its impact as they would a tax paid in lump sums or one deducted from their pay.

The poll returns probably will stiffen and increase opposition to Governor Sargent's tax program.

However, the basic issue is not whether the people want the Governor's tax plan. The choice is between that and a bigger increase in the real estate tax. The money must come from some source.

News Media Should Follow

Example of Irate Mother

An irate mother with an umbrella in her hand placed a student sit-in at Brandeis University in proper perspective earlier this year.

She rapped indignantly on a window until she was admitted to the building, which the students had taken over, and in a short time she emerged with her student son whom she hadn't seen or heard from for several days.

The student take-over had no appeal for her. She wanted her son out of it, and she got him out.

The demonstration itself ended a short time later, and it seemed the angry mother with the umbrella had taken a lot of steam out of it.

She had made the entire affair appear ridiculous which, indeed, it was.

That poses a question as to whether newspapers, radio and television stations don't treat some of the absurd student demonstrations altogether too seriously instead of placing them in their real light.

Malcolm Frager in Concert With Newton Symphony at Meadowbrk

Renowned pianist Malcolm Frager will join the Newton Symphony under the direction of Michel Sasse in a concert devoted entirely to the music of Peter Tchaikovsky on Sunday evening (May 18) at 8 p.m. in the Meadowbrook Junior High School.

This final concert of the 1968-69 season will include Tchaikovsky's Symphony No. 5 and the original version of the Concerto in B flat minor. This 1874 edition has rarely been played.

Soloist Malcolm Frager is the first - and to date, the only - artist ever to have won what Time Magazine called "two of the toughest competitions in music"; First Prize at the world-famous Concours de la Reine Elisabeth in Brussels and its prestigious American counterpart, New York's Edgar M. Leventritt Competition. Mr. Frager has been in the forefront of the international musical scene ever since this double triumph ten years ago.

Malcolm Frager's unusual gifts are by no means limited to music. In 1957 he graduated magna cum laude (Phi Beta Kappa) from Columbia University, and his extraordinary command of languages (he speaks seven, including Russian) stands him in good stead during his lengthy tours abroad.

In Europe, his annual itineraries have taken him to 17 countries, and in 1963 he toured the Soviet Union, playing 25 sold-out performances, 11 of them in Moscow. In Moscow he also played 4 two-piano recitals with Soviet pianist Vladimir Ashkenazy, and they have repeated these concerts in many major cities, including New York. During 1968 he had a successful tour in the Orient and returned to South America for the third time.

Born in 1935, Malcolm Frager played his first recital in St. Louis at the age of 6 and four years later was soloist with the St. Louis Symphony. At 14 he moved to New York to continue his studies with Carl Friedberg, who had been a pupil of Clara Schumann and Johannes Brahms. Mr. Frager began to win prizes as early as 1952. The first was the Prix d'Excellence at the American Conservatory in Fountainbleau, France.

This was followed by top honors at the Geneva International Piano Competition in 1955, the Michael's Memorial Music Award in Chicago in 1956 and the Career Award of the National Society of Arts and Letters in Los Angeles in 1958, the year before he won the Leventritt Award. In 1960, after the Brussels competition, Mr.

MALCOLM FRAGER

Frager was invited by President Eisenhower to perform at The White House for the King and Queen of Denmark. A limited number of reserved tickets are still available for this performance. For information and reservations, call Mrs. Stolbach at 244-8506.

Cabaret Night To Be Held At Temple May 10

The Brotherhood of Temple Beth Shalom, Needham, will sponsor '69, a musical variety show, at the Temple on Saturday evening, May 10, 1969 at 8 p.m., according to an announcement by the co-chairmen, Walter Rosenfield and Arthur Schwartz.

The show, which is under the direction of Dave Connors, Needham High School instructor and musician, will feature a cast of over 40 Temple members in skits, solos, dance numbers and musical selections.

A full evening is planned with dancing to a five piece band prior to and following the show. In addition, a light snack will also be served after the entertainment.

talked of "an indelicate situation" by virtue of the fact that DeCarlo is both a contractor and a chairman of the Redevelopment Authority.

"I pointed out that Shea is living in a home where the zoning regulations are being violated and that he, an alderman, is not only condoning the violation but has been a party to it," Mayor Basbas declared.

The clash between Basbas and Shea was touched off when Shea said that DiCarlo had received $50,000 from the city for snow - removal work and an additional $23,000 on a sand contract with the city.

Shea said yesterday that the zoning violation case is before Judge Lloyd Allen in Newton district court and that he is one of four tenants permitted to remain in the building at least until June "due to the fact that there has been no judicial finding that a violation exists."

"Furthermore," said Shea, "it seems to me that recting this alleged violation does not rest, as the Mayor thinks, exclusively upon me as a tenant. Nor does the responsibility for correcting this alleged violation rest upon the Mayor's office, but rather it is clearly within the jurisdiction of the Newton District Courts."

Shea added that the real issue is the possible impropriety of the Mayor's relationship to his $73,000 city contractor and campaigner and Redevelopment Authority chairman - Mr. DeCarlo.

The Mayor declined further comment except to say that as far as he is aware Shea is charging no wrong - doing by DeCarlo but is merely alleging that DeCarlo is involved in an "indelicate situation."

The zoning case to which both Basbas and Shea referred stems from a charge that more families are residing in the building where Shea lives than is permitted under the zoning ordinance.

Alan Starr (Billy's cousin) and Paul Cohen (Dave's brother) dropped one set, but still triumphed, 6-3, 4-6, 6-2. Seniors Andy Levin and Ken Miller were near perfect, winning 6-0, 6-1.

Dave Fish Is New Freshman Tennis Captain

Waban's Dave Fish, a 5-11, 158 pounder, has been elected Harvard's freshman tennis captain.

Playing at number four singles, Fish has won both of his matches while in doubles, he has teamed at number one with Rick Devereaux as they have gone 1-1.

"Dave will be an excellent addition to next year's varsity," says Coach Corey Wynn.

"He has a good serve and overhead, good ground strokes, and he has an excellent touch. In fact, he has no real weakness."

A 1968 graduate of Exeter, Fish lettered three years in tennis and twice in squash, captaining both squads as a senior.

Hurvitz Tosses 2nd One-Hitter, Third Shutout

By Lew Freeman

Frank Hurvitz fired his third shutout of the year and his second one-hitter as Newton South's baseball squad edged Brockton High, 1-0, and then nipped Waltham, 7-6, behind Jim Gamble and Thurston Tartar.

South is now 4-1 and has registered all its wins by a run, in addition to losing by a hinge run.

Hurvitz once again was brilliant, allowing a single base-hit off the bat of catcher Steve Doherty in the fifth inning. Fireballing Frank also exhibited pin-point control, walking only one.

South's lone run came in the first inning. Lead-off batter Captain Tom Rezzuti walked, stole second, went to third on a ground ball, and came home when catcher Doherty went to the mound to speak to his pitcher and forgot to call time out. Rezzuti was credited with his second stolen base of the inning.

The Lions only managed four hits off of Brockton pitchers Bob Terry and Ed Pearson. John Lopez, Clem Virgilio, Bob Eisenberg, and Bruce Gorton, each had a single.

Lefty Jim Gamble went 6-1/3 inning, fanning five and permitting seven hits, but needed some relief help from Thurston Tartar to preserve his first victory of the season.

Tartar snuffed out Waltham's last ditch effort to make up a 7-3 deficit in the seventh inning and was credited with a save.

Catcher Ken Stuart provided the punch in the South attack. He was 3-for-3 with three RBIs and three runs scored. One hit was a three-run homer.

Tom Rezzuti had two safeties and his sixth stolen base of the season. Emmons, as the team as they romped over Bereznin and they won easily 6-1, 6-3. Second doubles Rick Farian and Steve Salter finished off the Maroon and Gold by taking their match 6-1, 6-4.

Newton South, 4-1, is in second place in the Suburban League, behind undefeated Weymouth High. The Lions have Cambridge Latin and Newton High on the schedule this week, and will also play a make-up game with Weymouth.

Paul Blazier, the mustached No. 1 singles player again won easily, 6-0, 6-2. Blazier has played exceptionally well in the third position public school competition as triumphed 6-3, 6-4. Berman, witnessed by his record of 24 last year's No. 1 man is games won and 7 lost this somewhat behind the other year.

Due to the absence of John Brookline its only point.

Westlund Keeps Waltham Scoreless in 1-Hitter

By Jeff Grossman

The real key, however, was Westlund, the Murray Road southpaw. The lanky lefty was an enigma to the baffled Waltham hitters who fanned a total of ten times all afternoon. But, this isn't really unusual for Westlund who has worked the last 18-13 innings without surrendering a run.

In fact, this is the way Westlund will have to keep pitching if Newton hopes to take the Suburban League as he is their real stopper. The rest of the staff has been as unpredictable as New England weather and last year's ace of the mound staff, Clark Berry was here with arm troubles.

It is hoped he will return soon.

Speculating into the second half of the season, if Berry can come back and pitch the way he did last year and Westlund can continue to be effective, Newton should be a real contender for the Suburban League crown.

Newton High Track Team Fifth in E Mass Relays

The Newton High Track Team finished fifth last Saturday in the Eastern Massachusetts Relays which, while not being considered particularly outstanding as he turned in a swift 51.5 quarter mile.

The long jump team of Joe DiSoglio, Dom McMillen and Luther Core came up with a third. DiSoglio and McMillen were impressive as they jumped 19'10" and 19'6" respectively. All three had a busy afternoon as they each figured in three teams that scored points.

The 880 relay team consisting of Don McMillen, Joe DiSoglio, Barry Harsip and Luther Core finished fourth while the mile team of Steve Scrimshaw, Skip Fawson, Captain Barry Harsip and Bill Clarke picked up a point placing fifth.

Next Wednesday Newton will face Rindge in their second dual meet of the season as they try to continue their dominance over the Suburban League.

For nine out of the last ten years the Tigers have ruled the Suburban League and they will try to make it ten out of 11 in this, the last year of the league.

Next year the league will be realigned and such powers as Waltham and Weymouth will be added to the Newton schedule. At the present time Brookline, Brockton, Rindge, New Bedford, Newton and Newton South make up the Suburban League.

West Newtonite Leads Bentley Baseball Team

Garry Keil of West Newton, a senior at Bentley College in Waltham, has been elected captain of the school baseball team.

Coach Bob DeFelice, former Boston College All-American, said that Keil, and outfielder, should see plenty of action this spring as Bentley meets a tough, 16-game schedule.

THE SOUTH WILL RISE AGAIN — Watching his Walpole High School Rebels pass in review is football and track coach John Lee, who stands at attention armed with his trusty javelin. Lee has strong ties with the South, as he was football coach at Overton High in Memphis, Tennessee for eight years. However, Lee comes originally from Newton and is a Newton High grad. The Rebel flag he is wearing is a prominent sight at Walpole sports contests. This gag shot comes from the Walpole High photography club, and is being used in this year's WHS yearbook.

South High Track Team In Debut

It was a heavy opening week of action for the Newton South High tracksters during school vacation. The Lions spent Monday and Tuesday in the third annual NSHS pentathlon, with each member of the team participating in five events, then on Wednesday faced Dover - Sherborn regional High School in a dual-practice meet, and on Saturday competed in the Class A Relays at Boston College.

The victor in the pentathlon was junior Ron Schneier with 21 points. Second was Rich Kates, a junior, also with 21 points. (Schneier was victorious by outscoring Kates in the Dover - Sherborn meet.) Third place went to senior Lew Freedman with 18 points. Senior Robin Hirsch and sophomore Dave Peters tied for fourth with 16-1/2 points.

Schneier scored his points with firsts in the high jump, broad jump, and low hurdles; second in the high hurdles and fourth in the triple jump.

At Dover - Sherborn, the Lions were disappointed, 59-45. South showed up very well in the sprints as Captain Bruce Kopelman went crazy, winning the 100, 220, 440, and anchoring the victorious 880 relay team for 16-1/4 points.

The Lions were shutout in the javelin and discus and tallied only one point in the shot-put as sophomore Joe DeLuca grabbed third. Nick Parnell was second in the broad jump and Schneier was third. Parnell was tops in the high jump with a 5-8 leap. Kates was second at 5-5. There was no pole vault or triple jump.

Kopelman copped the 100 in 10.6. Rob Hirsch backed him up with a third place. Kopelman won the 220 in 23.5 and once again Hirsch provided additional points in second. Kopelman captured the 440 in 55.3 with John Seeler a third place finisher.

Schneier was second in the 880 with Freedman third. South was blanked in the mile. Mike Oshima placed second in the 2-mile.

Hirsch running opening leg on the 880 relay team built up a four-yard lead, which Seeler, Peters, and Kopelman improved upon.

Newton South scored points in two events at the class relays.

The high jump relay, with Parnell leaping 6-2, Kates 5-6, and Schneier 5-2, tied for third place, behind Medford and Weymouth. The trio's combined height of 16-10 tied them with Quincy High.

"You might say my work is a rate race," says Doralee Denenberg, of Chestnut Hill, attractive mother of three teen-age daughters. Mrs. Denenberg, a graduate of Boston University's College of Liberal Arts in 1950 with a degree in mathematics, works with large white rats in her research at the graduate school of Boston University's Sargent College of Allied Health Professions.

She times and supervises a treadmill on which a rat goes "up and down escalator" for precisely an hour. As the treadmill stops, the other occupants paw the plastic sides of their cubicles, anxious to return to the quiet relaxation of their cages.

Mrs. Denenberg and her rats (there are more than 50 adolescents and adults) are nearing the end of a research investigation which aims to correlate exercise with changes in the blood supply to the heart. If results bear out her hypothesis, Mrs. Denenberg, hopes to show that an ideal regime of exercise can change the ratio between the size of the heart and the size of the vascular tree which carries blood to the heart.

"Research has already demonstrated that rats exercised regularly five days a week develop an increase in vascular tissue surrounding the heart," explains Mrs. Denenberg, "but they also develop hypertrophy, or enlarged heart muscle. So the ratio of the size of the vascular tree to the size of the heart remains the same."

"However," she continues, "rats exercised only two or three days a week have developed the larger vascular tree without the concomitant hypertrophy. In other words, the blood supply has been increased more than the heart has been enlarged."

The potential value to man in this experiment would be that, if it can be shown that exercise can alter the blood supply to the heart, the prognosis for survival from heart attacks would be much improved.

The unknowns in the study cause Mrs. Denenberg to be cautious in her optimism. "Just because rats on a two-day-a-week exercise schedule have not developed an enlarged heart yet doesn't mean that they won't; perhaps the heart size will eventually catch up."

Also, she emphasizes that "nobody is really sure about the process which causes the increased blood supply. It might be a distention in existing vascular tissue, the calling into service of preexisting micro-vessels which had been lying in abeyance, or these vessels themselves making new connections to route the blood."

At any rate, exercise might stimulate the growth of the vascular tissue so that collateral vessels might take over to lessen the severity, or even prevent, certain forms of heart attacks.

Whatever else Mrs. Denenberg's graduate thesis research teaches her, she has certainly learned a great deal about rats. "Did you know they love peanut butter?" she asks. "That business about cheese is an old wives' tale."

Her present tolerance for her animal charges did not come easily. She had the usual female revulsion to rats.

"I had to program my self psychologically before I began my research," she says. At the suggestion of a psychologist friend, she spent a certain period each day "thinking about rodents, or about Mickey Mouse or whatever else would keep me from screaming."

Apparently, it worked. Says Mrs. Denenberg proudly, "By the time I actually had to face them in the laboratory, I was able to touch them and even pick them up on the very first day."

The Theater Party is the first public event which will bring together people of all religious faiths and backgrounds so that they may learn of plans for construction of the Memorial.

"Now all people will know of our attempts to create a fitting memorial to these unfortunate who were helpless and brutally slain during an era mankind would rather forget... but must not forget, lest it happen again," he commented. "That is why the Z'Chor Memorial is being created, a place of tranquility, and an area to be used by all people, regardless of religious or ethnic background, a place for remembrance of these Jewish victims and of the hope that it may never occur again anywhere in the world."

"I hope that many people in our community will set aside May 15th, to support our campaign by attending the Chann-

Kendall is a member of the Food and Flavor Section of the Life Sciences Division of Arthur D. Little, Inc. Cambridge.

He also presented a paper recently to the American Chemical Society Division of Water, Air and Waste Chemistry on the subject, "Parameters Affecting the Determination of Recognition Odor Thresholds."

The paper was written by Kendall, Miss Elaine R. Rubin of 865 Boylston St., Newton and Gregory Leonards of Cambridge, all of the Little Corp.

The paper was delivered at a society meeting in MInneapolis.

Two other Newton area Little Corp. employees also have delivered papers recently.

Dr. Robert H. Liss of 44 Leslie Road, Newton, spoke on chemotherapeutic agents in normal and tumor-bearing rodents before the Society for Toxicology in Williamsburg, Va.

Chief Frederick A. Perkins, Jr., said the fire apparently started from a faulty incinerator in the basement and traveled up pipe recesses, through the partitions to the third floor of the three-story brick Colonial dwelling.

The blaze was discovered by a maid and Mrs. Hyman summoned the fire department.

Hyman now practices law in Washington, D.C. After being notified of the fire, he left for home.

In many research laboratories across the country an optimism exists. It stems from key advances. One of these advances is in the use of drugs in treating certain forms of cancer, notably leukemia. ## Dixon Hall Names R. E. Kann E. Vice President Ronald Dixon Hall, Jr., President and Chairman of the Board of Dixon Hall, Inc., today announced the appointment of Richard E. Kann, of Newton, Massachusetts, as Executive Vice President of this New England Advertising/Marketing firm.

Kann joined Dixon Hall in 1965 as Vice President and General Manager of the agency's Mark Hall Consumer Division. Under Kann's direction this division has substantially grown over the past three years. Because of this growth, Dixon Hall has moved from a technical/industrial agency to a general agency with both consumer and industrial accounts.

Prior to joining Dixon Hall, Kann was Executive Vice President of another Boston agency where he headed the retail/consumer group and served on that agency's plans board. Also, he was in charge of both the creative ad copy departments.

Kann, a native New Yorker, started his Massachusetts advertising career as Sales Promotion Manager of J. M. Fields, a nationwide chain of discount department stores. He was in charge of all Sales Promotions, Publicity, Public Relations, Advertising, store openings and store planning.

During World War II, Kann was an Air Force Public Information writer in the Pacific Theater. He is a graduate of Columbia College and holds a Master's Degree from the Columbia University School of Industrial Management.

In his new position as Executive Vice President, Kann will take on additional duties at Dixon Hall, including overall personnel supervision. He will continue to serve as General Manager of the Mark Hall Division.

Newton Sister School In Bogota Not For Indigent

Films depicting Newton's sister school in Bogota, Colombia brought an unexpected reaction from several School Committee members on Monday night.

Concern was expressed by three members who were under the impression that Newton was aiding a school for the masses of uneducated Colombian children, when it appeared from the films that the school is run for children of American diplomats and businessmen and wealthy Colombians who can afford the tuition rates.

The films were taken by Assistant Superintendent Dr. J. Bernard Everett and School Committee Chairman Manuel Beckwith who traveled to Colombia recently to attend a conference.

Dr. Everett explained that there are about 140 dependent schools overseas that serve U.S. State Department personnel and businessmen. About 50 of these schools have been adopted as sister schools by school systems in this country.

Newton has not supplied funds, but has sent teachers to U.S. Government or Ford Foundation expense.

Several members of the Newton School Department have participated in the operation of the school. In September of 1965, Wilma Foy, a teacher at the Burr School went to the Bogota, Colombia, school for two years. She served as an elementary curriculum coordinator.

Mrs. Mildred Meredith, a teacher at the Countryside School, is presently serving her second year in the Colombian school.

Committee Chairman Vincent Stanton agreed. "I find the relationship very unbecoming to Newton. I always assumed the school was for nationals. I seriously question whether we should support an American enclave. I think it is a misuse of foundation money and I would like to see us divest ourselves of this relationship and undertake something where we could really do some good."

Beckwith replied, "in these troubled times when the United States has difficulty with relationships with other countries Newton is really striking a blow for better relationships."

He said the Rotary Club of Bogota asked that the Newton Rotary Club be contacted to work out some exchange of students.

Committee Chairman Harold Berman, however, expressed concern about "Americans who go to a foreign country and isolate themselves from

OVER 30 COPTERS LOST IN SOUTH VIETNAM IN 2 WEEKS

MORE THAN 30 U.S. helicopters have been lost in South Vietnam in a two-week series of mishaps that cost the lives of at least 49 Americans. At the same time, more than 135 planes have been downed in the "secret" air war over neighboring Laos since the bombing halt over North Vietnam began last Nov. 1. U.S. military command records showed Wednesday. Disclosure of the air losses came as terrorists struck in Saigon Wednesday night with a grenade attack that wounded eight persons, a U.S. soldier and seven Vietnamese civilians, three of them children. The hand grenade exploded on a Saigon street 100 yards from a U.S. bachelor enlisted men's quarters.

VIET CONG RENEWS DEMAND FOR UNILATERAL WITHDRAWAL

VIET CONG peace conference delegates in Paris Wednesday renewed their demand for a unilateral withdrawal of American troops from South Vietnam and rejected any form of cooperation with the Saigon government. The latest demand was made by chief North Vietnam negotiator Xuan Thuy in an interview with a Paris newspaper. He accused the Nixon administration of "pursuing and intensifying its war of aggression in Vietnam."

ISRAELI ARTILLERY BOMBARDS PORT SAID

FOR THE FIRST TIME since the 1967 war, Israeli artillery shelled Port Said Wednesday, and an Egyptian spokesman said a spotter plane directing the bombardment was shot down. In addition to battling daylong across the Suez Canal, Arab and Israeli forces also fought across the Jordan River ceasefire line. In Lebanon, Arab soldiers fought Arab guerrillas.

POPE PAUL VI HITS AT TOY WEAPONS FOR CHILDREN

STEPPING into a long simmering dispute, Pope Paul VI on Wednesday told an unappreciative audience that in his opinion toy weapons are bad for children. He was addressing participants of a European toy manufacturers' congress in Rome, some of whom expressed conflicting views in speeches Tuesday. "We feel it is our duty to remind you, toys have a great educational importance," the Pope told the manufacturers from 10 nations in a French language speech. "Luxury toys root certain habits in the minds, weapons develop aggressiveness, other toys incite cruelty towards animals and still others in the dangerous attitude," he said.

CONGRESSMEN FAVOR CUTTING OFF AID TO RIOT-TORN COLLEGES

A BAND OF CONGRESSMEN Wednesday expressed themselves in favor of cutting off aid to a college which can not control campus rioting in the belief that such action might put some "spine in spineless administrators." A bi-partisan quartet of House members told a special education subcommittee hearing on campus unrest that it is up to Congress to force some college officials to get tough with student rioters. Rep. William H. Harsha, R-Ohio, said that "in the main the nation's academic administrators have demonstrated a lack of backbone with which to properly meet their responsibilities." His bill would require the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare to suspend all federal aid to a college in which rioting has disrupted classes and business.

OUTBREAKS OF STUDENTS CLOSE DOWN N.Y. CITY COLLEGE

FRESH OUTBREAKS of racial fighting forced City College of New York to close down again Wednesday. Negro students seized six Howard University buildings and riot-ready police ousted anti-war protesters from Dartmouth College's administration building. Indiana students marched on the statehouse in Indianapolis. Prudue students called a one-day boycott and there were campus building takeovers, sit-ins and strikes elsewhere across the nation as the student rebellion flared in May. CCNY President Buell C. Galleran called in police twice to restore order and closed the school.

IMPEACHMENT PROCEEDINGS PREDICTED AGAINST FORTAS

A BILL OF IMPEACHMENT will be filed against Supreme Court Justice Abe Fortas unless there is further explanation of a fee he accepted from financier Louis Wolfson. Rep. Robert Taft Jr., R-Ohio, predicted Wednesday in Washington. Fortas said he took a fee, but later returned it when he discovered he would not be able to advise and write for Wolfson's family foundation. Wolfson has since gone to jail for violation of the stock market laws. "I have the feeling that unless he explains further, impeachment is a good possibility," Taft told a news conference. Under the Constitution, impeachment proceedings must begin in the House. If a bill of impeachment is agreed to by the House, the Senate then acts as a court in trying the impeached official.

AMA AND MANUFACTURER CRITICIZED FOR 'INEFFECTIVE DRUG'

THE AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION and a large drug manufacturer were sharply criticized Wednesday in Senate testimony for promotion of an "ineffective drug" blamed by one scientist for a $12 million "theft from the public." Dr. Calvin M. Kunin, chairman of the University of Virginia's department of preventive medicine also called for a "counter propaganda operation" to purge doctors of false information spread by drug industry advertisements and salesmen. He blamed bad drugs for "injury to society" and physical harm to many individuals. Kunin said the AMA refused to publish a scientific article concluding that tetracycline novobiocin combination trademarked, Panalba, is "ineffective." Panalba is produced by Union Carbide.

NIXON ADMINISTRATION DRAFTS MAJOR WELFARE REFORM

STRESSING direct payments to the poor and guaranteed incomes for those who cannot work or be trained, the Nixon Administration is drafting a major reform of the welfare system. Congress was told Wednesday. Secretary Robert H. Finch of Health, Education and Welfare told a special Senate committee on hunger that President Nixon's plans, to be submitted to Congress in the next few months, would substitute cash for the present maze of federal grants and payments-in-kind, such as food stamps. But until a new welfare system can be established, Finch said, the food stamp program for the poor "is vital and must be expanded."

GLEUCSTER MAN HONORED BY JUSTICE DEPT.

MYLES J. SCHLICHTE, a Gloucester attorney, was presented a special Justice Department service award Wednesday in Washington. He was cited for helping protect a key government witness in a case against Raymond Patriarca, alleged New England Mafia chief. Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell presented the award in a ceremony honoring Schllichte for his behind-the-scenes role in the year-long protective custody of Joseph Baron by U.S. marshals in the Boston area. Baron's testimony was instrumental in obtaining convictions against Patriarca and two others in federal court. Six others were convicted of murder in a state court. From July, 1967, to August, 1968, Baron and his wife and their two children were kept in seclusion in the Gloucester area after their lives had been threatened. Schllichte, 39, father of eight, volunteered to make all arrangements in his name for the security of the Baron family.

Crispy Apple Nudges Sweets For Nutrition

Good nutrition in the elementary school lunch program in Newton has been improved through the combined effort of Mrs. June M. Goodman, public health nutritionist, Newton Health Department, Mrs. Hope Danielson, assistant director of personnel in the School Administration and Miss Jewel Biles, school consultant of the New England Dairy and Food Council.

Having observed the school lunch programs in operation at Hyde, Pierce, Cabot and Emerson Schools, Mrs. Goodman realized the need for improvement in lunches being carried from home by the majority of pupils.

Nursing Home Given Okay By Aldermen

The Newton Board of Aldermen on Monday night granted permission for construction of a 120-bed nursing home at 2101 Washington St. at the junction of Beacon and Washington Sts. adjacent to Route 128, Newton Lower Falls.

The permissive zoning use was granted to Joseph H. Hill, Jr., who also operates several other similar facilities in the metropolitan Boston area.

The site on which the nursing home will be erected has been the subject matter of several petitions in recent years. About two years ago the board denied a petition by an insurance company which sought to build its home office in the location.

Leash Law, Only Week Old, Already Target For Repeal

Newton's dog leash law went into effect exactly one week ago today, and a drive already is underway to have the ordinance either repealed or revised.

However, supporters of the leash law declare they will launch a counter campaign if the move to water down the dog-control ordinance makes any real headway.

Meanwhile, the city fathers have adopted a wait-and-see attitude.

More than 500 Newton residents have signed a petition urging modification of the leash law.

Funds Are Allowed For New Jr. High

Plans for the proposed new Day Junior High School in Newtonville received a boost along the way with the approval on Monday night of a $4,220,000 bond issue for construction of the school by the Board of Aldermen.

Of the total cost, $250,000 will be spent on air-conditioning the academic or

Repair Job On Newton's Incinerator

The Newton Board of Aldermen on Monday appropriated $74,000 to refine the walls of one of the two furnaces in the city's two year old municipal incinerator, and at the same time approved a $12,000 appropriation for a study of the maintenance problems of that facility.

Because of the condition of the furnace lining it has been inoperable for the last couple of months, Aldermanic Public Works Committee Chairman George L. Hicks reported. Cost of materials for relining the walls will be $24,000 and labor costs will consume $50,000, he stated.

The $12,000 will go to hire an expert who will study the REPAIR—(See Page 6)

The new school will be erected on a portion of the so-called Avery Estate adjacent to the Albermarle Playground.

No action was taken on the petition when it was brought up for debate at Monday night's meeting of the Board of Aldermen.

Alderman Edward Uehlein expressed the conviction that the petitioners seeking modification of the leash law should be given the same consideration as the original applicants who sought the enactment of an ordinance to prohibit dogs from running loose in the city.

As the modification measure awaited consideration and action by the Board of Aldermen, indications were that a sharp controversy is developing between supporters and critics of the leash law.

Police reported yesterday that 32 dogs had been picked up while running loose in Newton and had been taken to the city pound.

Complaints were filed in court against the owners of the animals.

City Motorists Set Up Car Claims Here

Newton motorists are causing 37 per cent of their claims—producing accidents within the confines of their own city, the Insurance Information Institute reported today in an accident location survey of compulsory (bodily injury) insurance claims caused by Newton-registered private passenger cars throughout Massachusetts.

The survey disclosed that of a total of 2,745 bodily injury claims caused by Newton private passenger cars throughout Massachusetts in 1967, 1,017 claims, or 37 per cent, arose from accidents that occurred in Newton itself.

In the setting of community automobile liability insurance rates, accident claim losses are charged back to the city or town in

Housing And Urban Needs Are Stressed

Housing and Urban needs were stressed at the meeting of the Newton Republican City Committee held at the Community Center on Cherry street.

Rep. John McGlenon of Concord gave the details of the newly formed Committee for Urban Progress under the sponsorship of the Massachusetts Republican State Committee. He gave the goals of the committee as including:

1. The sponsorship of certain housing and equal rights legislation now before the State Legislature;

2. The promotion of savings and checking accounts in the Unity Bank and Trust Company, Boston's only black banking institution;

3. The development of a speakers bureau to stimulate awareness of the urban problems.

POLITICAL HIGHLIGHTS

By JAMES G. COLBERT

SDS Weakens U.S. Ability To Defend Itself In Crisis

Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), the Peking-oriented, left-wing undergraduate organization, has done a good job for their bosses who are pulling the strings from the background.

It goes beyond the fact that the members of SDS create campus chaos, that they have disrupted the programs at numerous colleges, have succeeded in closing down some institutions for long periods and have trespassed upon the rights of many thousands of young men and women to pursue the serious business of obtaining an education.

The hard fact is that SDS has weakened and is weakening the military ability of the United States to defend itself and its citizen, including you and me.

It's about time that those misguided and soft-line educators and citizens, who defend the right of members of SDS to engage in campus anarchy, woke up to what is actually happening and what already has happened.

Paints Word Picture of War In Letter to Newton DeMolay

"Every day the same thing, and that same thing every day is fear."

By one simple sentence, a Sergeant fighting in Vietnam, a Newton youth and a member of the Newton DeMolay, painted a graphic word picture of what it is like in the jungles of war.

In a letter to his DeMolay "brothers," Sgt. Donald S. Field, a member of Co. B 3/8 Inf., 4th Div., set the scene that led to his thoughts on war:

"It's hard to say what an average day is over here. On this hill we have a continuing game of tag with a recoilless rifleman at the bottom of the hill. We have some snipers constantly shooting at our supply helicopters. They both have chosen our side of the perimeter for their games.

"This morning (March 20), a patrol made contact 150 meters out of the perimeter, just below my sleeping bunker. Fortunately, no one was hurt.

"I was policing the area about 50 meters to the left of my bunker, and had the high velocity ammunition rounds

Ex-Cong. Curtis Blasts Use Of Force and Violence on Campuses

Former Congressman Laurence Curtis of Newton castigated the use of force and violence on college campuses in his remarks at the installation of new officers of Disabled American Veterans at Elks Hall in Forge Village last Sunday.

"The Disabled American Veterans think first of our fighting men," Curtis declared. "There can be no doubt that violence on college campuses emphasizing opposition to the war encourages the enemy to persevere. It strengthens his hope that pressure on the home front will force us to pull out or at least relax our terms of settlement. This can only result in greater casualties in our forces."

Curtis quoted a well known commentator who recently said: "College campuses are the root of the matter when he stated that force and intimidation cannot be tolerated in a free society."

Curtis observed that the reports of students marching to the chant of "Ho, ho, Ho Chi Minh, the NLF is going to win," were enough to curdle the blood of loyal Americans.

But Curtis added quickly that the vast majority of the students were fine, loyal Americans, and it was only the noisy few who were the real disrupters.

Law Day Ceremonies

Judge Julian L. Yesley Holds Law Day Program

Annual Law Day Exercises were conducted in the Newton District Court last Thursday, with Judge Julian L. Yesley presiding. As in past years the bulk of the audience consisted of student delegations from the Newton public and parochial high schools.

The main talk was given by Attorney General Robert H. Quinn who emphasized the changing pattern of the law to reflect current mores and called upon the students to accept their responsibility to effect changes in laws as conditions in our society change.

"We believe it is time to crack down hard on violence and intimidation and stop excusing it as an expression of moral principles.

"We believe it is time to quarantine the disrupters and that the penalties must be prompt, certain and meaningful.

"We believe decisive action must be taken now so this problem will not get out of hand to the great detriment of the public well-being," former Congressman Curtis concluded.

The Steering Committee for the event are: Co-chairmen: Mrs. Wm. Hogan, Mrs. E. Sullivan, Publicity: Mrs. K. Bhavnani, Mrs. E. Sullivan, Mrs. K. Geyer. Patrons and Patronesses: Mrs. E. Costa, Mrs. R. Coughlin, Mrs. G. Eames, Jr. Program: Mrs. G. Eames.

"WE'VE GIVEN THEM EVERYTHING . . . HAVEN'T WE?"

The best schooling, good clothes, a comfortable home . . . all these are important.

But don't they need answers to the big questions — such as Who is God? What is God? Where is God? What does He have to do with me?

Your children's sense of security and lasting happiness may well depend on being given good and useful answers to these important questions.

In the Christian Science Sunday School, children learn to know God, to feel a closeness to Him, and to turn to Him for the spiritual resources they need to strengthen and enrich their lives.

Isn't this something you would like to give your children? Why not bring them next Sunday morning at 10:45 a.m.?

In a unanimous action, the Newton GOP adopted the policy statement on Low- and Moderate-Income Housing in Newton as previously approved by its Executive Committee April 9.

The Newton Republican organization has received widespread praise for this report and is now making copies available upon request, William A. Lincoln, its Chairman reported.

He also indicated that the City Committee was undertaking studies in other fields and would make them public in the same manner.

Formal presentation of the final report was made at the meeting by Wigmore A. Pierson, chairman of the Issues Committee, aided by Alderman William H. Wolf, and Marc A. Slotnick.

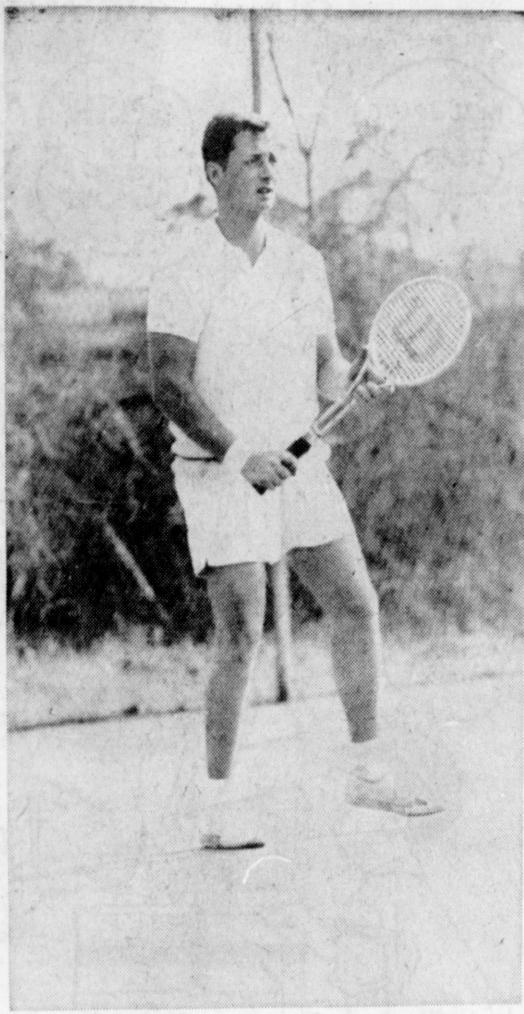

Several other matters came before the group, among them that of designating a new Finance Chairman for the City to succeed William B. Dicks, who is now Special Assistant to the Under Secretary, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

John P. Nixon was designated as chairman of the Special Committee to select a successor.

The status of work by the Citizens Committee for Charter Review was reported by Mrs. Eugene M. Hirshberg who represents the City Committee on that body.

NO. 1 MAN — Lee Draisin, of Newton, is Coach Tom Hay of the Springfield College Tennis Team, No. 1 man. Draisin is undefeated after six matches this year, and has won over 30 in three years of varsity tennis.

Newton's Lee Draisin Is Top College Tennis Star

"He just keeps going on and on," is the way Tom Hay, coach of the Springfield College tennis team, refers to his number one man, Lee Draisin.

Unbeaten after the first six matches this year, Draisin has won over 30 matches in his three year varsity career. All of his matches have been played at the number one slot, a position he has held since his sophomore year.

A native of Newton, Draisin, is one of the shortest members of any Springfield team. Standing only 5'6" tall, the 145 pounder manages rocket-like serves with enough spin to throw his opponent off balance.

"His ground is the best I've seen in a long time," says Coach Hay. "I wouldn't exactly say he 'toys' with his opponents, but he's one of the foxiest players in New England."

There's no doubt that Draisin will make a notch in Springfield College tennis history. One of the most dedicated athletes at the Col-

Editorial . . .

Their Devious Ways

The ways of the Communists are devious indeed. A case in point is the increasing agitation in Japan for the return of Okinawa to its domain. The government of Premier Eisaku Sato is being pressured as never before over that single issue.

On April 28, "Okinawa Day" in Japan, thousands of left-wing Japanese students and labor union members took to the streets in violent anti-American demonstrations marking the 17th anniversary of the Japanese peace treaty.

For the Japanese the emotional issue is the fact of some one million citizens of Japan still living under foreign domination on Okinawa more than 20 years after World War II. It is still an emotional issue which the Communists have exploited to the fullest for their own ends.

In our view, the Communists, whether Chinese or Russian Reds, couldn't care less about the Okinawa-Japanese citizens living under foreign domination.

The object of their ferment is to get rid of the 124 military bases the United States maintains in the Ryukyu chain of islands, most of them on Okinawa. The United States stores nuclear weapons at the bases for emergency use in Korea, China and other Pacific and Far Eastern areas. B52's take off from Okinawa for raids on Vietnam. Submarines armed with nuclear Polaris missiles are serviced there.

If the islands are returned to Japan under the same conditions by which the United States maintains its bases in Japan itself, the right to store nuclear weapons would be taken away as would the right to take off from Okinawa on offensive missions without prior consultation.

Premier Sato is scheduled to visit the United States in November and is pledged to obtain at that time a firm date for the return of Okinawa. Upon his success depends the life of his government.

There is a growing belief in our State Department that the United States cannot delay Okinawa's return too much longer. But the hard hats in the Pentagon do not agree.

Strategic thinkers there know that if the United States returns Okinawa under restrictive conditions, it will be a clear cut victory for the Communists in that they will have forced the United States to pull back its perimeter of defense and/or offense in the Pacific.

And they will have done it without firing a single shot.

A Lonely Day For Some

Next Sunday, (May 11), is Mother's Day. It is the day set aside by the nation to honor "Mom" and to give thanks for all the things she has done.

Unfortunately, there will be a lot of "Moms" who will be forgotten. It will be a sad day for them, full of lonely memories of happy days long ago. They are the women in nursing homes throughout the Commonwealth who have outlived their families and friends and have no one left in the world.

In that light, the Massachusetts Federation of Nursing Homes has come up with a fine idea. It is: "Adopt a nursing home patient for an hour, or less, on Mother's Day." And the Federation says: "when you visit take along a little gift, a simple and inexpensive thing like toothpaste, or a c. n. perfume or a flower — but most important — just visit!"

There are more than 30,000 patients in some 690 nursing homes in the Bay State and more than 40 percent are all alone. Statistics show that women outnumber men two to one in nursing homes and the average age is 77.

It should be emphasized that all are not "old fuddy-duddys." Many are alert, interested and interesting personalities who have one or more chronic illnesses which require that they be under constant nursing supervision.

Visit a nursing home patient on Mother's Day. They are very much alone.

Salute Dr. Ferguson

The Graphic:

The National Council of Teachers of Mathematics is taking this opportunity to express its sincere gratitude for contributions made at its 47th Annual Meeting in Minneapolis, April 23-26 by a Newton citizen, Dr. W. Eugene Ferguson, head of the mathematics department at Newton High School in Newtonville. We are confident that this contribution added significantly to the success of our meeting. Dr. Ferguson, also a member of the Board of Directors of the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics, spoke on the topic, "An Emerging Mathematics Curriculum in Junior High School For All Students."

The Council is an organization of 83,000 members and subscribers who are dedicated to the improvement of mathematics education at all levels of instruction. As in other service groups, the maintenance of organizational excellence is dependent upon the time and talent given by members of the profession.

We appreciate and commend your efforts to inform the community about activities directed toward the improvement of education.

Julius Hlavaty, Pres.

National Council of Teachers of Mathematics.

Architectural Blight

(The following letter was received by Mayor Basbas with a copy to The Graphic.)

Dear Mr. Mayor,

So often we tend to accept the rude linear movement of Massachusetts architecture. We normally close our eyes to the "way it goes" — housing and town design which goes this way and that, a pattern of sets - box to the Nth degree.

Local architecture seems to be a lesson in plane geometry, a continuing tribute to Euclid and the power of architectural history to squeeze unborn generations.

To encounter a simple triangle is to encounter an island of contrast and excitement in a vast sea of lines. Thus, if what I say is largely true, we would do well to nurture and protect such islands, to make them attractive havens for persons to enjoy and linger on. We would do well not to sacrifice the middeleously to the great spirit of utilitarianism.

However, the glorious triangle bounded by Langley Road, Center Street, and Beacon in Newton Center has become just such a sacrifice that triangle has been devoured by the god of macadam and parking lots.

Could not that triangle be re - designed as a more appropriate public facility than a parking lot? Could not that triangle be designed to serve as the gathering site of a whole community, a triangle operating in the words of our President "to bring us together?" Could it not include a bandsell, a small public ice rink, fountains and gardens, an art gallery, and an esplanade . . . a space whereon we might live and meet rather than by - pass madly in our rush for bargains?

For Aldermen

Dear Gentlemen:

We, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Bates, 23 Turner Terrace, Newtonville, Massachusetts, petition the City Council to rescind its decision of June 17, 1968, and rescind its order granting Petition Number 403-68 to the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company for permissive use of land zoned as Private Residence (91 Court St., Ward 2, Section 22, Block 16, Lot 34, containing approximately 22,533 square feet) to be used as a parking area for employees.

We make this request because we were not notified of the hearing in which the original petition was heard although owners of record prior to the hearing. The notice was sent to the former owner. We also speak on behalf of the majority of citizens in this immediate area who feel strongly the June 17th action was not in the public good and occurred without community knowledge and has become a serious threat to the future of this area as a residential neighborhood.

We acknowledge the need for business interests to expand and develop but considering alternatives and long - range planning the June 17th decision can hardly be seen as other than a short - sighted decision that at best will depreciate housing values in the area and cause increased deterioration in the area, or at worst will create in the entire Newtonville Triangle a growing slum area — the beginnings of which can now be seen on Maquire Court.

No citizen in the Triangle area could attempt to fight the endless power and resources of the New England Telephone Company, a part of

Cathode Co. Offering Stock

The Beta Instrument Corp. of 377 Elliot St., Newton Upper Falls, manufacturer of cathode ray tube display equipment is seeking to offer 240,000 shares of common stock for public sale at $5 a share.

President Norman M. Fine said the company has filed a registration statement with the Securities Exchange Commission for the shares.

Fine said the net proceeds of the stock sales would be used primarily for research and development and expansion of sales and marketing.

The company's products include, display system modules, precision cathode ray tube displays, computer graphical display devices and computer output microfilm systems.

A T & T, Nor the West Ford Auto Agency, controlled by the Ford Motor Company. These are both conglomerates that are beyond the control of cities, states and even the United States as a nation can hardly contain. Each have the resources to purchase available land on Washington Street or, if they would be forced, could build their parking lots.

It could not be - designed as a more appropriate public facility than a parking lot? Could not that triangle be designed to serve as the gathering site of a whole community, a triangle operating in the words of our President "to bring us together?" Could it not include a bandsell, a small public ice rink, fountains and gardens, an art gallery, and an esplanade . . . a space whereon we might live and meet rather than by - pass madly in our rush for bargains?

Political Highlights

A propaganda campaign by SDS has succeeded in convincing far too many people that there is something evil about ROTC units.

As a result university officials are reviewing their contracts with the Defense Department for ROTC units.

In some instances the ROTC contracts have been cancelled entirely by university officials who foolishly yielded to the pressure of SDS and took the easy way out instead of standing up and displaying a little courage and old-fashioned patriotism.

At some colleges such as Harvard a student may take the ROTC course, but he receives no academic credit for it. That, of course, reduces the number of students who take it.

Matters have reached the stage where a great many people consider ROTC a bad four-letter word.

It might be well to pause for a moment to recognize just what ROTC is and what it stands for.

It is a method which has been used by the United States government for a long time to train reserve army officers for service in time of need.

West Point does not turn out enough army officers to meet the need as that need is evaluated by the experts responsible for the defense of this nation.

A great many young men who are graduated from the ROTC course and received reserve commissions during this writer's undergraduate days died while fighting in Europe and in the South Pacific in World War II.

No one complained about ROTC when the Japanese bombed Pearl Harbor or when Hitler's divisions were sweeping across Europe. Indeed, ROTC was a great thing in those dark, troubled days.

Now a boy cannot enroll in the ROTC course at some colleges if he wants to do so. Members of the SDS represent a small minority at any college. Yet they dominate some colleges to such an extent that a student at those institutions of higher learning cannot take the ROTC course and get credit for it.

The only reason for this is that the SDS maintains that the ROTC is an evil thing, and the SDS will demonstrate, cause waves and embarrass a university administration.

So the spineless university president who doesn't want anybody to rock the boat and cause controversy surrenders to the communist-oriented SDS.

If the ROTC were to be wiped out entirely, it would necessitate the creation of more West Points at far greater expense to the taxpayers of the United States.

The decision rescinding the earlier decision will of course cause some inconvenience for the telephone company but with their endless resources they can easily recover, for the small home - owner, many at or near retirement age, they can never recover.

We urge you to visit the area, note the terrain which does not lend itself for any kind of car lots, and the great location to schools, churches, playgrounds, shopping and transportation. Review the 1963 Study, the recent low and middle income housing plan, and note the urgent need in Newton for housing for these people, the School Teacher, Policeman and Fireman note they all live in this area.

We are sure that once the Council views this area in terms of long range thinking (1) the potential for serious blight, or (2) that of preserving and strengthening the area for housing and people, the decision for rescinding your June 17th action will be taken.

It seems incredible that the members of SDS, who disregard the rights of just about everybody except themselves, would be allowed to create the havoc and the harm they have wrought.

They have been as successful as they have because too many university officials have not had the courage to stand up with them and deal with them as law breakers.

When disciples of SDS are arrested for violating the law, the cry of police brutality invariably goes up, and this sends the well-intended but unthinking liberals rushing to the defense of the "kids."

Maybe the bleeding-heart editorial writers and the liberal thinkers are right.

Perhaps these kids are so young and immature and irresponsible that the police should not be summoned when the kids take over a university building and throw out the deans.

Maybe they don't know that they are being used by professional agitators who promote trouble across the United States.

But if the "kids" are that stupid, why does anybody pay any attention to them other than to expell them from college?

There are those of us who don't think it's wrong to have an ROTC unit at a college and who praise M.I.T. for helping to protect the national safety.

Matters are reaching the stage where we squares are going to demand equal time with the SDS.

Mailer and Breslin Enliven

New York's Fight For Mayor

William F. Buckley, the noted editor and political columnist, attracted nation-wide attention and gained an added measure of fame when he stood for election as Mayor of New York in 1965.

Buckley's urbane wit and his ability to coin a quip enlivened an otherwise dull mayoralty campaign.

When Buckley, who ran as the Conservative party candidate and had no chance whatever of winning election, was asked what he would do if he were elected, he replied that he would seek a recount in such an unexpected turn of events.

Buckley didn't win the election, but he did poll 430,000 votes from people who either had a keen sense of humor or didn't like any of the other candidates.

New York City political experts haven't yet figured out whether a majority of Buckley's votes were drawn from Republican John Lindsay or his Democratic opponent, the then City Controller Abraham D. Beame.

If Buckley took more votes from Beame than from Lindsay, he might have been responsible for Lindsay's election since Lindsay won by only 136,144 votes.

Now Norman Mailer, the author, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Mayor in New York.

Mailer is running in tandem with Jimmy Breslin, the newspaper columnist, who is campaigning for the Democratic nomination for the presidency of the New York City Council.

The danger that either Mailer or Breslin will emerge a winner from the Democratic primary is so slim as to be virtually non-existent.

However, they will provide a few sparks and make the Democratic primary a livelier contest.

Jimmy Breslin was 50 minutes late for the press conference at which he announced his candidacy.

His explanation for being tardy was that he had been delayed by a traffic jam in Queens.

It has since been suggested that the traffic jam occurred in a Queens barroom.

Former Mayor Robert Wagner, who probably will be the Democratic nominee against Mayor Lindsay in the final election, has been described by author Mailer as "the greatest political disaster in the city's history."

Present indications are that Mailer and Breslin will draw more laughs than they will votes although Mailer will have substantial liberal support.

The first plank in their joint platform calls for making New York City the nation's 51st state.

Malcolm Frager To Play In Free Youth Concert

The Newton Symphony Orchestra will present pianist Malcolm Frager playing Tchaikovsky's Concerto in B flat at its Free Youth Concert on Sunday, May 18.

The concert is scheduled to begin at 3 p.m. in the Meadowbrook Junior High School Auditorium.

The history behind this work is most interesting. Tchaikovsky originally intended to dedicate this concerto to Nikolai Rubenstein, the brilliant piano virtuoso and founder of the Moscow Conservatory. Rubenstein was a Tchaikovsky's closest friend.

Knowing this concerto, it is difficult to imagine the agony endured to complete it. In a letter Tchaikovsky revealed: "I am at the moment completely absorbed by a piano concerto which I am most anxious shall be played by Rubenstein. It is not going well - very slow progress - but I am sticking to it and manage to hammer passages for the instrument out of my brain."

Shortly afterward he again wrote:

incinerator plans and specifications, construction and operation maintenance and repairs. It is hoped that the study will reveal just why maintenance costs on the facility have been running so high.

Hicks quoted Acting City Solicitor Charles Morang as saying $15,000 has been spent since construction was completed. Other aldermen questioned that figure, claiming the amount spent has been higher.

Alderman Sidney T. Small said he was critical of the incinerator situation "and generally the way it's been handled since it was built."

"As a result of what we saw in our committee in March, 1968, it was suggested that the city look into possibilities of court action, if necessary, to see where the blame lies for the 'demon' the city got," Small declared.

Plans will be made for the Rummage Sale, to be held Saturday (May 17), at the Newton Highlands Congregational Church.

Bobby Jones won golf's "Grand Slam" — The U.S. Open and Amateur and the British Open and Amateur in 1930.

city can begin to get its money's worth," Small added.

Alderman William E. Hopkins, an engineer by profession, insisted that the incinerator cannot be operated without repairs. "The city can look forward to a continuous bill for repairs," he said. "We are burning about 300 tons of rubbish a day."

AID SCHOLARSHIP FUND — Planning the Eleventh Annual Brandeis Night at the Boston Pops, Saturday, May 31, to benefit the Scholarship Fund are Greater Boston Alumnae: left, Mrs. Sidney Boorstein, co-chairman of the event, 213 Waltham Street, West Newton; Mrs. Mayer Rabinowitz, chapter president, 150 Pleasant Street, Newton; Mrs. Harvey Fritz, program chairman, 236 Bellevue Street, Newton; and Mrs. Leonard Grover, co-chairman, 81 Rangeley Road, Chestnut Hill.

The average cost of maintenance should run about three per cent of the total cost or about $60,000 a year Hopkins said, and after some of the problems inherent in something new are ironed out, that's what the cost should be, he claimed.

"I have seen incinerators in many parts of the country and they all have problems," Alderman Edward C. Uehlein pointed out that an independent firm which was unnamed will be hired to do the study.

Alderman H. James Shea Jr. said he hoped the aldermanic Public Works Committee would be in continuing contact with the study firm so that action could be taken on the results of the study.

Org'nist Newman Concert May 20

Newton College of the Sacred Heart will present Anthony Newman, organist, at the last recital of this year's series on Tuesday, May 20, at 8:30 p.m. in the Chapel of the Most Holy Trinity.

Dr. Newman's program includes four of the great Preludes and Fugues of J. S. Bach. Opening with the E flat major (St. Anne), and closing with the E minor (the Wedge), the B minor and G major will be interspersed with selections from Francois Couperin's "Messe Pour Les Couvents."

Those familiar with the playing of this young artist will relish especially his scholarly and stylistic rendering of the Preludes and Fugues. Since 1968-69 is the Third Centennial of Couperin, musicians will find here another well thought out interpretation of the works of that great French master of the keyboard.

Mrs. Broad At Ecumenical Day

Mrs. Russell Broad of Newton Highlands, participated in the annual Ecumenical Day held recently by the officers of Morgan Memorial Auxiliary, who were host to the presidents of Jewish, Catholic and Protestant groups.

While attending this affair the officers examined many of the articles on display that will be sold at the big fourth annual charity Antiques Flea Market to be held at the Topsfield Fair Grounds on Saturday, May 24. Proceeds of this event will assist the 400 neediest children at Summer Camp.

Contrary to the statement by King Hussein of Jordan in his recent trip to Boston, she said, "Israel has accepted the United Nations Security Council Resolution of Nov. 22, 1967, calling for the establishment of a just and lasting peace in the Middle East."

She emphasized that Israel's only request was that the nations in the Middle East that are involved negotiate among themselves the terms of the peace. Imposition of peace terms by other parties, Mrs. Porath-Goor emphasized, "will not bring the full force of acceptance by the Arab States as if they themselves negotiated, and would only serve to recreate the conditions conducive to turbulence in the area that led to the June, 1967, war."

The speaker also expressed profound sympathy for the plight of the Arab refugees.

However, she stated, these refugees had left Israel in 1948 at the behest of their own leaders and the Arab governments," which have since sought to exploit their misery in order to inflame the Mid-East situation and to influence the world powers and the UN through sympathy. Israel has consistently stated that it is prepared to do its share to solve this problem in concert with the international community and as part of a total agreement on the entire Mid-East situation. In this connection it must also be borne in mind that Israel has absorbed well over 500,000 Jewish refugees from Arab countries since 1948."

Retarded Children Group To Hear Camp Director

Earl Vermillion, director of the Happy Acres Day Camp of Quincy will talk on summer recreational programs for retarded children Thursday evening, May 15, before the Newton Chapter of the Greater Boston Association for Retarded Children.

Vermillion will show a film depicting the development and progress of the Quincy program, which began 10 years ago with help from the Kennedy Foundation.

The program is designed to give handicapped children opportunity to develop both physical and social skills through participation in a variety of activities geared to their capacity.

Mrs. Harvey Chansky,

Dr. Freedberg To Study In Rehovot, Israel

Newton Chapter chairman has invited all interested persons within the Comprehensive Mental Health - Mental Retardation Act area of Newton, Wellesley and Weston to attend.

She said it is hoped that, if enough interest is generated, a summer recreational program similar to Quincy's may be established in this area.

While some recreational activities are available, Mrs.

Chansky said, the number of children to be served in each town is not large enough for separate programs to be feasible.

She suggested joint action by the communities may be indicated.

The meeting, to be held at the Newton Mental Health Center, 398 Walnut St., Newtonville, will be the last open meeting before the summer break.

There will be a short business meeting for the election of officers before the program and refreshments afterwards.

UNICEF Committee Details Plans For Busy '69 Agenda

New UNICEF Chairman, Mr. Melvin Cohen initiated 1969 plans at a UNICEF committee meeting April 29th at the Newton Community Peace Center. The organization of the committee included the appointment of Mrs. Jack Bloem, retiring UNICEF Chairman, to be in charge of publicity surrounding local activities for the United Nations Children's Fund.

The investigator studied at Dartmouth College, 1949-52, and received his M.D. degree from Harvard Medical School in 1956. His internship and residency training were accomplished at Beth Israel Hospital and the Massachusetts General Hospital, where he was also a Clinical and Research Fellow, 1960-61.

Dr. Freedberg was a Post-doctoral Fellow in the Graduate Department of Biochemistry, Brandeis University, 1961-62.

A resident of Newton Centre, Dr. Freedberg is married and has three children.

Plans include working closely with the PTA, school and public libraries under the direction of Mrs. Edwin Gordy, expansion of projects in the junior and high schools through Mrs. Alan Bernholz, and Hallowe'en school collections directed by Mrs. John Weber.

Last year in Newton, school Hallowe'en and junior high contributions amounted to $3,641, with $791 earmarked for Biafra at the request of junior high contributors, and this year's expanded program promises even more success.

In 1968 Newton greeting card sales amounted to $3,065. To meet the popular demand for UNICEF cards, the Peace Center now has birthday cards and notes available year round, for $1.50, which can be obtained at the Peace Center office, Eliot Church, 474 Center St., Newton Corner, weekly mornings.

Miss Haskell was the winner of the local club contest, Newton - Waltham Toastmistress Club, which was held in March, permitting her to enter the regional contest which include the New England States.

Judging the contest were John J. Maguire, Daniel K. Griffin, Lincoln P. Cole, Jr., and Mrs. Louise Day Hicks. The winner was Mrs. Lillian DiGiulio of the Cosmopolitan Club, Providence Rhode Island.

Newton members present were Mrs. Franklin Farrar, Mrs. James Gibson, Mrs. Walter Gans, Miss Ruth McBride, Mrs. Jessie Haffey, Mrs. Robert Arafe and Miss Frances Palmer.

Four for Four — BALTIMORE (UPI) — Bubba Smith of the Baltimore Colts has played in only four losing games in the last four years at Michigan State and Baltimore. Two of the games were in January — the 1966 Rose Bowl and the 1969 Super Bowl.

Land Use Committee Chairman Franklin N. Flaschner said the building will be situated far back from Washington St. It will be designed in a modified "H" form and will be three stories high except that the wings of the "H" in front and back will be only two stories in height.

The petitioner met with residents of the area before coming to the aldermen and ironed out possible difficulties with them. The neighbors as a whole are in favor of this land use, Flaschner said.

In other action, the board turned down a petition by Dr. George E. Caruso for permission to establish a Montessori Nursery School in a residence at 19 Prescott St., Newtonville.

The Land Use Committee had approved the petition, but the Planning Board had disapproved, Flaschner said.

Twelve members of the board voted in favor of the petition and nine opposed, but since the petition required a two-thirds favorable vote of 16 votes in approval, the petition failed to pass.

Flaschner said his committee had included several restrictions on the proposed operation which they believed would make it acceptable.

However, several aldermen felt that the opposition of many neighbors who did not want to see any further commercial extension into the area should be given strong consideration.

The Jack Dempsey-Gene Tunney return bout drew the biggest live gate in boxing history, receipts totalling $2.6 million and attendance 104,943.

Newton Teeners
To Raise Funds
For Palsy Ass'n

Teenagers in Newton will "Make the Scene" at 9 p.m. today at Our Lady Help of Christians auditorium for a special program and final briefing about their activities connected with Rainbow Tag Day, an all teenage special fund-raising event to benefit United Cerebral Palsy Association of Greater Boston to be held this Friday and Saturday, (May 9th and 10th).

According to Joe Capalbo and Nuncio Pellegrine, coordinators of the special event, similar rallies are being held in all parts of the U. S. As teenagers prepare to descend on busy thoroughfares in their communities reminding pedestrians that "Happiness is Helping" a person disabled by Cerebral Palsy to progress toward a more nearly normal life.

On Friday and Saturday youngsters wearing Rainbow headband sashes and carrying striped rainbow tag day canisters will take up positions at shopping centers throughout the city.

Mr. Pellegrine said the young people who are volunteering their time and energy for rainbow tag day are a more than adequate response to those who decry today's youth. In addition to many teenagers who have individually volunteered their services for this project, groups of students from Our Lady's and Sacred Heart High Schools are being represented in the day's activities. Proceeds from the event go to the cerebral palsy building fund.

"High School"

Documentary To Be Seen May 18

Mrs. Noah Bielsky of Newton, currently practicing the Good Neighbor policy, is assisting The Brookline Council for Public Schools in their presentation of Frederick Wiseman's documentary film "High School."

This film recently created a great deal of interest at the Newton South High School and is now scheduled to be shown at the Roberts Auditorium, Brookline High School on Sunday night (May 18) at 8 p.m.

"High School" presents a revealing picture of a large high school with its captive participants, the students. Producer Frederick Wiseman, also producer of "Titicut Follies," has succeeded in creating a highly thought provoking and sensitive film. Acclaimed by numerous critics, "High School" was the subject of the Educational Editorial of the April 19th edition of The Saturday Review of Literature.

"The perennial poverty that we impose on our education institutions, the over crowding that results, and the growing tensions of contemporary life as they are variously reflected in the classroom, all play a part... but the most frightening question that "High School" raises in one viewer's mind is: How many... could view the film and see nothing wrong," was the editorial opinion so aptly expressed.

Tickets are $1 and may be purchased at the door. To insure a seat, they may be purchased in advance at the Paperback Booksmit, Coolidge Corner, Brookline or for local residents tickets may be obtained by calling DE 2-3760 any night after 5 p.m.

Bring your friends, your teen-agers. This documentary film is rated a large GC — for General and Concerned audiences.

AIC Professor Earns Doctorate At Boston Univ.

Mark N. Hagopian of Westfield, assistant professor of political science at American International College, Springfield, will be the recipient of his doctoral degree from Boston University at commencement exercises Sunday, May 18.

Dr. Hagopian, who joined the AIC faculty in September, 1966, is considered an expert in the field on Italian politics and spent the summer of 1968 in Southern Europe studying politics there.

His doctoral dissertation is entitled "Santayana's Critique of Liberalism and Democracy." It is a thorough analysis of the views and shortcomings as to theory and practice of liberalism and modern democracy. Santayana, a native of Spain who died in 1952 was a well-known Harvard University professor at the turn of the century.

A native of Somerville, Dr. Hagopian received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Boston University as well. While studying at BU he was a graduate assistant and teaching fellow.

Dr. Hagopian, an avid sports fan, is a member of the American and New England Political Science Association. He is married to the former Alice Aghababian of Newton, Mass.

Notre Dame's Bowl Win

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (UPI) — The only appearance Notre Dame ever made in a bowl game was the 1925 Rose Bowl when Knute Rockne's Four Horsemen turned back Erne Nevers and Stanford by a 27-10 margin.

The play is superb and will be performed in the beginning of June. Students are also working on stage crew for the musical. Debbie Santuchi is the chairman for the painting, building, and designing that comprise the job of the stage crew.

Six students and four teachers from Meadowbrook went to Charlotte, North Carolina on Saturday, April 19 for one week. They stayed with families in the area, and attended the Albemarle Road Junior High School. They were returning a visit paid them for the week of April 6. At that time six students and four teachers from North Carolina saw what Meadowbrook is like. It was an exciting experience for all who were involved.

Hopefully, this kind of program will be continued in the future. Those who participated in the exchange from Meadowbrook were: Mrs. Ramsdell, Mr. Connolly, Mrs. McCallie, Mr. Ryan, Andy Shulman, Linda Celi, Nancy Israel, Robert Glazer, Ronny Green, and Lewis Blair.

Voting will take place soon for next year's student council officers. Campaigning began Monday, when the candidates put up posters, signs, distributed buttons along with many other things. All campaign material must be completely handmade. To be eligible to run for an office a student must have the approval of his parents and house advisor, and fifty nomination signatures. Only eighth grade students may run for president, and seventh and eighth graders are eligible for other offices.

Two students are running for president, there are seven candidates for vice-president, five for treasurer, four for recording secretary. The primary elections will be held May 16.

If at that time there is any office where no one candidate receives more than fifty percent of the votes, a final run-off will be held at a later date between the top two nominees.

Meadowbrook does a lot of interesting things. The enthusiasm of the student body and faculty helps make all activities very successful.

Weatherman Winner Of Merit Award

He has been Chief Meteorologist in charge of the Boston Forecast Center since 1950 and is a veteran of the Bureau since 1930. Among the many services performed by his staff is to issue warnings and forecasts for marine interests. The warnings include hurricane and storm warnings as well as gale and small craft warnings.

Leash Law Has Kept Newton Police Busy

Chief William F. Quinn said there was a major problem encountered by the animal control unit.

"We had all kinds of anonymous calls. We would dispatch the truck and find out there was no dog there."

The Chief said that led to a change in the system. The unit now responds to those reports given by persons who leave their names. "An unleashed dog is no public safety emergency," Quinn said.

The Chief said there are 5500 licensed dogs and a score of unlicensed dogs in the city.

1969 Boys Club Olympics Set At NHS Saturday

The 1969 Boys Club Sectional Olympics will be held this Saturday at Newton High for the first time. Participants in this meet come from all over northeastern New England states and belong to Boys Clubs.

There are four age group pairings in this meet. Ten and under, eleven and twelve, thirteen and fourteen and fifteen and sixteen. Last year the event was held in Portland, Maine.

According to Pat Proia, meet director, the Newton Boys Club has been the unofficial team winner in the last five out of the six years. There is no team award, however, as everything is individual and the best times, distances each.

Miller had two hits for South and Rezzutti, Levine, and Bruce Gorton each had one.

A day later Newton South was knocked out of first place by co-league leader Weymouth, 8-1.

Weymouth rightfielder Kevin Noble blasted two homers and had seven runs batted in to pace the rout.

The two teams had previously struggled through two games and 16 innings without a decision.

South scored its only run in the final inning. Rezzutti got a bunt single. Levine then singled. Stuart hit grounder to short and beat the throw. Rezzutti scored on the fielder's choice.

Rezzutti had two hits for South. Levine, Stuart, Gorton, and Leo Costa each had one.

Newton High toppled Newton South, 8-0, as Hurvitz, bulwark of the Lion staff was bombed for seven runs in losing his first game against four victories and destroying his 0.46 earned run average.

South was blanked on four hits by Norm Westlund. Clem Virgilio stroked two and Rezzutti and Hurvitz each singled.

After hitting the pinnacle of its season early last week,

Dave Dibble was South's principle nemesis, wracking up six goals and an assist. Ira Rosenberg and Paul Hurvitz scored the Lion's goals.

Framingham North was nearly as devastating, chalking up two goals in each period for their 8-4 win.

Jeff Newman, Marc Priest, Dave Pasbrig, and Bob Kraft each notched a goal for South, 1-2.

Newton South has slumped to a 5-3 mark and must take on Rindge, Arlington and Weymouth again, this week.

Lions Open Track Season With Win Over Brookline

With the screams of the entire Newton South High team and numerous partisan spectators echoing in his ears, Captain Bruce Kopelman ate up an eight-yard deficit and burned past Brookline High's anchorman on the last leg of the 880 relay to give the Lions a 74-66 victory, last Wednesday, at Dickinson Field, Newton.

Each team captured firsts in eight events, but South scored heavily in the all-important back-up points.

Sophomore Dave Peters had a field day, tallying 9 1/4 points with a win in the 220, second in the broad jump and a leg on the winning relay squad.

Kopelman copped the 440 with his fastest time of 53.0. Sophomore John Seeler blasted a 55.2 for his best effort.

Howie Cohen paced the high hurdle field in 17.8. Senior Alan Miller, vaulting for the first time, cleared the nine-foot mark to grab top honors in the pole vault. Rich Aaron hurled the javelin 118-6. Paul Hackmeyer heaved the shot 38-6, and Nick Parnell leaped 5-4 in the high jump, all good for first places.

The key factor in the meet was Newton South's domination of second place. The Lions grabbed nine seconds for 27 points.

Funds

Alderman Joseph M. McDonnell tried to persuade the board to appropriate from the city's surplus funds enough money to cover a portion of the architect's fee. He preferred to see the total bond issue for construction voted at a later date, claiming that the aldermen could then still retain some element of control over the school.

Once the bond issue is approved, he said, the board's function ends with regard to the school. "We are giving up our powers to the Mayor," he argued. McDonnell's motions were defeated.

Aldermen Melvin J. Dangel and Alan S. Barkin maintained that the Mayor's Advisory Committee on Public Buildings is far more expert at evaluating the specific details of plans than the aldermen. They also pointed out that the Public Buildings Committee of the board would continue to work with the Mayor and his advisory committee on the plans.

Barkin declared that the Public Buildings Committee had considered the site, had gone over the educational specifications with the School Committee and had studied parking and air conditioning."

"I have performed my function as a member of the Public Buildings Committee," he asserted. "The plans regarding details of electrical wiring, air conditioning, plumbing, etc. mean nothing to me. We have to rely on the Mayor's Committee of experts," he said.

Present scheduling calls for plans for the new Day Junior High to be completed and be ready to go out for bids in October.

The aldermen approved the $4,220,000 bond issue by a vote of 22 to 1 with only McDonnell dissenting.

Teen March For St. Jude Hospital To Be May 18th

The 1969 Danny Thomas Teenage March will be held in this area on the afternoon of Sunday, May 18th, according to an announcement by Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Mansour of 38 Bowers Street, Newtonville, District Leaders of this year's march.

According to Mr. and Mrs. Mansour the annual Teenage March is headed up nationally by comedian Danny Thomas, who is President of the sponsoring group called ALSAC, Aiding Leukemia Stricken American Children. Daniel G. Hurley of Medford is serving as 1969 Greater Boston Chairman.

Lee Loumos
Says:

There is no doubt about it for me, Maytime in New England is the best time of the year. Not that I have any objections to our summers (if they get too hot and humid there is always air conditioning if you can't be at the seashore) and even winters are fun as long as we have automatic heating in both car and home. But you must admit that after a long, rigorous winter, the first pleasant weather in May is doubly welcome. And in case you haven't got the message by now, I'm just trying to tell you that you can have Maytime all summer long. Call us now, before the real hot weather, to arrange for your home or office air conditioning needs. You'll be amazed at how much comfort you can buy for so little cost.

Newton Voters To Discuss ABM In Open Meeting

There will be an open meeting next Tuesday evening (May 13) at City Hall to consider a resolution proposed to the Board of Aldermen which is in opposition to the Anti-Ballistic Missile System.

The meeting sought by petition of 150 voters who feel millions of dollars would be wasted on the ABM system, considered useless by many experts.

It is also feared by the signers that once initiated, the system would absorb increasing amounts of money which should be used to help the cities fight rising taxes.

If the resolution is passed, copies will be sent to President Nixon, Sens. Edward M. Kennedy and Edward W. Brooke, and Rep. Philip J. Philbin.

Plan Reunion

Two Newton residents are among the committee members planning the three-day reunion of the Tufts University's School of Medicine to be held this weekend in Boston. They are Dr. Margaret Magruder of 119 Gerry road, class of 1944 and Dr. Sidney Dushan of 625 Boylston street, class of 1919.

Newton Corner Change Coming No Matter What

Newton Redevelopment Authority Director Kenneth Salk this week declared that "urban renewal or not, Newton Corner will change."

He made the statement in his explanation to the Citizens Participation Committee on why all the land in the area is being purchased.

For instance, four houses on Charlesbank rd. were sold last week and two others in the same area were foreclosed, he said.

Discussed at the meeting with the aldermanic committee on city planning were ideas on how best to follow through with the urban renewal program.

It is no longer a question of shall there be urban renewal at Newton Corner, but what is the best way to do it? The Citizens Committee is deciding the questions for themselves and is working on a 12-point resolution to be included in the survey and planning application as part of the Board of Aldermen's authorization, with federal concurrence, of the urban renewal plans.

Since it was a first offence in each case the owners escaped with only a warning except for the $2-a-day fee they are required to pay for boarding their pets at the pound.

Subsequent offences involving the same dog — if they occur — will call for fines which will increase with each violation.

In some cases the dogs got out of the house when children let them out or slipped out when the door was open for some other purpose.

Elderly and infirm or crippled persons complained that they are unable to walk their dogs and that the new ordinance imposes a hardship on them. Some said they have the dogs for their protection.

Supporters of the leash law pointed out that an additional three-months period was allowed for dog-owners to build enclosed pens or runs on their property.

They asserted that children now for the first time are able to go to and from school, walk on the sidewalk, romp in their yards or on a playground without being molested or knocked down by dogs.

These apparently are arguments which will be heard once again by members of the Board of Aldermen when they consider proposals for retaining, revising, or repealing the controversial dog leash law.

Dangel reminded the board that it has become increasingly difficult to hire the more than 200 people needed to count the paper ballots.

He also pointed out that Mayor Monte G. Basbas had re-submitted his request for the automatic voting machines after it was learned that several terms of a proposed contract with a firm manufacturing scanning machines were found to be unsatisfactory. He referred to recent consideration by the board and the Mayor of the leasing of these machines which count the votes on paper ballots.

Dangel said the Cubic Corp. of California had originally stated that 10 counting machines would be rented to the city for two years at a cost of $15,000. At the end of the two years the company had promised they would have local repairmen and parts available. They also agreed to drop from their contract clause which said the city would be obligated to purchase the machines if the trial proved "reasonably satisfactory."

The company has withdrawn from the proposed contract these three stipulations, Dangel said. It would now cost $15,000 to rent the counting machines for one year. The company is not now including in the contract any promise to have local repairmen and has refused to withdraw the obligation to purchase if the trial proved "reasonably satisfactory."

The board approved the $25,000 appropriation for the leasing of automatic voting machines by a vote of 22 to 1. Alderman Alan S. Barkin who opposed the measure said he couldn't see getting into such an expenditure when the city needs so much money for other purposes such as schools and even incinerator repairs.

Auction Sale Tonight At Cabot School

Art work created in a variety of media by the children of Newtonville's Cabot School will be sold at auction to night, Thursday, May 8.

The sale, proceeds of which will be presented to the school, will begin at 8 p.m. in the Cabot School, at 225 Cabot Street. Special galleries will exhibit works offered for sale by "silent bidders."

Following these exhibitions, selected works will be sold at open auction, under the direction of Cabot School Principal Mr. Irwin Freedman and Mr. Alan Hurwitz, Coordinator of the Arts for the Newton Public Schools.

The children, ranging from kindergarten to sixth grade, have been working on the project during the school year. Mrs. Pauline Joseph, Art Consultant, has guided them in developing new techniques and skills. All works in the auction have been selected and volunteered for sale by the children themselves.

Mrs. Marilyn S. Fee, Charles F. Hovey, Philo N. Shapiro, and Mr. Shattuck.

Following his election as the new president of Newton Conservators, Robert T. Capeless presided at the annual meeting which approved a by-law change permitting a twenty-seven member board of directors.

Mr. Capeless, an attorney, is a former tax commissioner of Massachusetts; a member of the commission preparing a master tax plan for the state; vice-president of the Massachusetts Taxpayers Foundation; and was co-chairman with Charles W. Eliot II of the Open Space Sub Committee of the 1966 Special Commission on the Taxation of Forest Land, Farm Land and Open Space Land.

The other Conservator officers and directors elected as recommended by the nominating committee, chaired by Melvin I. Darack, are: Allard M. Valentine, treasurer; Mr. Muther, clerk; Dr. Isaac Asimov of West Newton, author and scientist, will be the guest speaker next Tuesday (May 13) at the combined annual dinner meeting of the Essex County Health Association and the Middlesex Respiratory Disease Association at the Thomson Country Club in North Reading.

Dr. Asimov will speak on "The Crowded Crystal Ball." It will be an interpretative look at the future as it is being fashioned by the developments of today.

Dr. Asimov has long dealt with the future as a highly successful science fiction writer, starting with his first book, "Pebble in the Sky," published in 1950.

He has since written 95 books, including children's stories, general fiction, mysteries, histories and geographies as well as science fiction. His latest book is the two-volume, "Asimov's Guide to the Bible."

He has won several awards for his writing, including the American Association for the Advancement of Science-Westinghouse Award, given to him in 1967.

Before becoming a writer, Dr. Asimov received his Ph.D. in 1948 and a year later accepted a position on the faculty of the Boston University School of Medicine. He now holds the rank of associate professor of biochemistry.

The annual dinner will be preceded by a joint meeting of the boards of directors at 5:30 p.m. The meeting will be chaired by president Morgan F. Pearsall of the Essex County Health Association and President Alice M. Broadhurst of the Middlesex Respiratory Disease Association.

Although there have been no cases of human rabies in this State in recent years, there is always a danger that this disease might be reintroduced from other areas where it is always present.

Because we are temporarily free of the disease there is a tendency to forget the importance of dog vaccination. Several cases of rabies in wild animals have been reported in neighboring states and the disease could easily reappear in Massachusetts. If a rabid animal should turn up in Newton, it would not be able to spread its disease among dogs if the dog population is vaccinated.

Public health authorities are unanimous in emphasizing that vaccination of dogs is the best means of preventing the spread of the disease. Because of the type of vaccine used, yearly vaccination is necessary for adequate protection.

Dog owners are urged to have their pets immunized against rabies by their private veterinarians, or to bring their dogs to the Vaccination Clinic which is being organized and sponsored by the

All House Says "Aye" To Fishman Draft Resolution

The Massachusetts House of Representatives has accepted unanimously a resolution filed by Rep. Irving Fishman of Newton asking the Congress to rid the Selective Service System of what he termed "inequities."

The resolution reads:

Whereas, The selective service laws as presently constituted unfairly discriminates against the poor, the uneducated and the illiterate; and

Whereas, Such laws are a patch-work of piecemeal additions and alterations; and

Whereas, The draft is a system which inherently restricts the freedom of an individual and therefore should be operated in a most equitable manner to the individual yet without interference with the military demands of the United States of America; and

Whereas, There is pending in the United States Senate a bill S3052 which prescribes a change in the Selective Service Laws by calling for a lottery-type or random drawing which would please all young Americans on an even status insofar as their military obligations are concerned; therefore be it

Resolved. That the Massachusetts House of Representatives memorializes the Congress of the United States to support S. 3052, which proposes to alter the Selective Service Laws in

Babson Boys Change Pace; Stage Mt. Ida Party Raid

In a refreshing change of delight of the girls, according to one report.

A school official, Alfred Amandola, 40, was taken to court Tuesday to answer charges of staging a party at Mt. Ida Junior College in Newton.

Judge Julian L. Yesley, recognizing that in this day of SDS militancy and college turmoil, the offense was relatively minor, continued their cases without a finding.

He warned, "although this is not the most serious thing being done by college students today, such action could result in harm . . . somebody could get hurt."

The Judge continued the cases until June 6, ordered not guilty pleas entered and told the boys not to engage in similar "extraordinary activity" before that date or the cases would be reopened.

A fourteenth Babson student, Alon L. Dearborn of Dennisport, refused to sign a waiver of attorney this morning as did his colleagues. He requested the court to assign him a lawyer so he could investigate the possibility of asking the court to issue a complaint against a Mount Ida College security guard for assault.

The 18-year-old student said he was struck on the nose without provocation during the melee by a college security guard.

In all, 40 students participated in the raid, according to the Newton police, who were called to the scenic Mt. Ida campus, 777 Dedham St., Newton Centre, at midnight.

Neighbors reported boys were running through the backyards on Dorothy and Carlson Roads and through Oak Hill Park. Four officers responded and one, Philip C. Moreau, said that when he arrived he heard "loud screaming from the girls in the dormitory and hollering from 40 to 50 boys." He said the school faculty was attempting to chase the boys off the property.

The four boys were apprehended off the college grounds, on a nearby street. They were placed under arrest for disturbance. "They offered no resistance when apprehended," said Moreau. "They seemed sorry it happened."

The boys had run through the dormitory to the squealing book.

Taxpayers Nicked 10c Per Pound For Litter

The West Newton Educational Garden Club in cooperation with the Anti-Litter Committee of Massachusetts has compiled some interesting statistics on the litter situation, one of America's continuing problems.

For instance, did you know that you are buying litter — at 10 cents per pound. That is what it costs to clean up LITTER that people discard on the streets, highways and recreation areas.

That one little piece of trash weighing only one ounce, dropped weekly from every car on the roads in the U.S.A. would make a pile of trash, weighing 260,000,000 pounds in one year.

That over 30 per cent of all forest fires are caused by LITTER.

That LITTER bugs cost Americans $1 billion a year. Taxpayers pay half of this, the other half is paid by business, industry and individuals.

Furthermore, the laws of the Commonwealth clearly prohibit the wanton disposal of trash on our roads. They provide that:

1. Whoever, in disposing of glass on any public way, or garbage, refuse, bottles, cans or rubbish on a public highway or within twenty yards thereof, or on private property, without permission, commits a nuisance thereby, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars and by imprisonment for not more than thirty days. (GL. C. 148, Sec. 34.)

fine of not more than fifty

B52 JETS BOMB JUNGLE HIDEOUTS HARBORING 10,000 REDS

WAVES OF U.S. B52 jets dropped up to 500 tons of bombs 20-30 miles northeast of Saigon Wednesday night in a 15-minute raid against jungle hideouts believed harboring 10,000 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong. The drop zone was in the same general area where U.S. troops hurried back North Vietnamese infantrymen charging an American outpost and reported killing 30 in a predawn battle Wednesday. Radio Hanoi said the upsurge of fighting across South Vietnam was part of a "general offensive" which had badly mauled American troops. But U.S. military officials denied this, and said a new wave of attacks had cost North Vietnamese and Viet Cong forces at least 1,500 men slain.

HONDURAS POLICE FIRE ON MOB PROTESTING ROCKY'S VISIT

RIFLE carrying police in Tegucigalpa, Honduras, opened fire Wednesday on a mob of students demonstrating outside the presidential palace against the visit of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York. One student was reported wounded. Rockefeller, heading a team of experts on Latin-American fact-finding mission for President Nixon, was inside the palace conferring with Honduran President Osvaldo Lopez Arellano at the time of the incident and was not aware of it, his aides said.

ITALIAN POLICE ARREST 4 IN HUGE WINE THEFT

POLICE in Ascoli Piceno, Italy, on Wednesday arrested four men in connection with the theft of 2.8 million quarts of wine. Among those arrested was Fabio Lanciotti, 46, one of the more than 250 persons on trial for manufacturing adulterated wine containing everything from banana skins to ox blood. Authorities said they were seeking four other men. Theft of the wine, stored in four locked cellars, was discovered over the weekend. It had been replaced with dyed water in the huge storage vats. Police estimated it took at least 300 trips by tanker truck to haul the stuff away. Consumers in northern Italy were warned to beware. The wine had been awaiting analysis by experts. Some of it did not even contain grapes.

The Nation

NIXON SPELLS OUT DETAILS OF SPEECH TO LODGE, OTHERS

PRESIDENT NIXON, before his scheduled speech to the nation on Wednesday night, met with congressional leaders, Vietnam negotiator Henry Cabot Lodge and Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird in his office. The President spelled out for them the details of his major address to the nation. Lodge had returned earlier in the day from Paris, where he is chief U.S. negotiator at the peace talks. He joined Laird, Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, House Speaker John W. McCormack, House Republican leader Gerald R. Ford, Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield, Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen, House Assistant majority leader Carl Albert, Henry A. Kissinger, Nixon's security adviser, and Undersecretary of State Elliot Richardson and the President at the meeting. The White House session, which lasted more than an hour, added to the flurry of activity which gave rise, despite White House denials, to the thought Nixon planned an announcement of major significance.

GOP SOLO TAKES FIRST STEP TOWARD FORTAS INQUIRY

THE FIRST STEP was taken Wednesday by a Republican congressman toward a congressional inquiry which could lead to the impeachment of Supreme Court Justice Abe Fortas. Rep. Clark MacGregor, R-Minn., proposed that the House Judiciary Committee hold public hearings—with Fortas and Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell as invited witnesses—into charges that Fortas' behavior violated the constitutional provision that he serve for life during "good behavior." Rep. Emanuel Celler, chairman of the committee, interrupted House debate to announce that he and his Republican counterpart, Rep. William M. McCulloch of Ohio, had reached agreement on a course of action. This appeared to assure a House inquiry into Fortas' financial dealings with imprisoned financier Louis E. Wolfson.

EVERYTHING GOING WELL FOR APOLLO 10'S LAUNCH SUNDAY

EVERYTHING was reported going well at Cape Kennedy Wednesday for Apollo 10's 32-orbit flight around the moon. Launch Director Rocco A. Petrone reported that "right now, we're clear to go Sunday afternoon." He said, however, there were still many things to be done before astronauts Thomas P. Stafford, John W. Young and Eugene A. Cernan could take off on the final trial run for a manned lunar landing. The astronauts spent most of Wednesday getting a picture and chart preview of the "fantastic" panoramas of jagged mountains and gaping craters they expect to see next week. They were briefed on the lunar landscape by astronaut-geologist Harris H. Schmitt.

2 EMINENT SCIENTISTS CLASH ON NEED FOR ABM SYSTEM

TWO EMINENT SCIENTISTS clashed Wednesday in Washington on the need for an antiballistic missile system and the question of whether it would provoke the Soviet Union into an open-ended escalation of the arms race. Dr. Jerome E. Wiesner, provost of MIT, warned that the "safe-guard" ABM proposed by President Nixon would be interpreted by Moscow as the first step in a vast defense of the American population, forcing the Soviets to develop bigger and more sophisticated weapons. But Dr. Edward Teller, father of the H-bomb, said the development of the ABM would have a "stabilizing influence" on the arms race and was preferable to development of more aggressive weapons.

TRIO ARRESTED FOR $800,000 ARMORED CAR HOLDUP

THREE PERSONS, including one man acquitted in the $1.5 million Plymouth mail robbery, were arrested and charged Wednesday in the $800,000 holdup last December of an armored car. A Brink's employee also was sought. John J. Kelly, 54, of Watertown, who was tried and found innocent in the 1962 mail truck robbery, was arrested shortly after police arrested William Cresta, 35, of Medford, and Charles Domenico, 38, of Braintree. The four suspects were named on secret indictments returned earlier in the day by a special Suffolk County grand jury. John Doyle, head of the detective division in Dist. Atty. Garret Byrne's office, headed the force which sought to arrest the suspects. The indictments charged the four with being accessories before the fact. Conviction could carry the same penalty as the armed robbery—life imprisonment.

NORTHEASTERN UNIV. STUDENTS VOTE TO RETAIN ROTC

STUDENTS at Northeastern University have voted overwhelmingly to retain the Reserve Officers Training Corps on campus, but split evenly on whether to deny it academic credit. The students voted 3,070 to 738 to retain ROTC, but were perfectly divided, 1,535 to 1,535 on the question of credit for the controversial military training program. Shortly after the vote was announced on Wednesday, President Asa S. Knowles read a Defense Department statement granting colleges and universities permission to tailor ROTC to their own needs. Knowles added he was establishing a committee of students, faculty and administration members to find ways of modifying ROTC to meet the needs of Northeastern. About 1,200 Northeastern students are enrolled in ROTC, making it the largest contingent in the state.

$6 MILLION N.E. AQUARIUM TO OPEN JUNE 20

BOSTON'S $6 million New England aquarium, featuring a 200,000 gallon ocean tank, will open June 20, it was announced Wednesday. President David B. Stone said the long-delayed opening was complicated not only by a fire which destroyed many papers for the new facility built on Central Wharf, but complications to the circulation system for the huge ocean tank. Work on the aquarium began in Oct. 1965. The aquarium is geared to handle 1,000 visitors per hour and includes 9:30 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. to further their interests and to improve their techniques.

REP. IRVING FISHMAN

Mayoral Bid To Be Made By Fishman

Representative Irving Fishman is expected to announce his candidacy for Mayor at a reception to be held for him at the Newton Centre Women's Club next Tuesday night (May 20).

Nomination papers for Fishman have been in circulation for the past several weeks since the Waban law maker disclosed that he was seriously considering running for Mayor.

Fishman's announcement will set the stage for an election battle with Mayor Monte G. Basbas who will be a candidate for reelection to another term as the city's chief municipal executive.

Representative Fishman resides at 1457 Beacon street in Waban.

He is now serving his fourth term in the House of Representatives and represents the 13th Middlesex legislative district which comprises Wards 4, 5, 6 and 8 of Newton. He also

2nd Creative Arts Center Is Planned

A staff of highly skilled artist-teachers performers will return to the Creative Arts Center for the ninth season of this unique program in the Creative Arts.

This summer program is Newton's answer to a need for more opportunities for students to become directly involved in a significant experience in the creative arts. Areas to be covered in instruction are Dance, Music, Theatre, Film, Animation, Drawing and Painting, and Crafts/Constructive Design.

Due to the success of the program a second center has been added at Warren Junior High School, 1600 Washington Street, West Newton. Newton South High School will continue to serve as the other location.

The Creative Arts Center will have a five-week session of half-days from June 30 to August 1.

Youngsters, who in September will be in grades six through twelve and who have ability and real interest in these art forms will be able to work with highly skilled and talented teachers daily from 9:30 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. to further their interests and to improve their techniques.

Twelve Newton Schools Crowded, Need Space

Twelve Newton schools are overcrowded and need more space, the Newton School Committee was told Monday night.

John Gilleland, assistant superintendent for business services, reviewed for the committee the space needs in the city's schools.

He said that in 20 schools the enrollments as of May 1 are at or over the designed capacity for the structures. However, two of these schools, Newton High and Day Junior High, have new facilities in the planning stage.

Gilleland noted that the schools with space problems should be lined up in terms of the priority of their needs.

He pointed to the Underwood School, at which the School Committee met this week, as a prime example of an overcrowded school.

The school, located at Newton Corner, was erected in 1924. Before the Massachusetts Turnpike Extension was constructed the enrollment was under 400. Since the building of the toll road the population in the school district has changed and increased, Gilleland reported.

There are now 562 students and 80 adults in the Underwood School. Five emergency classrooms are in use, including a converted balcony of the school auditorium.

The picture fits all the criteria in terms of overcrowding, Gilleland explained.

"We expect to need four more classrooms over the next four years at Underwood," Gilleland said. "We can get by next September, but after that we will have to consider emergency measures," he noted.

Some of the emergency measures which could be taken to alleviate temporarily overcrowded conditions were listed as buying, rental of temporary quarters, utilization of church property and mobile or portable classrooms.

Commander Malgieri was born and educated in Newton and studied communications

NTA Queries Air-Conditioning Use

The question of whether Newton should air-condition its new schools, now and in the future, was asked by the Newton Taxpayers' Association this week.

In its current bulletin, the NTA requested the opinion of its members, noting that in the past few weeks $450,000 and $220,000 respectively have been added to the costs of the new North high school and the new Day junior high.

The bulletin pointed out that the new Bigelow junior high, presently under construction, will be about 70 percent air-conditioned, while the recently finished Horace Mann elementary school includes elements to permit later air-conditioning.

Two general answers have been given and the Association wants to know if its members think they are "good enough".

The Association reports the first answer as saying, "Borrow all you can for buildings now because you

Urge Citizens Play Roles In Crime War

Chairman A. Raymond Tye of the Newton Crime Prevention Commission has issued the following interim report to Mayor Basbas. Further reports and recommendations will be forthcoming in the future.

"Last year over 20,000 copies of a 16 page booklet 'Guardians of Your Property and Welfare' were distributed by the Newton Police to all the families in Newton.

This was a beginning step in enlisting good cooperation between the citizens of Newton and the Police Department. The information in this booklet is valuable, and it should be read and reread.

"There is still a long way to go however in encouraging a great many of the people in Newton to cooperate actively with the Newton Police.

"The most important thing that most citizens can do is to observe and report something suspicious or out of the ordinary and to telephone the Newton police (244-1212) immediately.

"It is important to remember that when you report something you have noticed, it is not necessary for you to give your name and address. Only what you have noticed and where it is located.

"The police, however, will often be greatly aided if you give your name and address, but this is not required.

POLITICAL HIGHLIGHTS

Pres. Nixon's Top Advisers

See Ted As Opponent in '72

President Nixon's top advisers are convinced that the Presidential fight in 1972 will be between Mr. Nixon and Senator Edward M. Kennedy.

In fact, they believe that the contest already has been joined, and they are watching Ted Kennedy carefully for any mistakes on which they might capitalize.

This is why Mr. Nixon is steering a course slightly to the left of the middle of the road, obviously hoping to force or maneuver Senator Kennedy to the far left.

The Nixon advisers are surprisingly confident that their man could defeat the last of the Kennedy brothers, as matters presently are developing.

Some sound political experts disagree with them and in a long-range appraisal rate Ted a favorite in a prospective 1972 Nixon-Kennedy encounter.

Many conservative Republicans are complaining that Nixon is much more liberal as a President than he was as a candidate.

Works of a Creative Man And His Family at Library

Art Wood's "Family Album," an exhibit of works by a creative man and his family — Art, his sons Brad and Ben, his father Augustus and his wife Marilyn — is on view through May at the Newton Free Library, 414 Centre Street, Newton Corner.

Art Wood, assistant professor at Rhode Island School of Design, is an artist whose work has recently, he says, "taken a decided political bent . . . Like most Americans of my time, I was taught by society and family and schools not to discuss politics or religion — so we left all the important stuff of life and death to politicians and the church. This may be a clue to the state of things."

In Mr. Wood's work one can see clearly his devotion to his family and to his ideals. His paintings and serigraphs are in many private collections and in permanent collections of Harvard University's Fogg Museum, at Brandeis University, and at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts.

A new silk screen print "The Commercial," has recently been bought by the Museum of Modern Art, New York. Mr. Wood has also just completed a set of slide shows with several reels of original cartoons, filled with contrasting images, for a Lesley College Drama Club April production.

Brad Wood, Art's son, a 9th grade Warren Jr. High School student, demonstrates his artistic versatility in the group he has selected for showing with "Family Album." Brad likes faces, and his India ink portraits are faithful and revealing.

Handsome clay pots, the sole feminine contribution to "Family Album," were made on the potter's wheel by Art's wife Marilyn, who started pottery 10 years ago at the Village Studio and later at the Cambridge Center for Adult Education. Marilyn, the retiring Creative Arts Chairman for Williams School, works for Marshall Films and Center for Documentary Anthropology.

Rounding out the Wood family display are a delightful painting, "The Postman," by 7-year-old Ben Wood, and a gift from the past, a miniature wooden sled made long ago in the late 1800's by Grandpa Bradford Sturtevant for his daughter, Art Wood's mother.

Curb To Drunken Driving

Drunken drivers now kill themselves and innocent lawful motorists at the appalling rate of 500 a week across the nation.

Congressional reports by the National Highway Safety Board confirm that the great majority of traffic deaths are caused by the problem drinker, possibly alcoholic, and not the social drinker.

The Massachusetts Safety Council, a private organization, supported by the public and business, believes that if we are really trying to prevent traffic accidents, the legal level of blood alcohol that is now the presumption of intoxication will have to be lowered. As the level stands now, fifteen one-hundredths of the percentage, by weight, of alcohol in the blood is the level above which a motorist shall be presumed under-the-influence.

Indeed, at .15 percent he is under the influence. But at only .10 percent he undergoes a drastic reduction in his ability to operate an automobile. To reach the proposed new level of .10 percent, a 140-pound man would have only to consume the equivalent of four drinks in the one hour prior to the test. A 200-pound man would have to drink six drinks in one hour to reach the same level.

Anyone who drinks this much should not be behind the wheel of a car.

A bill is presently in the Senate hopper which would set the legal limit of blood alcohol for the presumption of driving under the influence at .10 percent.

The passage of the bill and its enactment into law would not guarantee to lower the death rate caused by drunken drivers, but it might make a lot of people think twice about driving after drinking.

Advertising Horsepower

Political and economic independence are inseparable. No better illustration of this fact can be found than in the operation of that mainstay of liberty, the free press. To be free the press must be self-supporting.

The practical side of press freedom was described by the advertising director of a major metropolitan newspaper: "While the First Amendment guarantees freedom of the press, it is the strength provided by advertising revenues that makes it possible . . . No subsidized press can hope to be objective and unbiased in news treatment or editorial policy . . . I believe that America's newspapers . . . by advertising's vigor-imparting revenues, are the most objective, the most informative, and the most reliable newspapers in the world."

The often heard statement that private enterprise and a free press will live or die together is no exaggeration. Neither is it an exaggeration to point out that representative government and liberty itself will stand or fall with private enterprise and a free press.

And so we all should be thankful for the advertising horsepower that keeps a good newspaper solvent.

LETTERS TO THE GRAPHIC

Letter To Mayor

The Honorable Monte Basbas, Mayor
Newton City Hall
Newton, Massachusetts

Dear Mayor Basbas:

We were quite disheartened to read in the Newton Graphic last week, that some representatives of Newton were planning on making changes in the newly-instituted Leash Laws.

For the first week of the fifteen years during which we have been law-abiding, tax-paying citizens of our fair city, we were able to walk the streets and by-ways without fear of being rushed at by ferocious-looking (however "gentle-minded" their owners proclaim them to be) dogs.

For the first time, our neighbor's dog was not barking under our window at all hours of the day and night. For the first time, we could walk over the grass on our own property, without fear of stepping into the filth that is deposited there by other people's pets.

For the first time, we have hopes that our hedges and shrubbery will survive to beautify our landscape, as they were intended to do, without fear of ruination by traveling dogs.

For the first time, our trash remained in the barrels after we set them out for pick up, without ending up half on the street, and half back on our own property. Our feeling is that for those who do not wish to accept the responsibility of training their dogs so as not to infringe on other people's rights: Let them keep parakeets!

How any group of politicians, supposedly representing the interests of ALL citizens, could even THINK of altering or perishing the thought of abandoning such laws is far beyond our sense of reason. PLEASE SEE THAT THIS DOES NOT HAPPEN!

Yours very truly,

Muriel K. Mersky

SDS Idiocy

Editor of The Graphic:

There is nothing that can be said in favor of the SDS as Colbert so expertly explains to us.

In fact, the fact the SDS is a form of adolescent idiocy hardly deserves mention to intelligent readers. It might be pointed out that Dartmouth managed to arrest its offenders without incident while Harvard hospitalized forty seven people.

It is not Pusey's nor the police's job to issue punishment for civil crimes, which seem to include trespassing, assault and battery, and destroying private property. There is a happy medium between crushed skulls and doing nothing at all.

A New Era

Editor of The Graphic:

Robert Weiser's recent letter spells a welcomed new era of diplomacy between the Newton Teachers Association and the School Committee.

He stated that ". . . we recognize the legal authority of the School Committee to establish educational policies; and we recognize our obligation to support these decisions."

To any casual observer of the in school lunch program, as operated under the earlier School Committee edict, it is painfully clear that the legal authority of the School Committee has not been well recognized by the N.T.A. The N.T.A.'s sentiment of "lets forgive and forget" with regard to the recent decision on the school lunch - uniform day program, is prompted by nothing less than the fact that the teachers still have their two afternoons off each week.

I chuckle at their implied expression of concern about our School Committee being ". . . under constant harassment." I know of no group other than the N.T.A. that has applied more pressure to the School Committee to reject the majority desire for the uniform day - in school lunch program.

There is no speculation attached to saying that the School Committee would have acceded long ago to the wishes of the majority if not for this well organized pressure group; perhaps the best organized in the city to day.

P.S. I might add that we ARE dog-lovers; and have owned five during the years we have lived in Newton.

POLITICAL HIGHLIGHTS

In truth, the men on the Pueblo has nothing with which to fight.

Their armament consisted of two machine guns, and they didn't work properly. Their little converted cargo ship was so top-heavy there was a danger it might tip over in rough seas.

This spy ship was a small, unarmed, unseaworthy tub which would be little more than a match for the Swan Boat fleet on the Public Garden.

Great harm was done to the image of the United States Navy in the aftermath to the tragic capture of the Pueblo.

But it was done by the brass who comprised the navy court of inquiry, not by the men who manned the poor little Pueblo.

It is understandable that the navy would want to know exactly how the Pueblo was captured.

But to strip a man of his pride and dignity, as was done in the case of Commander Bucher, did nothing to uphold the tradition of the American navy or to cause young men to want to serve in it.

No recommendation was made for the punishment of the high naval officers who sent an unfit ship on such a mission and set the stage for the capture and brutal treatment of the men of the Pueblo.

The Pueblo incident was the shame of the navy brass, not of Commander Bucher and his crew.

What seems unusual to this observer, however, is that while the judge considered the conduct of 45 demonstrators serious enough to send them to jail—and a Dartmouth dean apparently approved of his action—Dartmouth itself up to the time this was written has meted out no punishment to the 32 students involved.

This raises a question which mystifies a great many people. Why don't the colleges themselves expel the ringleaders responsible for demonstrations which violate the law and are little more than campus anarchy?

Even at Cornell, where the demonstrators were armed like so many bandits, no action was taken against them by the college.

In some instances colleges have summoned police to remove demonstrating students from buildings they have taken over by force and then have requested that the students not be prosecuted in court.

The colleges themselves could cool down these unlawful demonstrations with a few well-earned expulsions.

Gov. Sargent Seeking Image As Opponent of Legislature

Governor Sargent has gone to some pains to picture himself in conflict with the State legislature.

This is considered good politics since it is generally believed that a public figure can't lose by fighting with the Legislature.

That is probably correct although the Governor now is being a little obvious about it.

He originally vetoed a $2500 pay raise for the lawmakers and forced them to settle for $1400.

Newton Group Gives $2500 To Aid Work of Elma Lewis

Elma Lewis, creative genius of the performing arts in the Roxbury community, received a Mother's Day gift of $2500.00 from the Newton Friends of the National Center of Afro-American Artists, newest friends group in a chain of suburban Friends organizations raising funds to assist Miss Lewis' work.

The Newton group, under the co-chairmanship of sculptor Lloyd Lillie and Mrs. Frank Flaschner, has existed for about 3 weeks and will build on the solid base of supporters attending the Mother's Day reception, held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Melvin Taymor, 44 Fairfax Road, West Newton.

The check for $2500.00, gifts from the approximately 200 people attending the informal reception, was presented by Mrs. Daniel Bernstein of 22 Hobart Road, Newton.

The business portion of the meeting was highlighted by the election of officers. President Herbert Regal introduced Sidney Shuman, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, who presented the following slate for 1969-70 which was unanimously elected:

President, Peter Scott; 1st Vice President, Charles Jacobs; 2nd Vice President, William Greer; 3rd Vice President, Champs Fisher; Executive Secretary Mrs. Stanley Charren, Recording Secretary, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lohan; Treasurer, Marvin Cantor.

The program for the evening consisted of a discussion of the Newton Teachers Association, led by Robert Weiser, President of the NTA, Richard Durkin, former President, and Harvey Pook, Chairman of the Personnel Policies Committee.

Miss Lewis told her Newton Friends, "I don't know anything about economics. I just know kids' needs." A specialist in life-saving through innovative persons and parents from the Newton, Wellesley and Weston Area (as designated in the Comprehensive Mental Health Act) who might wish to see a similar program established paying for it at the rate of a dollar a week.

Miss Lewis added that her mother didn't know it was impossible to buy that $1200.00 piano for a dollar a week, and so the instrument is in Miss Lewis' living room today.

Elma Lewis urged her listeners to re-organize their priorities in order to give the students at the Center, only 25 percent of whom are able to pay for their own lessons, the basic equipment they need, such as mirrors, barres, art and sewing material, record players, pianos and other musical instruments. Miss Lewis asked the Newton Friends to be friends of humanity, to foster peace and sanity, to respond to the creativity, the loyalty and love in the hearts of the students at the Afro-American Center.

And from any corner of the crowded room at the May 11 reception, it seemed clear that Elma Lewis has good friends indeed in Newton.

Attend Father's Weekend

Four Newton area fathers attended the May 2nd Father's Weekend at Pine Manor Junior College. Friends to be friends of humanity, to foster peace and sanity, to respond to the creativity, the loyalty and love in the hearts of the students at the Afro-American Center.

Pamela Green and Doreen Sherman are freshmen and Myra Weisberg and Dale Roberts are seniors at Pine Manor.

100 Newtonville Residents Oppose Commercialization

At least 100 residents of Newtonville, in an area bounded by Crafts, Walnut and Court streets, are protesting the general commercialization of the neighborhood.

A petition has been circulated and signed asking for a hearing before the Board of Aldermen's Land Use Committee. According to Mrs.

James Murphy, 1171 Turner terrace, the homeowners "have joined in a separate effort to stop the encroachment of business and halt the general deterioration of this highly taxed residential neighborhood."

A Newton city yard, which has been left as a dumping place, is one of the targets of the residents. They want it cleaned.

Mrs. Murphy said a hearing before the Aldermanic Board is pending.

Newton Track Team Sweeps Meet With Rindge Tech

The Newton High School track team overwhelmed Rindge Tech, 117 2/3 to 22 1/3, last Wednesday at Dickinson Stadium when the Cambridge school only showed up for the meet with 20 competitors.

However, Newton ran up the score without the aid of three top runners. Don McMillen and Bill Clarke saw no action, while dash man Joe Diseglio only long-jumped. Each had slight muscle pulls and expected to be ready for last Saturday's league meet.

Despite the fact that there was little competition for Newton there were some good times turned in. Foremost of the performances was a 2:01.7 half mile. Anderson still hasn't been pressed so the senior should be able to get that time down further.

In the field, Captain Barry Harsip and Steve Scrimshaw turned in good distances. Harsip threw the discus 124'9" and Scrimshaw jumped 29'11" in the triple jump. Marc Simon and Jay Wilton followed to sweep the discus while John Fray and Abe Oros finished the Newton sweep in the triple jump.

Another promising early season performance was turned in by junior Doug Tomb. Tomb ran a fast 4:38 mile and wasn't severely tested. Junior Jeff Grossman and sophomore Jim Boates ran second and third respectively for another sweep. The NHS effort in the hurdles was adequate. Clayton Austin won the high hurdles while Skip Fawsin and Stan Birdwell finished 1, 2 in the lows.

The dashes could hardly be considered a contest. Alan Boyer and Mike Tymar ran 1, 2 in the 100 as did Luther Core and Ken Yanco in the 220. Steve Scrimshaw and Barry Harsip duplicated this feat in the 440.

Underclassmen Tom Best and Steve Caggiano followed Anderson across the line in the 880. Rindge recorded their only clear cut victory in the 2-mile. Rindge's Bill Durette ran away with this even in a fast 9:56.2. Still, Newton's Mike O'Brien ran a very creditable 10:28 for second. John Bowles finished third.

In the pole vault, Newton's Mark McGlaughlin tied with Rindge's Wayne Bingham at 10'. Lanky junior Warren Lomax took third for Newton. The shot put and javelin were two more shutouts for the Tigers.

He is closely identified with all four Boston pro teams: the Red Sox, Bruins, Celtics and Patriots.

Cub Pack 217 In Pinewood Derby Event

Cub Scout Pack 217 held their last meeting of the year at Temple Emmanuel on Thursday evening, May 9. The event of the evening was the Pinewood Derby for which racing cars had been prepared by the boys and their fathers.

The winners of the race were George Bloom, first place, Cliff Martin, second place, and Howard Cohen, third place. These three boys had earlier won prizes for the best-looking cars.

In the consolation heats, the winners were Philip Hark, first place, and Carl Engelbourg, second place.

Den Three reported on a special project they had carried out as part of their "tying things" achievement. The boys each selected a couple of books which they wanted to share with third graders on an Indian reservation in Montana. They sent the packages and prepared a joint letter.

This week they received a long letter in reply from the third grade of the Saint Labre Indian School in Ashland, Montana.

Members of Den 3, Pack 217, are Marc Lee, James Carpenter, Philip Hark, Carl Engelbourg, Kevin Silver and Jean-Michel Valette. Den mothers are Mrs. Deborah Silver and Mrs. Rebecca Valette.

Paul Heins, of 18 Warwick Rd., West Newton, Editor of "The Horn Book Magazine," was the featured speaker at the luncheon of the Children's Book Guild in Washington, D.C. the end of April. Mr. Heins' subject was "The Reviewing and Criticism of Children's Books."

Editor of "The Horn Book Magazine" since 1967, Mr. Heins served this year on the American Library Association Newbery-Caldecott Committee. As a member of the committee, he took part in discussing the books being considered for the Newbery and Caldecott Awards and in the selection of the winning books. The 1969 Newbery Award for the most distinguished contribution to American literature for children went to an exciting fantasy "The High King," by Lloyd Alexander. The 1969 Caldecott Award for the most distinguished American picture book for children went to "The Fool of the World and The Flying Ship" by Arthur Ransome illustrated with line drawings and water-color wash by Uri Shulevitz. In July Mr. Heins will be one of the speakers at the Fifth Intermountain Conference on Children's Literature at the University of Utah in Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Heins (Ethel L. Heins)

is the Instructional Materials Specialist at the Maria Hastings Elementary School in Lexington. Mrs. Heins, who is a reviewer for "The Horn Book Magazine," teaches a course in children's literature at Boston College.

Shea Calls For Mass. Con-Con

State Rep. H. James Shea Jr., D-Newton, was one of nine Democratic legislators who offered an order on the floor of the House, last week calling for a joint constitutional convention of the legislature.

The convention would consider a reduction in the size of the House and a lowering of the voting age to either 19 or 18 years of age.

The nine declared the question was "not whether one is for or against a cut in the size of the House or whether one is in favor or against lowering the voting age."

"Rather, it is whether the legislature will consider these vital issues now and not put them off for another year when the pressures and problems of an election year make rational and considered judgment even more difficult."

"We must recognize," they said, "Existing citizen interest on these matters this year."

If you have been reading the local Police reports you will note that it was our turn to be the victim of vandalism. Six of our plate glass windows were broken by rocks and bottles, and the resulting flying glass has damaged some of our pianos, organs and stereos. It is particularly disturbing as this had no apparent robbery motive — it was purely an act of vandalism — malicious vandalism at its worst, and I wonder if the culprit will receive more than a slap on the wrist! At any rate, our misfortune could be your advantage as I will offer the scratched merchandise to you at greatly reduced prices. ## Newton Women Take Part In Writer's Conference

Two Newton residents, Mrs. Teacher's College, and their Eleanor Boylan and Mrs. five children. Beryl Robinson, both well-known authorities on children's literature, will take part in an unique writer's conference to be held in June on Northeastern University's Burlington campus.

The Boston Area Writer's Conference is the first writer's conference in New England specially designed for commuters. To be offered are sessions in poetry, non-fiction, and writing for juveniles.

Mrs. Boylan has written many plays for children and will give workshop instruction in writing and handling children's plays and stories.

In February this year, the Theatre Company of Boston presented Mrs. Boylan's play "Pitcwork Girl of Oz". Last Christmas, her musical adaptation of "Gulliver's Travels", which combined live actors and puppets, was staged at the Charles Playhouse.

For the play "Sarah Crewe", Mrs. Boylan received first prize in 1965 at the North Shore Community Theatre. In addition, she has written "The House at North Square", an original play about the American revolution, dozens of scripts for puppet theatre, and mystery stories for children.

A native of New York City and educated at the College of St. Vincent, Mrs. Boylan now lives in Newton Lower Falls with her husband Paul, a teacher at Framingham State 437-3326.

Teen-Agers March Sunday To Aid St. Jude Fund

Newton teenagers will march on SUNDAY, MAY 18th, to raise funds for the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital founded by famed comedian Danny Thomas.

The army of teenagers expect to raise over $100,000 from residents of the Greater Boston area.

The goal was announced today by Daniel G. Hurley of Medford. Teenage March Chairman, and Edward E. Nicholas of West Roxbury, City Director of Boston.

The one-day Teenage March is aimed at reaching nearly all the homes in the Greater Boston area. Teenage Marchers will wear Danny Thomas badges for identification when they make their calls.

The success of teenage marches around the country has enabled research teams at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital to keep an around-the-clock program in operation full time.

Hurley said that in his opinion the goal for the drive is realistic. "We should make it. Because of the wonderful response by local teenagers to our recruitment program, we should have every neighborhood covered by a volunteer teenage marcher.

With this kind of a volunteer force, over ninety per cent of the total collected will go to the research program."

He pointed out that many of the march officers still have holes to fill in their organizations, but they expect to close ranks by the day of the march.

Sheryl M. Resnick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Resnick of Waban, a sophomore at Framingham State College, was crowned Queen of the annual May Day Pageant on May 2.

TEMPLE WILL INSTALL OFFICERS — On Sunday evening (May 18) at 6:30 p.m. Temple Reyim of Newton will install its slate of officers for the year 1969-1970. The School Committee also took some action with regard to the support or opposition of bills before the State Legislature.

The Committee approved a resolution requesting the Governor and the State Legislature to restore the 30 per cent cut in funds earmarked for support of higher education.

The Committee voted to propose a bill before the Legislature sponsored by the Massachusetts Teachers Association that would give basically the same rights to non-tenure teachers as to tenure teachers. This would include a hearing before dismissal except that there would be no provision for appeal.

Dr. Laurits also reported that a bill which would have given State reimbursement for expenses to Newton and Quincy Junior Colleges was sidetracked until the next session of the legislature.

Plan'g March For Hungry To Boston Common May 31

Young people from this area are being organized by the Walther League of the Framingham Lutheran Church to hike from Shoppers' World in Framingham to the Boston Common on Saturday, May 31, at 8 a.m., to raise funds for the hungry.

The original idea came from the International Walther League last summer. At that time, it was suggested that interested people all over the country would run hikes in the spring of 1969. Many hikes have already taken place, and, in Chicago recently, over 1,500 youths walked 17 miles and raised $75,000.

Each hiker asks individuals, groups and companies to sponsor him. The sponsors will be asked to give the hiker a pledge for money for each mile he will walk.

The Boston Hike will proceed down Route 30 and there will be various "check points" along the way. A police escort has been arranged and it is now estimated that over 500

The association's annual meeting opened this morning with Attorney Meyer Goldman, a partner in the Boston law firm of Goldman and Goldman, discussing why hospital medical records must be retained for 55 years.

Over a lengthy career, Mr. Goldman has been active in a wide range of medical-legal matters and during February was the subject of a Wall Street Journal feature. He was a co-signer of legislation in Massachusetts making mandatory the retaining of a patient's medical record for 55 years.

Groups already committed to hiking include not only interested youth and adults from Framingham but persons from Newton, Wellesley, Canton, and other urban and suburban communities.

The event symbolizes a commitment to join with the poor in understanding and eliminating hunger in our neighborhoods and in the world.

Interested individuals and groups are asked to contact Edith Haffenreffer, 235-0505 in Wellesley; Mrs. A. L. Boerner, 969-3238 in Newton; Tim Mueller, 875-0225 in Framingham.

"The second most important thing that all citizens can do is not to engage in careless actions that invite or encourage crime. For example, never leave your keys in your car - for this puts temptation in front of other people, and makes it extremely easy for your car to be stolen. For another ex- ample, do not leave any of your doors unlocked.

"In one night a burglar from New York City entered nine houses in Newton, and nine of them had their front or back door or side door unlocked (by the way, he was apprehended by the Newton Police Department).

Unlocked doors obviously increase the ease of burglary and puts temptation in the way of people who are on the borderline of dishonesty and thieving.

"A number of suggestions along these lines were made very clear in the committee's discussions. Many are included in the booklet "Guardians of your Property and Welfare," to which we refer again, with emphatic recommendation to reread. Additional copies of the booklet are available. They may be obtained at the Newton City Hall Information Desk.

"Another important thing that all citizens can do is find out an implement procedures that will discourage or prevent crime. For example, some kinds of door locks are much better than other kinds of locks.

"The lock with a 'dead bolt' which slides up and down through rings, and which on the inside requires turning a knob to open, cannot be opened from the outside by a burglar's "shim" or similar devices; such a device can press an ordinary sliding lock back, opening the door.

"Another example is the use of a light with a timer, which will go on when it becomes evening or when a certain hour is reached. Such a light can actively discourage the entering of a house by a housebreaker.

"The members of the committee feel that they have benefited very greatly from the contacts with the Newton Police Department and from the discussions with each other. Therefore, we recommend that a continuing program be worked out whereby a greater feeling of acquaintanceship, common interest, and working together by developed between the members of the community and the Newton Police Department.

"Another important action that many citizens can engage in is to become more informed about crime, the prevention of crime, the Newton Police Department and ways of helping and of being helped, and to become involved.

"The subject of crime has begun to draw a great deal of attention in the United States.

"The loss it causes in the United States is immense. Burglaries alone in this country caused a loss of a quarter billion dollars in 1965.

"Little changes in a few procedures (such as locks, lights, bolts, etc.) can have an enormous influence in reducing the loss from crime.

Therefore, it is desirable for people to devote some of their time and attention to this subject.

"The Newton Police Department is willing and eager to be of help to Newton community organizations in giving talks and making explanations which will enable the citizens of Newton to help more and be helped more in the prevention of crime.

"In an article "About Crime and Punishment," Judge Irving B. Zeichner says:

"... It is the certainty of detection more than the method of punishment that deterr crime. Citizens must realize that good law enforcement cost money. It calls for the expenditure of vast sums for training

police as professionals...

and it calls for citizens to report crime.

United States, where witnesses sometimes consider the commission of a crime to be none of their business, seldom occurs in England where citizens regard it a civic duty to assist the police. This lack of involvement is also apparent in placing economy ahead of efficiency in the operation of the average

police department...

The members of the committee feel that they have benefited very greatly from the contacts with the Newton

Police Department and from the discussions with each other. Therefore, we recommend that a continuing program be worked out whereby a greater feeling of acquaintanceship, common interest, and working together by developed between the members of the community and the Newton Police Department.

Part of this recommendation could be implemented by showing often

Hour, Every Day," together with a talk given by a member of the Newton Police

This should happen on many occasions throughout the year

Poetic Letter Is Poignant Reminder To Local Mother

A booklet of poems by a Newton Marine who was killed in South Vietnam was published recently by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Rice, of 24 Turner rd., Newtonville.

The youth, Pfc. James J. Rice, was killed in a North Vietnamese ambush on Feb. 7, 1968, in the Demilitarized Zone 11 days before he was due to return home.

For his action in the fight, in which he helped save the lives of several of his wounded buddies, the Marine was awarded the Bronze Star with V for Valor, the Cross of Gallantry from Vietnam and the Meritorious Bravery Award from Vietnam.

The young man, who entered the Marine Corps from Newton Junior College, and planned to attend Northeastern University following his service to his country, expressed his thoughts on war and patriotism and life to his family by a series of poems composed while he was on active duty in the war zone.

On Sunday, Mothers Day, there was a void in the heart of his mother, just as there was in the hearts of many, many mothers whose sons have died in combat.

But Mrs. Rice had a cherished poetic letter to assure the ache in her heart which her son had sent to her shortly before his untimely death.

As he expressed it: "In her fingers/It became God's work of art/Stained with tears of pride and sorrow/As she hugs it to her heart."

The Marine called his missive 'The Letter of All Letters' and it reads: "You may write ten thousand letters

To the girl you adore And insist in every letter That you love her more and more

You may praise her grace and beauty

In a thousand glowing lines While you swear her eyes' bright luster

Pales the brightest stars that shine

If you had the pen of Byron You would wield it every day In composing written worship To your sweethearts far away

But the letter far more tender To an older, gentler breast Is a letter to your mother From the boy she loves the best

Young blood is fierce and flaming And when writing to your love You will rave about passion To the witching stars above

Swearing by the moonlight's splendor That the girl you adore Is the one you love to madness As no maid was loved before

You give voice to love's enchantment In those pages white and dumb Sweating things you'll never live up to In the married years to come

But a letter far more precious Fraught with truer, purer bliss

Is a letter to your mother From the boy she yearns to kiss

She will read and read it over While the lights are glowing low Sitting in the same old corner Where she nursed you years ago

She needs not of its diction Or its spelling or its style Though perhaps its composition Would provoke a critic's smile

In her fingers It becomes God's work of art

Stained with tears of pride and sorrow As she hugs it to her heart

Yes the letter of all letters Look wherever you may roam Is the letter to your mother From that boy afar from home."

Newton Democrats Flay 15-Year Clause for Low-Income Housing

The Newton Democratic Committee has called upon the Newton Housing Authority to abolish its requirement that applicants for low-income housing must have resided in Newton for 15 years.

Robert K. Kraft noted in a news release that only one unit of low-income housing has been leased in the three months of the program's existence.

Furthermore, he said, only two other eligible families have applied under existing regulations.

Kraft said the Authority should provide assistance to families and elderly persons seeking low-income units, and that some low-and moderate-income housing should be included in all future apartment building in Newton.

The Committee re-affirmed its support for private groups working within federal and state housing programs.

The Committee's housing report was prepared by a sub-committee of Gordon A. Martin Jr., vice chairman; Victor M. Kumin, Wellington Scott and Mrs. Leo R. Parnes.

The full text follows: "The Newton Democratic City Committee commends the League of Women Voters of Newton and the Newton Community Relations Council for their sponsorship of the conference on low- and moderate-income housing held at Aquinas Junior College of Business. The creation of housing opportunities for persons of low-and moderate-income is indeed 'Newton's critical need.'

"We reaffirm today our commitment to the creation of such housing opportunities in this city. Specifically we reaffirm the commitment made unanimously by our executive board on August 7, 1969 to support:

"1. The immediate construction in Newton of low and moderate income housing to help alleviate the present housing shortage.

APOLLO 10 OBITS MOON, ASTRONAUTS SEE GLOWING CRATERS
THE THREE ASTRONAUTS reported seeing glowing craters that "may be radioactive" as Apollo 10 whipped flawlessly around the moon late Wednesday. "Boy this is really a rugged planet!" reported John W. Young as he and flight commander Thomas P. Stafford and Eugene A. Cernan made their first orbit around the lunar surface. Today, they will begin testing the machinery that will allow the crew of Apollo 11 astronauts to land next July. The astronauts sent back detailed descriptions of moon-scape features, including depressions some scientists think may be the remnants of rivers on the moon. Radio contact was lost at 4:37 p.m. EDT and the firing of the braking rocket that slowed them into lunar orbit occurred at 4:45 p.m. EDT.

U.S. COMMANDERS DEFEND OFFENSIVE AS KEYSTONE OPERATION

U.S. COMMANDERS Wednesday defended the controversial offensive for Hamburger Hill overlooking A Shau Valley and ordered a fresh battalion of paratroopers to hold the peak near Laos. Mopup forces reported killing 12 North Vietnamese snipers in smashed bunkers filled with bodies. Front reports said 517 North Vietnamese regulars were slain in the Hamburger Hill fight against American losses of 55 dead and about 300 wounded, one of the heaviest tolls of the war for a single objective. U.S. commanders said the fight for the hill was the keystone in an operation designed to remove the A Shau Valley as North Vietnam's main infiltration corridor into South Vietnam's northern reaches. The high U.S. losses prompted criticism by some congressmen, including U.S. Sen Edward F. Kennedy, D-Mass.

ISRAELI CLAIMS 3 EGYPTIAN MIGS SHOT DOWN IN DOGFIGHTS

DOGFIGHTS raged Wednesday over the Suez Canal, and Israel claimed three Egyptian MIGs were shot down, including one struck by an American-made Hawk missile. Israeli troops, protected by warplanes and armor, knifed into Jordan and reported heavy destruction of a village used by Arab guerrillas. The actions on two fronts marked one of the most serious outbreaks of fighting in the Middle East since the 1967 war, and it erupted even as Big Four ambassadors met in New York and reported some progress toward a peace formula. An Israeli military communiqué said the three Soviet-built planes were blasted from the skies when they tried to penetrate air space over Israeli-held territory on the eastern bank of the Suez Canal.

SIRHAN B. SIRHAN SENTENCED TO DIE IN CALIF. GAS CHAMBER

SIRHAN B. SIRHAN was formerly sentenced Wednesday to death in the California gas chamber for the assassination of Sen. Kennedy despite a plea for clemency from the family of the slain senator. In ordering the 25-year-old Arab immigrant to die in San Quentin's gas chamber for the killing nearly a year ago, Superior Court Judge Herbert V. Walker ignored a compassionate letter from Kennedy's only surviving brother, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy who asked mercy for Sirhan. Walker denied defense motions for a new trial after a daylong hearing. The Kennedy letter was presented to the court by Dist. Atty. Avelle Younger. It was written in response to a request from Younger for an expression from the family on possible penalties for the Arab who shot the New York senator last June 5.

NIXON NOMINATES WARREN E. BURGER AS U.S. CHIEF JUSTICE

PRESIDENT NIXON nominated Warren E. Burger to be Chief Justice of the United States on Wednesday night. He announced he was nominating Burger to succeed Chief Justice Earl Warren in a nationally televised news conference on the White House. Burger is judge of the Circuit Court of Appeals in Washington. The nomination is subject to Senate confirmation. The new Chief Justice would take office when the court—scheduled to adjourn in June—convenes its new term next October. Burger, a native of St. Paul, Minn., was born Sept. 17, 1907. He has been a federal appeals judge since 1956. He was appointed to the bench by President Dwight D. Eisenhower after serving three years as assistant attorney general. Nixon said Burger earned his education "the hard way." He won his law degree cum laude from St. Paul Law College in 1931, working his way through school. He makes his home in the Washington suburb of Arlington, Va.

BIRCH SOCIETY CAMPAIGNS IN 27 STATES AGAINST SEX EDUCATION

THE JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY, sometimes using such tactics as abusive telephone calls and smut literature, is operating in at least 27 states to abolish sex education in the schools, according to an official of the National Education Association. NEA's Paul Putnam said the society is using a front group called the "Movement to Restore Decency" to attack all sex education in the schools on the grounds the Communists are behind the programs. U.S. Education Commissioner James E. Allen said he is aware of the anti-sex education activities. "We saw it in New York," he said. "We found people coming around with literature—some of it the filthiest you have ever seen—saying it will be used in school."

ABA ETHICS COMMITTEE GETS DOUGLAS FEE PROBE

THE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION said Wednesday it was referring to its ethics committee a senator's request for an opinion on whether Justice William O. Douglas violated judicial canons by accepting pay from a foundation with gambling interests. The ABA acted a day after Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., asked the association to investigate Douglas' relationship with the Albert Parvin Foundation, which drew some of its income from gambling houses in Las Vegas. Douglas, Williams said, had been on the foundation's payroll at a salary of $12,000 a year. He said principals of the foundation have been "the subject of investigation by various agencies, including the Department of Justice."

KENNEDY ASKS $17 MILLION TO BUY MORE NATIONAL SEASHORE

SEN. EDWARD M. KENNEDY, D-Mass., asked Congress Wednesday to appropriate $17,401,000 to complete acquisition of land for the Cape Cod National Seashore. The senator said the seashore is about 8,000 acres short of the 27,000 designated under the original act signed by President Kennedy in 1961—which authorized $16,000,000. Noting funds were exhausted in 1967 some 8,000 acres short of completion, Kennedy said "it is now estimated that an additional $17,401,000 will be required to bring the land under ownership of the seashore." Kennedy said the seashore was within one day's drive for 30 million persons and that 3 million persons visited the seashore last year.

TRIO GIVEN LONG TERMS FOR ROCKLAND TRUST CO. HOLDUP

TWO MEN were sentenced Wednesday in Plymouth Superior Court to 15 to 25 years in prison and a third to 10 to 20 years for the $7,906 holdup of the Rockland Trust Co. last year. The heavier terms were given to James Pina, 31, of Plymouth, and William Phillipin, 21, of Brockton, and the lighter term to Ralph Andrews, 24, of Plymouth. All the sentences will be served at Walpole State Prison after jail terms now being served on other charges.

JAMES A. MILLER

Miller Resigns As Director Of Local Planning

Mayor Monte G. Basbas announced today that he had accepted the resignation of James A. Miller as Planning Director for the City of Newton.

Mr. Miller, Director of the Planning Department since its creation in 1964, had accepted a position as Director of Community Development for the Metropolitan Area Planning Council located in Boston, Mayor Basbas reported.

In accepting the resignation with "deep regret," Mayor Basbas released the text of a letter of resignation submitted to him by Mr. Miller.

"During Mr. Miller's tenure as Planning Director, the Planning Department has undertaken a twofold charge: the preparation and presentation of basic planning analyses and projections as elements of the Comprehensive Community Plan; concurrently with the provisions of a broad range of Planning services to meet current planning needs," Mayor Basbas states.

Since 1965, major elements of the Comprehensive Plan have been prepared by the Planning Department and submitted by Mayor Basbas to the Board of Aldermen:

1. General Plan — 1965; 2. Capital Improvement Programs; a 1965-1970; b. 1966-1971; c. Comparative Analysis of Projected Capital Improvement Program Costs

Appropriate $65,000 For Playground

The Newton Board of Aldermen on Monday night unanimously approved a $65,000 appropriation for purchase of land bordering the Massachusetts Turnpike for use as a playground on Hunnewell Hill.

Residents of the area aided by Alderman William E. Hopkins have been fighting for this playground for some time.

It will be constructed on 199,217 square feet of land bordering the Toll Road, between Simpson St., Elmhurst Road and the Boston city line.

Mayor Monte G. Basbas, who has been working with the Turnpike Authority to arrange the land purchase, made the request for funds.

Hot Words Over More Money For Garbage Pick-Up

A sharp controversy developed at Monday night's meeting of the Board of Aldermen over a proposal for voluntarily increasing the payments to the contracting firm which makes the garbage collections in Newton.

Subject of a bitter debate was a recommendation by Acting City Solicitor Charles Morang to Mayor Monte G. Basbas that the city pay Capello Brothers, the garbage disposal contractor, an additional 10 percent this year and an extra 5 percent 1970.

The existing contract runs until next April.

The aldermen by a close 11 to 10 vote rejected the proposed contract re-negotiation. For the most part, those who opposed the request indicated a poor precedent might be established, paving the way for others doing business with the city to seek additional money in the future before the expiration of contracts.

City officials expressed the opinion that if Capello's request was denied and new bids have to be sought in April, 1970, when the contract expires, it would cost Newton at least $250,000 a year, substantially more than the increase sought by Capello Bros.

The board's Finance Committee approved the proposed contract re-negotiation.

Five Newton South Pupils Get Awards

Burton Goldman, a chemistry teacher at Newton South High School, is a mighty good man today—and rightly so.

Five of his young Newton students walked off with awards and honors in the recent Annual Chemistry Examination contest sponsored by the Northeastern Section

News personnel will be available tomorrow, and Saturday to handle any early news copy received, and also on Monday when regular mail deliveries will be in order.

Receiving honorable mention and awards of $20 were, Jonathan M. Kaplan, and Roger B. Belson, both from Newton South High.

Russell T. Werby, chairman of the local chapter of the A.C.S. made the presentation of awards at a dinner held at M.I.T.

More than 650 students from approximately 150 high schools from Eastern Massachusetts and New Hampshire competed in this year's contest. More than 250 professional chemists attended the event where a total of $1,450 was given in prizes to talented students.

The first prize award of $400 was won by Steven W. Longcor of Needham High School. Charles D. Nargosian of Watertown High School took fifth place and a prize of $50.

A proposed amendment to the State Constitution, which would give the 19-year-olds that privilege, will be on the ballot next year for the approval or rejection of Massachusetts voters.

It has always been assumed that such a change would almost be automatically and overwhelmingly okayed.

Indications at the present time, however, are that it is more likely to be okayed by the citizens over 21.

Warren D. Feldberg of 25 Lancaster Road, Newton, has been elected to Phi Eta Sigma the national scholastic honor society for freshmen at the University of Wisconsin at Madison.

To become a member, a first-year student must attain a grade point average of 3.5 out of a possible 4 points.

School Board Meets June 2

The regular meeting of the Newton School Committee, scheduled for May 27th, is being postponed until Monday, June 2nd, because several members of the committee will be away on the 27th.

The meeting will be held at the Warren Junior High School, 1600 Washington St., West Newton, at 7:45 p.m.

JAMES J. WHALEN

James J. Whalen, executive vice president of Ohio University at Athens, has been named the third president of Newton College of the Sacred Heart. He will assume office on Sept. 1.

Whalen will thus become the first layman and the first man to head the Roman Catholic liberal arts college for women. Sacred Heart is one of six colleges conducted in the United States by the Society of the Sacred Heart, an international order of nuns.

Sister Mary H. Quinlan, R.S.C.J., superior at the college announced that Dr. Whalen was elected to office by the Newton College of the Sacred Heart Corporation, which held a special meeting on the campus. Sister Quinlan was chairman of the committee responsible for the nomination of a presidential candidate.

Dr. Whalen, who was 42 on March 6, has been Ohio's executive officer to President Vernon R. Alden since 1966. In his five years at Ohio, Dr. Whalen has advanced from director of the University's Center for Psychological Services, through various administrative positions to become Ohio's first executive vice-president.

His field of scholarship is clinical psychology, with psychotherapy his major interest.

He received his bachelor of arts degree from Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, Penna., in 1950, and both his master's and doctoral degrees in clinical psychology from Pennsylvania State University in 1952 and 1955, respectively.

Dr. Whalen will succeed Sister Gabrielle Husson, R.S.

C.J., who has been president since 1956. Sister Husson resigned in October, 1968, effective June 30, 1969. She will become superior of the Society's new Washington Service Center on the campus of Catholic University, Washington, D.C.

An executive officer of a $150,000,000 physical plant with 17,000 students, 1200 faculty members, and 1600 staff workers, Dr. Whalen bore major responsibility for Ohio University's student life, business and finance, and long-range planning.

He has played a leading role in Ohio's development and administration of:

— the Green Organization, whereby student residence units have been clustered into four village-like complexes, or greens, each with its own social and cultural activities;

— an international student exchange program—with academic divisions in Spain, France, Austria, and Germany;

— the Responsibility Accounting System, perhaps the country's most sophisticated college management information system, which gives department heads regular, concise, and comprehensive reports on the business activity of their departments, and gives Ohio's top administrators a continual review of the spending patterns and priorities of the entire university.

While executive vice-president, Dr. Whalen has supervised a total budget of approximately $50 million, for Ohio's main campus in Athens, as well as six branch campuses throughout southern Ohio.

Despite his increasingly heavy administrative responsibilities, Dr. Whalen continued to teach as a professor of psychology at Ohio until recent years. He still gives guest lectures at the University's honors college.

In addition to his membership on the Ohio faculty and on several of the University's other policy-making boards and committees, Dr. Whalen is a member of Phi Kappa Phi, national honorary fraternity; Phi Chi, national psychological honorary fraternity; the New York Academy of Sciences; the Ohio Academy of Consulting Psychologists, the American Psychological Association; and Psychologists Interested in the Advancement of Psychotherapy. He is also listed in "American Men of Science."

Born in Pottsville, Penna., the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Whalen, now of Pittsburgh, Dr. Whalen received his early education in Lancaster, Penna., schools.

In the years after the completion of his active duty with the U.S. Navy, his undergraduate and graduate studies, and his clinical psychology internship, he taught at Pennsylvania State University; directed the Western Pennsylvania Admissions Testing Program; lectured at the University of Maryland's Munich, Germany, campus.

Advising the committee were a large number of faculty members, alumnae, and present students at the College, as well as Newton's advisory board.

Newton College, which is situated on 50 acres of rolling campus seven miles from Boston, has a faculty of 96, both laymen and women as well as Religious of the Sacred Heart. To an undergraduate enrollment of 800 students, they offer a curriculum leading to the baccalaureate degree in 22 major fields.

The members will be addressed by GOP National Committeewoman, Mrs. H. Dunster Howe who will speak on "Helping, Caring, Doing" at the meeting following the luncheon. Mrs. Morgan Campbell, president, will conduct the brief business session prior to Mrs. Howe's talk.

Mrs. Robert Amesbury, newly elected president of State Federation of Republican Women, will be the Guest of Honor.

Editorial . . .

Stop Zapping The Zip

Six years ago the Post Office instituted the zone improvement plan, the Zip Code, with the promise it would "speed the mail." Now, after six years, postal aides admit the slogan is used a bit loosely.

Only in Dayton, Ohio, Milwaukee, Wisc., Detroit, Mich., and Long Beach, Calif., is the Zip Code doing well. Nationwide, not as well.

Right now, only 17 percent of first class letters carry the five-digit number on the bottom line of the address. A minimum of 75 percent to 80 percent is needed before the Post Office's costly efforts to mechanize the mail-sorting system can be effective. And unless more people start using the codes, officials fear, the new sorting system may be doomed before it gets into high gear.

Use of the code to date has kept the postal service from drowning in the rising sea of mail, currently 84 billion pieces a year, up from 72 billion when the Zip Codes were introduced. "If we hadn't begun the Zip system when we did," says George W. Proffitt, one of the department's Zip experts, "we'd be dead."

In the next 10 years, mail volume is expected to leap to 100 billion pieces a year, depending on help from Zip Codes to keep pace.

The Zip Code theory is quite simple. The first digit represents one of 10 areas into which the Post Office divides the nation for mail delivery. The second and third digits route the letters to one of several major postal distribution centers within the 10 regions. And the last two digits bring the letter to the Post Office closest to the addressee.

The Post Office is trying to find out why the percentage of Zip Codes use is higher in four cities of the nation than in the rest of the country. Officials want to determine why people neglect the Zip Codes on first class mail.

They suspect three reasons: that some people just don't know the codes, and don't bother to ask at their local Post Office. Also, some people don't believe the codes help. Finally, some omit the codes as a symbol of rebellion against this increasingly computerized multigit world.

We suspect that perhaps the suspicions of the postal officials are entirely correct. We also suspect that the principal reason for the non-use of the Zip Codes is sheer laziness. People will not take the few seconds needed to check on the Zip Code when addressing a letter. The street number, name and the city, town and state address of the recipient may be firmly implanted in the writer's memory but the Zip Code is not. And, human nature being what it is, most writers probably say, "aw, the heck with it."

If the postal system is to function properly in the coming years when mail volume is expected to burgeon, we've all got to change our attitude. Let's stop being lazy. Stop zapping the Zip.

There Is A Difference

Freedom of speech and freedom of press have been jealously guarded heritages of the political system in the United States. They are the foundation of representative government. Recent action by the Federal Communications Commission to ban cigarette advertising on television and radio raised the free press, free speech question in the minds of many people.

Irrespective of how anyone feels about cigarette smoking, the FCC raised a point about "the communications media" that is often overlooked.

The right of free speech and a free press do not have the same relationship to television and radio that they do to the nation's newspapers. The very fact that radio and television stations are subject to federal licensing sets them apart.

It also explains why, contrary to what some have thought in the past, neither radio nor television will take the place of the hometown newspaper. In today's fast-paced world, they are essential supplementary features of the art of communication. That is why many newspapers own radio and television stations — while the newspaper keeps right on publishing.

Only the newspaper leaves a permanent record of community life. Only the newspaper is free to express its editor's personal convictions, and only the newspaper — unlicensed and unregulated — fulfills the obligation of a free press in accordance with the historical meaning of the term.

A free press is the bastion of self-governing people. It can be supplemented, but never supplanted.

THEIR MEMORY LIVES ON!

Scout Cadettes Set Plans For Clean-Up Event

Who is distressed about the abuse of public property? Who is willing to do something about it?

On Wednesday afternoon of May 28, members of Girl Scout Cadette Troop 568 meeting at the Eliot Church in Newton will set forth to do a real clean-up job in Farlow Park adjoining the church property, doing the kind of thing that the Park Department has neither time nor personnel to do: mostly to pick up broken pieces of glass.

The park which has been a place of beauty and relaxation for many years has suffered from the kind of injury that has marked too many public places.

The girls working on their "My Government" badge have already visited Newton City Hall and the State House in Boston. This service project brings alive a sense of value for property and its upkeep and it is hope that once the girls have completed their task they will enjoy seeing it kept clean and free of debris and broken glass.

Girls involved in this project are: Marie Manning, Carl Carlson, Patricia Halloran, Gail Whoriskey, Claudia Chernov, Irene Lerner, Mary Anne Hawkins, Barbara Goldsmith, Mary Ellis, Jean Necheles, Joan Getty, Linda Carmel, Marcia Elmont, and Sarah Monnihan. Leaders of the troop are Mrs. Harold R. Fray Jr., and Mrs. Guerard Howkins, Jr.

Governor Sargent is reportedly cool to the sales tax approach to the problem of raising money for the State. But so far he doesn't seem exactly hot about his own tax plan, the keystone of which is a big boost in the State personal income tax.

Possibly, the Governor learned that most of the Democrats who originally were planning to vote for his tax program were motivated by the belief that by so doing they might help to contrive his defeat for the Governorship next year.

They theorized that since Governor Sargent drafted and sponsored the tax program, it would be known as his bill, and he would be the target for any public wrath or indignation engendered by the new taxes.

Now they have decided that some of the public anger might also be directed at them if they vote for the Governor's tax proposals.

While they would be extremely happy to see Mr. Sargent get the heave-ho from the voters in next year's State election, they do not want to be thrown out with him.

Self-survival being the first law of the political jungle, it appears now that the Governor's tax bill is destined to go down the legislative drain.

In fact, the Republicans are even less enthusiastic about it than are the Democrats.

Meanwhile, there is a political waiting game to determine who recommends the 2 per cent hike in the sales tax.

Speculation on How Lt. Gov. Candidates Will Be Picked

Several political columnists have speculated in print on how the Democratic and Republican nominees for Lieutenant Governor will be selected next year.

The answer is that they will be chosen by the Democratic and Republican voters in the September primaries.

In all probability they will be the same candidates endorsed by the State Conventions of the two political parties.

But the voters have the final decision. They can overrule the convention delegates, and they have on occasions in the past.

For all practical purposes Governor Sargent will handpick his Lieutenant Governor running mate.

What will happen on the Democratic side of the political fence is less certain.

The candidate who gains the endorsement of the Democratic State Convention for Governor undoubtedly could get the convention nod for the candidate of his choice if he moved swiftly and decisively.

Back in June, 1956, Foster Furcolo, who had been endorsed for Governor, was in the process of offering the endorsement for Lieutenant Governor to one public figure when the Democratic convention gave its nod to Robert F. Murphy who was not the running mate Furcolo had in mind.

Had Furcolo moved promptly, he probably could have swung the convention endorsement to any Lieutenant Governor candidate of his choosing. He simply didn't act quickly enough.

The reason for the speculation about picking the candidate for Lieutenant Governor is that next year the nominees for Governor and Lieutenant Governor will run as a team, as do the candidates for President and Vice President.

When you mark your ballot, you will cast only one vote for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, just as you do for President and Vice President. You no longer will be able to vote for a Governor of one party and a Lieutenant Governor of another.

Because a successful nominee for President usually picks his Vice Presidential running mate, it is assumed that the candidates for Governor will do the same.

A big difference, however, is that when a national convention nominates its choices for President and Vice President, that ends it. The candidates it picks will be on the election ballot.

But the candidates tapped by the State Conventions can be thrown out by the voters in a primary.

Teams of candidates also could be split up by the voters if they happened to like the candidate endorsed for Governor by the convention but not the person picked for Lieutenant Governor.

Electing the Governor and Lieutenant Governor as a team or ticket results from one of the so-called reforms to the Massachusetts Constitution. What the

LETTERS TO THE GRAPHIC

Student's Appeal

Editor of The Graphic:

Enclosed is a copy of an advertisement financed by the students, faculty and administration of the University of Massachusetts: I think that it speaks for itself; however, I would like to take this opportunity to underscore the problem.

I have lived in Newton for nineteen years, growing up under the auspices of one of the country. Superior quality of the finest school systems in education has always been emphasised in Newton. And we can be justifiably proud of our progress and our schools.

We have the finest teachers, the finest curriculum. We pay for it. But is it not worth the money when our young people are generally the best prepared for higher education, to go on to become the leaders of our nation?

It seems, then, a grotesque contradiction that a city so steeped in a tradition of the best education is young, to stand by and allow the budget for our state schools, schools to which many of our young people go for further education, to be so drastically cut. We, at the University, are currently in the process of building a new library.

We have the funds for the building, but the legislature is having difficulty in finding the funds for books. We have developed a CCEBS (College Committee for the Education of Black Students) program, which offers financial aid to underprivileged blacks as well as special tutorial help.

The program has been quite successful in that a large percentage of the initial group of students are now prepared to continue on at the University with a minimum of extra help. More students ought to become involved. But the program cannot continue without funds.

We have some of the finest in faculty and administration here at the University. These men and women very much aware of the changing needs of an academic community and its students. We are about to lose our Provost, Dr. Oswald Tippo, if we are not given enough funds to run the school properly. Dr. Tippo is a man of highest integrity and fine administrative quality.

He cannot run a school without proper funds. He does not want a second rate institution. Unfortunately, a first rate institution costs money. The students are solidly behind our Provost. We want Dr. Tippo to stay.

I think that the money raised for the advertisements is an indication of this. Many more people will want to leave if it looks as though our school cannot progress, and, in fact, must regress due to the ever-enlarging number of admissions. We cannot academically afford to lose them.

I am a junior at the University. I have been Managing Editor of the campus magazine, Spectrum, for the past three years. I am a member of the Five College Coordinating Board, a group of students from Amherst College, Smith College, Mt. Holyoke College, Hampshire College and the University who are working toward more cooperation between campuses.

We have an extensive student exchange program where students from any of the participating schools are allowed to take courses at the other institutions, thus giving the student the best of all four academic communities. I have worked on the English Department Under-graduate Council this year to help provide a liaison between faculty and students within the department. In this way, students are able to benefit from the knowledge of the English faculty.

Just a brief note to tell you how appreciative I am of the wonderful work that your men did in putting out the fire that took place recently in my home at 86 Waban Avenue, Waban.

Your Deputy and his men acted quickly, efficiently and did everything within their power to prevent the spread of fire, as well as taking steps to protect the property in the house.

It was because of their outstanding work that a major catastrophe was prevented. Please extend to them my thanks and appreciation.

Always sincerely,
Lester S. Hyman

"reform" really does give the voters a little less discretion in picking the men who will head their State government.

Plan Gradual Withdrawal Of U.S. Troops From Vietnam

Word from Washington is that there will be a gradual withdrawal of American troops from Vietnam even while peace negotiations are continuing.

The number of U.S. troops withdrawn from Vietnam will be small at the start. It will depend on the ability of the South Vietnamese to move in and hold the line.

The U.S. withdrawal would be speeded up if the North Vietnamese pull back as the first of our men come home.

But the number of American forces in Vietnam will be reduced regardless of what the North Vietnamese do or don't do.

Highlights of the unprecedented program at the high school will be the unveiling of a bronze plaque and a concert featuring a piano piece composed by Louis Weingarten.

Mandelson, a three-sports star, died last June following an operation.

Because of the admiration for the talented youngster, many individual programs have been initiated to perpetuate the memory of Dan, whose charisma caught the fancy of people of all ages.

William D. Geer, Jr., principal at Newton South, has announced the following tributes:

An annual Danny Mandelson Athletic Award to be presented at commencement. The winner will be selected by the head coaches of all varsity sports and the athletic director. Nominations will be made by all varsity letter winners each year.

The winner's name will be inscribed each year on a large silver bowl which will be kept permanently in the school. He will also receive a small silver bowl, a replica of the larger bowl and a watch.

The citation accompanying the award will be engraved on the large trophy and will read as follows:

"The Danny Mandelson Athletic Award is given each year to celebrate the memory of a boy who went to Newton South from 1966 to 1968. He died tragically on the last day of school in his junior year after he had become tri-captain elect of the varsity football team, a letter winner on the varsity wrestling team and an all-star centerfielder on the varsity baseball team.

"Danny was a leader and his teammates recognized it. They chose him to lead them; they chose him because he had natural ability. They chose him because he could make the big play, not just the touchdown but the key block; not just the extra base hit, but the sacrifice fly. Danny played the game for the sheer joy of it. The joy was contagious. It touched his teammates,

Famous Bomber Of World War 2 Valued Antique

By JAMES O. CLIFFORD
OAKLAND, Calif. (UPI)

— "She might be the only one in the country soon," Ralph Johnson said as he pointed the fuselage of his B25 Mitchell bomber, a sister ship of famous Tokyo Raiders of 1942.

Johnson, part owner of an aviation maintenance firm, bought the bomber from a junkyard in 1960 for $2,000 and spent an additional $6,000 to make it airworthy.

"Hollywood wanted to buy it for a movie called 'Catch-22' that's being made in Mexico but I wouldn't sell it," Johnson, 52, said. "Only 20 remain."

"I guess there are about 20 B25s still flying in the United States. But I understand almost all of them have been purchased for the movie."

"The script calls for them to be wrecked so this plane will be very rare."

"There's just too much history connected with the B25 for me to sell it," Johnson said.

Johnson's plane is a B25J, the last model of the Mitchell bomber that rose to fame in World War II with Jimmy Doolittle's raid in 1942 on Tokyo from the carrier USS Hornet.

The bomber is painted olive drab from nose to tail and has the old American five-pointed white star on its sides.

On the nose is the emblem of the "Doolittle Raiders," a crest emblazoned with "Toujours au Danger."

"That means 'Always in Danger,'" Johnson said. "And those guys always were."

Two years ago "Doolittle's Tokyo Raiders" held their 25th anniversary in the bay area, from where the Hornet set sail to launch its attack on the Japanese mainland.

"The plane really stole the show," Johnson said.

Good For Commercials

Johnson has modified the plane's radio system and made room in the fuselage for television cameras. Television production firms often hire the plane because of its slow flying speed and its steadiness.

"It's pretty good for filming airline commercials because we can keep up with some of the jets for a while," he said. The plane charters for $200 an hour but, Johnson added, "She's no money maker."

"Mainly, I just get a kick out of showing her off at air shows."

"I like to keep old planes alive," Johnson said in the hangar of his firm, Rep-Air, at the Oakland International Airport.

Nearby was his T35 the trainer version of the F80 "Shooting Star" which was the United States' first jet fighter. Johnson also has a World War II Meyers trainer, a biplane.

Taps are sounded in traditional fashion in cemeteries across the nation they will echo over the new graves of men who fell in strange-sounding places in Southeast Asian battlefields.

Most of the formal exercises here and elsewhere in Massachusetts will be conducted next Monday (May 26) in accordance with a State law created to make long weekends of the traditional Memorial Day, Washington's Birthday, and Patriots' Day holidays.

Veterans' organizations generally (and most of the formal observance in communities and towns are turned over to them) will turn out in force Monday. Some have gone along with the date reluctantly, and some spokesmen for these organizations have been sharp in their criticism of the date change — pointing out the fact that the Federal holiday still remains on the traditional May 30 date for 1969 and 1970.

FEDERAL CONFLICT

Federal employees generally will be working at open offices, Postoffices and other installations on Monday. They will observe May 30 as their holiday.

The anomaly created has proved somewhat unpopular among many people and at many cemeteries. For instance, the date reluctantly, and some spokesmen for these organizations have been sharp in their criticism of the date change — pointing out the fact that the Federal holiday still remains on the traditional May 30 date for 1969 and 1970.

FEDERAL CHANGES IN '71

However, in 1971 the Federal government will move into the Holiday-date changing picture of next week as well.

Contrary to popular belief, however, the May 30 date was not an original concept of only the northern States for honoring their war dead. Originally it was instituted in several of the Southern States as Memorial Day even before the Civil War had been brought to a conclusion.

The May 30 choice was adopted in the northern States in 1868 when Commander-in-Chief John A. Logan of the Grand Army of the Republic issued a general order. It called for the designation of that date in 1868, "for the purpose of strewing with flowers or otherwise decorating the graves of comrades who died in defense of their country during the late rebellion."

The date had no legal Northern significance until 1874, '76 and '77 when Rhode Island, Vermont and New Hampshire in that order made it a legal state holiday.

By the second half of the 20th century it was recognized in all states and territories except Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, South Carolina and Texas.

Memorial Day is the last of the holiday dates changed in Massachusetts for the year 1969. The remaining legal holidays on the calendar will be observed on their traditional dates.

Miss Cushman Is Fiancee Of Mr. Stengel

Mrs. Sylvia Cushman of Newton Highlands makes known the engagement of her daughter, Miss Carol Ruth Cushman to Richard Stengel. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Stengel of Brockton.

Under the guidance of the Auburndale Garden Club, as a civic service to their city, the troop assumed the responsibility of giving a spring cleaning to the center strip on Commonwealth Avenue opposite Lyons Park and Norumbega.

The Tribune Foundation

Plantings were weeded and trimmed and litter cleared away. Other Newton troops are cooperating with the various Newton Garden Clubs to get the entire strip through the city in "ship shape" for the season.

Mr. Stengel was graduated from Brockton High School and Norwich University, where his fraternity was Tau Delta Phi. He is associated with his father in both the liquor and real estate businesses. Mrs. Rose Rubin is his grandmother. (Photo by Boris of Boston).

Mr. Stengel, president of the Parents Association of the Music School, points out that children in the community deserve special thanks for their help. "It is very rewarding to have the wonderful cooperation of the young people of the community. Camp Fire Girls are contributing cookies to our fund raising sale and students from the Music School will help to man the tables on Bake Sale Day."

Joyful Reunion For War Orphan And GI Friend

By MYRAN BORDERS and WILLIAM A. STEPHENS

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — A balding World War III Army sergeant stepped off the train in the desert chill of the pre-dawn hours. Waiting for him was an attractive woman.

The reunion sealed a bond of devotion between an American GI and a little French orphan which began thousands of miles away in war-torn Europe a quarter of a century ago.

The former sergeant, William Bischof, now a 53-year-old Union Pacific Railroad electrician in Omaha, Neb., arrived in this neon-lighted city April 17 to keep a long-standing date with Paulette Reinhardt, whom he last saw in France in November, 1945, when she was six.

She was Paulette Feys then, an orphan in a land torn by war. He was a soldier who befriended her as American soldiers have befriended child victims of conflict through every war.

He could speak no French then, Paulette no English. But for her, the sergeant always had a bar of candy, an orange, a toy; for him, an admittedly lonely man, she had a smile and a child's devotion.

On a November day in 1945 Bischof said goodbye — he was returning to the United States. Paulette said the parting was "just like the end of the world for me." For Bischof, it was something he had to do. "I hated it, but I had no choice," he said.

The bond was broken — for awhile. There was an ocean and a continent between them. Paulette never ceased to hope, that she could see her sergeant again. In 1955, when she was 16, she came to this country to visit relatives.

She then began a search in earnest for the friendly man who always had some candy, some fruit, and a warm smile.

New England Aquarium To Open on June 20th

The opening of the New England Aquarium here has been set for Friday, June 20, as announced today by David B. Stone, president.

The spectacular six million dollar waterfront facility, located on Central Wharf, has been under construction since October, 1965. Mechanical problems connected with the circulation system for the Aquarium's unique 200,000 gallon giant ocean tank, have delayed completion for many months.

Stone said plans for the June 20 opening ceremonies include a parade and a nautical salute by ships in the harbor. Details will be announced shortly.

Geared to handle a thou-for her. The search wound through the government maze . . . the Army, the Defense Department, the Veterans Administration, and even the FBI. All was fruitless. Then a blind ad in a veterans publication brought results, an address.

Paulette, now married and living in Las Vegas, wrote letters. Bischof replied. There were telephone calls between Las Vegas and Omaha. Finally he came to Nevada's gambling and entertainment mecca, and stepped off the Union Pacific train into "the most joyful hug I ever got," he said.

The long search was over. "I was so nervous. I'm so glad, so glad," Paulette said. Bischof asked the petite blonde if she remembered the candy he used to bring her.

"I'll never forget it. Nothing has ever tasted as good since," she said in a soft French accent.

Paulette introduced her husband, William Reinhardt, an aircraft mechanic, and her 8-year-old son, Billy.

Bischof swept the boy into his arms and Paulette smiled.

"It's all happening again. It's just like it was then when he would pick me up."

Billy Reinhardt walked over to Bischof and said, "Thanks, my good friend. Thanks very much." Young Billy told the heavy-set, balding ex-soldier,

"Thank you for taking care of my mother."

During a long weekend in Las Vegas they reminisced and traced for the others the year when each was alone, not knowing of the other's whereabouts, or if he or she lived.

On the third level, Aquarium planners have laid out a "Cold Marine" Gallery featuring creatures of the New England waters and a giant octopus from the Pacific. Overhead is a life-size model of the Perry Cubmarine, a two man underwater research vessel. An unobstructed view of the entire span of Boston's historical waterfront can be seen from the Aquarium's third floor Harbor View Room. Thereafter, the few and only steps in the Aquarium lead to the Gallery surrounding the top of the central exhibit, the giant ocean tank. Three rear-screen projection systems will provide continuous descriptions and displays of New England seaports.

Surrounded by glass, 1 1/2 to 3 1/2 inches thick, the giant ocean tank is 40 feet in diameter and 23 feet deep making it the largest of its type in the world completely surrounded by glass. It will be inhabited by hundreds of fishes. On completion, divers will enter the tank daily to cater to bottom and center-feeding animals.

Aquarium visitors will be able to view the giant tank from virtually every depth and angle via a descending spiral ramp, which completely encircles this exhibit. Water is not now in the tank, but technicians have designed a system of powerful lights to accent the nose to nose confrontation between visitors and the huge exotic fish at this point.

Having descended around the giant tank, the final gallery to be seen displays a live otter exhibit and brilliantly colorful tropical marine fishes swimming amongst many variations of coral. Moray eels and loggerhead turtles are also in their own appropriately decorated tanks.

Throughout the building, graphic panels with scientific and educational displays serve as dividers between exhibits and groups of tanks. A 100-seat meeting room has been included for lectures and motion pictures as part of the Aquarium's continuous pro-

Parade

Starting at Washington and Crafts sts., the parade will proceed west on Washington st. to Walnut st.; south on Walnut st. to Commonwealth ave. and the War Memorial flag staff where the column will halt for the placing of wreaths and prayer by Msgr. John M. Quirk, of St. Bernard's Church, West Newton.

The parade will then move south on Walnut st. to Newton Cemetery where appropriate exercises will be held at the GAR monument and the veterans' lot.

Former Sen. Leverett Saltonstall will deliver an address in the exercises at the GAR monument while Mayor Monte G. Basbas will speak at the ceremonies at the veterans' lot.

Following the ceremonies, the parade column will move north on Walnut st. and west on Commonwealth ave. to City Hall, where the parade will pass in review and the Navy band will perform for Chief of Staff Saltonstall, Cheif Marshal Basbas, Adj. Gen. Bouchard and their staffs.

The City's observance of the day will actually start Sunday with the annual Veterans Memorial Church services at the Trinity Episcopal Church on Homer st., Newton Centre, at 10:30 a.m. The Rev. George O. Ekkwall will conduct the service.

On Monday, Newton officials, veterans organizations, civic leaders, civic and fraternal organizations and residents will participate in the parade. The order of march will include:

Newton Police Detail: William F. Quinn, Chief of Police, Sgt. Thomas Dargan, Drillmaster.

Chief of Staff, Honorable Leverett Saltonstall; Chief Marshal, Honorable Monte G. Basbas; Adjutant General, John E. Bouchard and Secretary, Jayne C. Driscoll.

Adjutants: Carleton P. Merrill, Francis L. Howley, J.

grams of research and education. A small Gift Shop has been located on the first floor where visitors may purchase souvenirs and replicas of marine animal and plant life in addition to books and literature on related subjects.

First announced in 1957, the multi-million dollar facility was the result of many years of planning by marine museum experts who traveled throughout the world gathering specimens for the huge exhibits.

Donald M. Dehart, executive director, said that most of the delay in the opening of the New England Aquarium was caused by failures in seawater piping systems circulating water to the giant tank. These difficulties are being corrected with the installation of fiber glass pipe. Dehart also said the new installation will not be completed in time to have the giant tank in operation for the June 20th opening.

Visitors will be given a "rain check" entitling them to free admission at a later date.

Participants in the seminar were Dr. James Dunning, Professor of Ecological Dentistry, Harvard School of Dental Medicine; Dr. Charles S. Bailes, Senior Dentist; Patricia Hannigan, Dental Hygienist; Judy Oxman, Dental Hygienist, and Judy Hazen, Dental Assistant, all from the Martha Eliot Health Center; Dr. Lester Block, Dental Director, and Alice Fuller, Dental Hygienist from the Brookline Health Department, and Peggy Sloan, Dental Hygienist, from the Forsyth Dental Center.

This Week's Best Buy

Courtesy of Massachusetts Department of Agriculture

Spinach, another newcomer among spring crops on Massachusetts farms is now on the market in enough quantity to make the list of "best buys" in native produce announced this week by the Massachusetts Department of Agriculture. Asparagus, chives, rhubarb, and scallions are other outdoor crops rated plentiful and economical this week.

Winter vegetables in good supply at low prices include parsnips and butternut squash. Native greenhouse cucumbers, tomatoes and watercress are in good supply and reasonably priced. Controlled atmosphere McIntosh, Cortland's, Red Delicious, Golden Delicious, Baldwin's, and Northern Spy's are in supply adequate for the demand, and reasonably priced this late in the season.

Medium eggs are an unusually good buy this week on egg counters, with extra large close behind for value. Chicken McIntosh makes tasty use of our native McIntosh apples and chicken:

Combine 2 cups diced leftover chicken and 2 cans (10-1/2 ozs. each) chicken gravy and heat. Combine 3 cups cooked buttered rice and 3/4 cup chopped peanuts. Pour chicken into 4 serving dishes. Add 1 cup cubed, unpeeled red apples. Serve with peanut rice. Serves 4.

LETTERS TO THE GRAPHIC

Commends Hawkridge

Editor, The Graphic:

Edwin Hawkridge, Acting Chairman of the May 12 School Committee meeting, should be commended for his well conducted meeting. He allowed the audience to ask questions and/or make statements relative to the subjects being discussed. Interested citizens attend the Committee Meetings and deserve the opportunity to speak before the body without a prior formal request.

I attended the April 26 meeting and was denied this privilege by Mr. Beckwith, the Chairman. The open meeting did prove successful May 12. In view of this experience, I sincerely hope that the school committee members will instruct Mr. Beckwith to follow Mr. Hawkridge's method of holding a meeting.

Leash Law a Failure

Editor, The Graphic:

The dog leash law is having an undesirable effect on the community. For the first time we are annoyed at the dogs barking all day long in the neighborhood. Yes, before we would hear them occasionally but not all day. This is probably due to their being tied up in their back yards.

For the first time our sidewalks are littered with filth deposited there by dogs on leashes walked by their owners. Our trash barrels, still remain in a mess, so obviously we cannot blame the dogs for that.

It seems to me that a better solution could be installed. That instead of leashing a dog and making him into a vicious animal, why not introduce a muzzle law. This will insure us that our children as well as ourselves will be guaranteed a "no-biting" era.

Producer Guy Lombardo will present their "South Pacific" in the open air, wateride amphitheater at Jones Beach, Long Island, for the second straight year.

The first musical turned out by the pair, "Oklahoma!" will be revived as the attraction for the annual summer season at the State Theater in Lincoln Center.

"South Pacific" will have opera star Jerome Hines back as the leading man. There will be a new Nellie Forbush in Nancy Dussault, who has been in several Broadway shows. Veteran comedian Jerry

When good is being fostered by the teenagers little praise and support is in evidence; but if one should perhaps go astray then we would hear the condemnation of the entire group.

The only lack of interest and support can be shown on some of our good parents as

She is shown with Paul Benzacquin, WEEI radio personality. Mrs. Vachon was the radio station's guest at Stouffer's Top of the Hub Restaurant in Boston. She is employed by Raytheon of Waltham.

Lester will be playing Luther for the first time.

Lombardo will open his attraction July 2 for a run through Labor Day. Last summer's "South Pacific" engagement was a highly successful one, prompting the producer to believe that there are still enough potential customers to make an encore worthwhile.

The "Oklahoma!" engagement will be from June 23 to Sept. 3. Casting is now in progress. Costume designer Miles White and musical director Jay Blackton will be serving this production as they did the original one, which opened on Broadway, March 3, 1943 and rang up 2,212 performances in slightly over five years.

It is unlikely that any show has had such a saturation of reproduction in a comparatively short period. There have been 1,535 productions in the United States alone, involving every state. There have been 120 productions in more than 40 countries.

ABM Cost, Performance Attacked By Opponents

On Tuesday, May 13, approximately 125 citizens of Newton met at War Memorial Hall in Newton Centre to indicate unanimously that they wish the Newton Board of Aldermen to support a resolution opposing construction and deployment of the controversial ABM system.

City Clerk James H. Karrin began the meeting by explaining how citizens organize such a meeting. Fifty citizens can petition for a meeting to make their views known to 21 public officials. One hundred fifty signers endorsed the petition requesting the meeting to discuss the anti-ballistic missile system. Present at the meeting were Aldermen William H. Wolf, Adelaide Ball, Joseph M. McDonnell, Robert Tennant, Sidney J. Small, Matthew Jefferson, and H. James Shea, Jr. The Reverend Harold Fray was elected president of the meeting and Dr. Harry H. Crosby appointed clerk.

Former State Rep. Joseph Bradley, the first speaker, hit at one of the main issues of the evening, whether city officials should concern themselves with a national problem. Bradley argued that citizens at all levels should oppose the arms race to avoid our getting into another Vietnam. He pointed out that a six billion dollar ABM expenditure would unavoidably take tax money that could be better spent in Newton.

The 17 subsequent speakers, many of them representing local civic groups, stressed and restressed that the ABM is supported by almost no scientists, that all tests of it have failed, that it defends only a small portion of America's second strike force, that the $6 billion estimated cost, itself fantastic for so dubious a weapon, was only a small portion of the likely total expense. Several of the speakers pointed out that the United States should be spending its money and effort on disarmament, thus avoiding a military-expansionist posture instead of accelerating the arms race.

For two hours speakers reviewed the arguments against the Sentinel and safeguard systems. Not one speaker spoke in their defense.

Speakers included Michael Brower, for Americans for Democratic Action; Hilda Schwartz for Voice of Women; Eloise Houghton for Church Women United; Nels Nordberg, State Rep. from Reading; David Stein, a student from Newton South High School; Henry Shor, past president of the Newton PTA Council; Saul Baker, American Jewish Congress; Arthur Obermayer, Newton Coalition for New Politics; MIT Prof. Victor Tepitz, Union of Concerned Scientists; Kay Stein, Newton Coalition for New Politics; State Rep. Irving Fishman; Wigmore Pearson; Alvin Glazerman, Fair Housing and Equal Rights Herbert Weiss, Business Executive Committee Against the War; Jerome Grossman, Massachusetts Political Action for Peace; Constance G. Kantar, Newton City Democratic Committee; and State Rep. H. James Shea, Jr.

When Pearson spoke against the ABM he mentioned his belief that the meeting and the resolution were initiated "not exclusively for noble purposes," a reference to the fact that the resolution was introduced by Aldermen Shea, McDonnell, Jefferson, Small, and Magni, who frequently vote as a bloc against the mayor and the rest of the aldermen.

Most of the speakers introduced resolutions and position papers provided at earlier meetings by their own organizations. Only one speaker identified himself as an "opposition" voice. However, the speaker, Fred Manning, a student at Murray Road school, announced that he did not oppose the resolution against the ABM; he opposed all the citizens of Newton who stayed at home and did not attend the meeting to express their distress about the war, the arms race, and the ABM.

At 10 o'clock, the audience still remaining voted 89 to 0 to request that the Board of Aldermen immediately pass a resolution opposing the development of an ABM system and encouraging the federal government to make available to states and municipalities the funds which would have been expended on an ABM weapons system.

Detailed copies of the deliberations during the meeting are being prepared and will soon be available for anyone who phones either Mr. Fray, 969-8367, or Mr. Crosby.

During the business segment of the gathering, the following officers were elected to serve the 1969-1970 season.

President, Mrs. Esther Prinz, Needham; 1st V. Pres., Mrs. Charlotte Lockwood; 2nd Vic. Pres., Mrs. George W. Palmer III, Newton Highlands; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Marguerite Daly, Joe Louis defended his world heavyweight title more than any other heavyweight — 25 times.

AT EAGLE COURT OF HONOR—Shown at recent Eagle Court of Honor held at Temple Emanuel, are seated, l. to r., Russell Cole and Justin Cole, Post 217; Charles Goldberg and Jonathan Bell, Troop 225; standing, Scoutmaster Bernard Cole, Troop 218, and Mrs. Cole; Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Goldberg, and Rabbi and Mrs. Bell. Eagles were awarded to Russell and Justin Cole and Jonathan Bell and Eagle Palms were awarded to Justin Cole and Charles Goldberg. Marvin Berkowitz was chairman of the program.

Lee Loumos
Says:

I am sure you have all heard of the latest Supreme Court ruling regarding Dr. Leary and marijuana, but I wonder how many share my views about self-incrimination. I naturally believe that anyone whose guilt or innocence is in question should not be forced to incriminate himself, but I have a different view of the matter, when the law is specific as it is on trafficking in drugs or in gambling, and a person who is required to get a permit or a stamp and voluntarily does so is announcing in advance, and deliberately, his intent to break a law. In a similar vein, I am beginning to question the old concept that it is better to let 100 guilty go free than to convict one innocent person. If capital punishment is abolished a convicted person would have other opportunities to prove his innocence, but what of the harm done to the victims of those guilty ones left free with many of them repeating their criminal activity?

Dr. Pearson To Get Degree At Curry College

Dr. Roy M. Pearson, President of Andover Newton Theological Theological School, and former U.S. Sen. Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts will receive honorary degrees at the Annual Commencement Exercises of Curry College on Sunday, June 1 at 11 a.m. on the Academic Quadrangle.

Dr. Pearson will deliver the Commencement Address to some 170 graduates and more than 1300 guests. This year's class is the largest in the history of the College and nearly 50 per cent larger than the class of 1968.

President John S. Hafer, who announced the honorary degrees recipients, will present the honorary Doctor of the Science of Oratory degrees to Dr. Pearson and Senator Saltonstall.

Principal speaker at the annual Baccalaureate Service, conducted at 9:30 this morning, will be Rabbi Jerome Weisrop of Temple Shalom in Milton.

Considered one of the country's outstanding theological educators and preachers, Dr. Pearson has been President of Andover Newton Theological School since 1965 after serving as Dean of the institution for 11 years.

A native of Somerville, he was educated at Harvard University and Andover Newton Theological School. He holds honorary degrees from Amherst College, Emerson College, and Colby College.

Dr. Pearson, who has also been Bartlett Professor of Sacred Rhetoric at Andover Newton since 1954, has written a number of works, the most recent being "The Believer's Unbelief."

Mr. Saltonstall has had a long and illustrious political career.

Holder of 28 honorary degrees, he began his career in politics in 1920 when he was elected to the Board of Aldermen of the City of Newton.

In 1939, he was elected Governor of Massachusetts, serving in that office until 1944 when he was elected to the U.S. Senate. He served in the Senate for the next 23 years before his retirement in 1967.

The citation reads in part, "This outstanding achievement in furthering your education is indicative of the hard work and conscientious effort you put forth during this course of instruction and reflects great credit upon yourself and the United States Navy and Marine Corps team."

Newton Conservators Seek Local Flood Plain Zoning

Acting on advice of the Conservators' annual meeting, Mrs. Julia Broderick O'Brien, MAPC consultant, recommended local flood plain zoning as one of many ways to save open space and at the same time to cut expenditures for flood control structures and for flood damages.

The Hatch Act (1965) and the Inland Wetlands Act of 1968 are a help, said Mrs. O'Brien, but MAPC and the New England Division of the Corps of Engineers are urging that these state laws be supplemented by local zoning to regulate building on lands which are seasonally or periodically flooded.

Mrs. O'Brien showed slides of houses in Dedham surrounded by the Charles River in 1968. Newton had its share of flooded basements that year, too.

Pictures of the 1968 flood on the lower level of the Riverside MDC Reservation were shown by Mrs. O'Brien to illustrate why MAPC planners have designed only a boat storage and launching facility to withstand flooding along the river south of the railroad viaduct near the site of the former MDC swimming pool. Indoor tennis courts are planned for the higher ground in Weston to be reached from Newton via a new Charles Street bridge.

Another MAPC open space recommendation for Newton was the purchase of portions of the Webster and MacPherson estates which include a wetland equal in size to twenty-two acre Hammond Pond nearby.

Mrs. O'Brien says MAPC wants the bed and banks of the fourteen - mile Newton share of the Charles River to be protected by public ownership or easement control. Ten miles of shoreline in Newton are already in this category and the rest should be, she says.

Regarding the river banks at former Norumbega Park, Mrs. O'Brien says that "wherever possible the bank acquisition should extend to the crest of the inland ridges or other appropriate topographical boundaries."

She cites the Marriott gift of its northerly river frontage at Norumbega to the Metropolitan District Commission and the Norumbega Trustees' grant of perpetual easement to the MDC of their sloping westerly river frontage as good beginning toward implementation of the MAPC recommendations for "this lake-like section of the Charles" which "must be carefully protected and developed for general recreational activities."

"Cutler Park" - over 800 acres of MDC reservation across the river from Newton should be conserved as a natural area for flood protection. "low flow who was introduced by study", says Mrs. O'Brien who was introduced by Alderman Franklin N. Flaschner, a Conservator Board member and president of MAPC.

Local GOP Speakers Laud Action For Conservation

The City of Newton received high praise for taking a major step in conservation when it acquired the wooded area adjacent to Hammond Pond Parkway according to speakers at the Ward Six Republican meeting. The well attended meeting took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Smerling of Priscilla Road.

Alderman William Lane Bruce and Conservation Commission member Michael Lipof both commended the acquisition and explained the city's long range program for its preservation on its natural state for the benefit of the entire community.

The city took title to the land with the assistance of Federal grants and the Newton Conservation Commission in its resolution of June 24, 1968, acted to safeguard its natural beauty.

In noting the transaction, both speakers paid tribute to the public spirit of members of the Webster family in conveying the area to the City at a fraction of its commercial value.

Alderman Bruce explained the current litigation in which Newton seeks to prevent and Mrs. Abbott Spear, Mr. encroachment on the area by and Mrs. Eliot Stone and Mrs. the Massachusetts School of Arthur J. Taylor.

4 Petitions On Zoning Approved By Aldermen

Four petitions involving permissive zoning use or non-conforming use were approved by the Newton Board of Aldermen on Monday night and two matters were held for further consideration.

Approved was a petition for the use of premises at 860 Beacon St., Newton Centre, by the Religious of the Sacred Heart, Washington House of Studies, Inc. The group will establish a dormitory on the 13,230 square feet of property.

Lassell Junior College was also granted permission for a dormitory for 18 girls at 15 Vista Ave., Auburndale. The structure will be built of cast stone and wood frame.

Also approved was a petition by Werner A. Cumpert, 47 Orchard Ave., for permission to enlarge his home by two rooms and a porch.

Bonded Oil Co.'s petition was approved for permission to erect a free standing stationary sign on a service station at 11 Elm St., West Newton.

A controversial petition by Mariotti Motor Hotels, Inc., for permission to erect a large identifying sign was held.

Land Use Committee Chairman Franklin N. Flaschner explained that the Marriott Corp. is redesigning a wall sign on an elevator shaft in smaller proportions than originally proposed. Action will be deferred on the matter until a new petition is submitted for the redesigned sign.

At a recent public hearing strong neighborhood opposition to the proposed sign was brought out.

Also held was another controversial petition, that of C. Joseph Pasquarose for extension of a non-conforming sign. Bruce pointed up the need to safeguard the watershed essential for preservation of the woodlands now owned by Newton. This watershed would be destroyed by conversion to a college campus if the College succeeds in its attempt.

Members of the Ward Six Republican Committee voted to send a representative of the group to the dinner being given the Republican National Chairman June 5 under the sponsorship of the Massachusetts Republican State Committee.

State Committeewoman Mrs. William L. Bruce gave a brief report on State Committee activities, announcing the election of Atty. Richard Maestrao as its new Executive Secretary.

U.S. COMMAND SAYS FORCES LEFT ON HILL COULD BALK REDS

U.S. HEADQUARTERS in Saigon said Wednesday a "substantial" force of American troops remaining on Hamburger Hill could defeat any attempt by Communist troops to reoccupy the controversial peak. Meanwhile, new fighting erupted nearby in the A Shau Valley. Withdrawal of a battalion-sized force of about 600 men of the 101st Airborne Division came on the eve of a Viet Cong-proclaimed 48-hour cease-fire in observance of the birthday of Buddha, a major religious holiday in Vietnam. The partial withdrawal of American troops from Hamburger Hill revived debate over the value of throwing U.S. forces into battle for an objective that is subsequently given up as was the case in the fight for Hill 875 in the Central Highlands in 1967 and the action around Khe Sanh a year ago.

ROCKEFELLER BEGINS TALKS WITH COLOMBIAN OFFICIALS

N.Y. GOV. Nelson A. Rockefeller and his aides began talks Wednesday with Colombian officials in Bogota to open their second fact-finding tour of Latin America. The widespread students' unrest that greeted Rockefeller's arrival in Bogota dissipated to a large extent overnight. Police reported about 20 persons injured and 30 arrested in outbreaks Tuesday in the cities of Bogota, Barranquilla, Cali and Monteria.

SPACE AGENCY RELEASES DRAMATIC FILM TAKEN BY APOLLO 10

THE SPACE AGENCY in Houston Wednesday released 105 feet of color motion picture film taken by Apollo 10, some of it less than 10 miles above the moon. A space geologist said the film showed nothing that would interfere with a July lunar landing. Some of the movies were underexposed, but geologist John Dietrich said many shots were "new and exciting." Astronauts Thomas P. Stafford, John W. Young and Eugene A. Cernan brought back to earth hundreds of photographs in color and black and white, stills and motion pictures. Some of them were in stereo, giving a three-dimensional effect. These pictures will form the maps Apollo 11's moon team follow to a July touchdown on the arid lunar surface. The color films included an hilarious view of Young shaving with a safety razor in the moonship, and eight still photographs, including two in color.

LOS ANGELES VOTERS RETURN MAYOR YORTY TO CITY HALL

UNHAPPY with urban and campus rebellion, a record turnout of Los Angeles voters gave Mayor Sam Yorty another four-year lease on City Hall Wednesday as his Negro challenger in Tuesday's municipal election conceded defeat. The loser, City Councilman Thomas Bradley, 51, blamed his upset defeat on the racial overtones of Yorty's campaign. "I thought the principal factor in my defeat was the blatant appeal to racial fear and prejudice, sometimes unspoken, but fanned by the Yorty camp," Bradley said in conceding defeat. With virtually all votes counted, unofficial results gave Yorty 447,030 votes or 53.25 per cent of the total to Bradley's 392,379 or 46.75 per cent. About 80 per cent of the City's 1,127,224 registered voters turned out for the election.

NIXON DISCUSSES PROBLEM OF STUDENT DISORDERS WITH AIDES

PRESIDENT NIXON on Wednesday discussed the problem of student disorders with his senior staff aides and a group of Republican Congressmen who have been touring some of the nation's more restless campuses. The meeting lasted 75 minutes and was described by the White House as an initial conference to be followed by additional reports from the Congressional group to the chief executive. The conference was held as the President prepared to leave late Wednesday for a long weekend at Key Biscayne, Fla., where he will work on two speeches which he will deliver on college campuses next week prior to his Midway Island meeting with President Nguyen Van Thieu of South Vietnam June 8.

SAFETY COUNCIL SAYS THOUSANDS CONDEMNED BY SOLONS

THOUSANDS of persons are being condemned to death on highways by failure of the nation's lawmakers to carry through on the 1966 Highway Safety Act, according to the president of the National Safety Council, Howard Pyle. "The job simply is not being done in traffic safety," Pyle told a House public works subcommittee. As a result, men, women and children by the thousands are being literally condemned to avoidable death and injury on our public roads on a scale that is unforgivable," Pyle said cuts by Congress in funds to administer the act left safety officials with "the naeging impression that perhaps the Congress was not really serious about traffic safety, after all."

CONGRESSMEN BEGIN TAX FINANCED JUNKET TO PARIS AIR SHOW

THE FIRST of 59 members and 20 of their aides began leaving Washington for Paris Wednesday on a junket financed with tax dollars. Each day they are gone on the trip to the Paris International Air Show, each member of the party will be authorized $50 in government funds for living expenses. Although some began leaving via commercial airlines Wednesday, their fares paid for by the Treasury, the main group is scheduled to leave aboard a military version of the Boeing 707 jet Saturday and return on the same plane seven days later. Sources involved in making arrangements for the junket said "from six to 10" wives also would make the trip, all traveling at their own expense aboard commercial flights. Most of the lawmakers and their staff members who signed up for the junket serve on one of three committees: Armed Services, Commerce and Science and Astronautics. Two or three, the source said, were members of the House Foreign Affairs Committee. The show also will be attended by Transportation Secretary Paris in a Coast Guard plane. The Coast Guard and the Fed. John A. Volpe and two of his assistants who will fly to the Federal Aviation Administration, both part of Volpe's department, will have exhibits in the show. Interest among senators in attending the show appeared negligible.

NIXON ASKS $2.58 BILLION FOR FOREIGN AID IN FISCAL YEAR

PRESIDENT NIXON proposed Wednesday spending $2.58 billion on foreign aid in the next fiscal year, the smallest presidential request in the history of the program, but still more than Congress appropriated last year. The Nixon request encountered the coolness on Capitol Hill which usually greets foreign aid spending proposals. Nixon proposed some innovations. One would create a "audit-for-general" in the Agency for International Development (AID) to root out corruption and waste. Another would create an Overseas Private Investment Corp. (OPIC) to get private industry more involved in doing business in developing nations.

DONAHUE ACCUSES SARGENT OF CRIPPLING STADIUM'S CHANCES

SENATE President Maurice A. Donahue Wednesday criticized Gov. Francis W. Sargent and Mayor Kevin H. White for "playing a little game" which may cripple the chances for a sports stadium for Boston. The Holyoke Democrat made the comment in a question and answer session at a Rotary luncheon. He said he felt "the prospects are nil" for passage of legislation favorable to the stadium. Donahue pegged the sagging stadium chances on the failure of the mayor and governor to agree on a site for the stadium. He said he felt they were "playing a little game" which would mean the death of the stadium proposal.

ment of Mr. Fink was made after a year-long search, during which many candidates were interviewed, including those within the city as well as others outside the city and state and throughout the nation.

"We announce this appointment with every confidence that Aaron Fink will bring strong and imaginative leadership, with fresh perspectives, to the Newton schools," Chairman Beckwith declared.

"He has resources of intellect, experience and conviction to bring to a task of great and demanding complexity," Beckwith asserted.

"His long and uninterrupted association with students during the past sixteen years, together with his intimate knowledge of secondary school education, offers further advantages of special significance today," Beckwith said.

"The School Committee would also like to express its profound gratitude to Dr. James Laurits for the quality of his service to the schools as Acting Superintendent during the past year.

"We are indebted to him for gifts of mind and character alike which brought dignity and informed judgment to an uncommonly difficult assignment.

"Neither the press of time nor the perplexities of office have yielded any pause to the demands for decision which his duties as Acting Superintendent put upon him. We are glad to say that Dr. Laurits will assume his position as Assistant Superintendent for Personnel on Aug. 1," Chairman Beckwith concluded.

City, Religious Leaders Honor Rev. Eddie O'Neal

More than 250 persons attended a testimonial reception at Lasell Junior College last Sunday in honor of the Rev. Eddie O'Neal, pastor of the Myrtle Baptist Church in West Newton.

He is leaving his post of three years to become pastor of the Clinton Baptist Church in Trenton, N.J.

City, religious and civic leaders joined with friends and church members at the testimonial honoring the pastor of Newton's only all black church.

Among those present were Newton Mayor Monte G. Basbas; Dean George Peck of Andover Newton Theological School, where Mr. O'Neal studied; the Rev. George Thomas of the Massachusetts Council of Churches; Dr. Henry C. Brooks, an assistant professor at Andover Newton; the Rev. Louis E. Ford, pastor emeritus of Myrtle Baptist Church, and Dr. Wallace Forge.

The Myrtle Baptist Gospel Chorus, directed by Samuel Turner, sang testimonial songs. The Senior and Junior Choirs, directed by Miss Geraldine Robert, sang several of their pastor's favorite hymns.

Mr. O'Neal, his wife, Onita, daughters Valerie and Nancy, and son Michael, were presented with gifts, including a souvenir book and a proclamation which was handed over by Kenneth Garret of Framingham, a 15-year-old member of the church.

Members of the testimonial committee included: Mrs. Lillie B. Jefferson, chairman, Mrs. Ruth Turner, Mrs. Dolores Houston, Mrs. Elizabeth Nichols, Mrs. Ada Fontes, Mrs. Stella Wellman, James Spikes, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haywood, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Haywood, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Gilbert.

Myrtle Baptist Church was founded in 1874. In 1956 some of the land near it was taken for the Massachusetts Turnpike and many black families were forced to move.

Flames Drive Family From Their Home

A family of five were left homeless last Friday when flames gutted the three story house of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Segel, 133 Beaumont ave., Newtonville.

The blaze began in the attic and burned through the roof and gutted the second story of the single-family home. There was heavy smoke and water damage throughout the rest of the house.

Mrs. Shirley Segel and her two sons fled the dwelling when the fire broke out. Mr. Segel, a manufacturers representative, was away on business. The couple also has a daughter, a student at the University of Washington.

Lock Your Car

Automobiles are stolen at an alarming and shocking rate in every city and town in Massachusetts. They are taken by professional car thieves and by teen-agers seeking a thrill.

The cars are stolen from shopping centers, from in front of the homes of their owners, even from driveways and garages.

Apart from the inconvenience and losses suffered by the owners of the stolen automobiles, many of the thefts end in tragedy.

Teen-age youths apprehended by police in stolen cars get criminal records which they will take through life.

Police chases of such automobiles can end in crashes, injuries — even deaths.

There is no way the theft of automobiles can be stopped altogether. Cars always will be stolen, although hopefully not at the present-day rate.

However, automobile owners do have a responsibility to make it as difficult as possible to steal their cars.

Far too many people leave their automobiles unlocked when they go into a store to shop. It saves the time and trouble of fishing in their pockets for their car keys when they come out with their bundles.

It also makes it much easier to steal their automobiles.

Then there are a somewhat smaller number of car-owners who not only leave their vehicles unlocked but the keys in the ignition switch. This is tantamount to an invitation to a car thief to step in and drive away. And the invitation is often accepted.

Finally, there is the driver who pulls up in front of a store to get a quart of milk. He leaves the car unlocked, the keys in the switch and the motor running.

He is surprised that the car is missing when he returns a few minutes later and denounces the poor police protection we get.

As an automobile owner and operator you have a responsibility to take the keys out of the ignition switch and to lock the car even if you're parking it in front of your own front door.

In fact, it's a good idea to do that even if you're leaving your car in your driveway or garage.

You're asking for trouble if you leave your automobile unlocked in a shopping center parking lot.

Car thieves may be watching for the motorist who does that.

Let's Get In Step

A totally ridiculous situation existed this week when Massachusetts celebrated Memorial Day on Monday while the rest of the nation will observe it on Friday.

Most Massachusetts residents had Monday off. Sunday laws were in effect. Most business establishments were closed down. But federal employees had to work on Monday. Their holiday will come on Friday.

The reason for this preposterous situation is that our State Legislature jumped the gun in enacting a law providing that Memorial Day be observed on the fourth Monday in May.

This law will become effective in the other 49 States in 1971.

That means we will have the same weird arrangement next year unless we change our law.

What the Massachusetts Legislature obviously should do is to suspend our new Memorial Day law for 1970 and let it become effective in 1971.

Let's get back in step with the rest of the nation.

Let's Not Disappoint Them

There are 5288 students who have been accepted as degree candidates in classes beginning in September, 1969, at 27 state-supported colleges and universities throughout Massachusetts who may be doomed to bitter disappointment.

The reason is that the education budget request of $123,711,802 was cut by Gov. Sargent to $91,822,965 and that was further reduced by the House to $88,765,673. The budget is now in the Senate Ways and Means committee waiting action of the Senate.

The main hope of the students, most of whom have attended "orientation day" at the colleges of their choice, therefore, seems to lie with the Senate. If the governor's budget cuts are retained by the Senate, there will be funds for only 1485 of the new students. If the House cuts are upheld, not only will all the new students be left without financial support, but it has been estimated that there would be no funds for 774 of the young people presently enrolled and who have already completed part of their education.

We know that all of our Senators are vitally concerned with the education of our young people and that they will consider the budget appropriation for education very carefully.

Senate President Maurice A. Donahue and Sen. Kevin B. Harrington have, in the past, fought to enrich the educational system in the Bay State, and there is nothing they have said or done recently which would indicate they have changed in their attitude.

It is to be hoped that they will lead the fight to restore enough money to the budget so that the 5388 students who are graduating from high school within the next couple of weeks and who are eagerly looking forward to attending a state college in the fall, will not be involuntary "drop-outs" before they have had the chance to "drop-in."

We are sure there are other areas in the budget where cuts could be made which would not have such a damaging effect on the morale of so many of the Commonwealth's bright young people—the Commonwealth's hope for the future.

By Any Measuring Stick

Of the many pamphlets issued by the Government Printing Office one of the most interesting is entitled "The Changing Strategic Naval Balance: U.S.S.R. vs. U.S.A." which was printed for the use of the House Committee on Armed Services.

It contains information of a nature that should chill the blood of any concerned thinking citizen of our country. This pamphlet is nothing more or less than a factual report on declining U.S. maritime and naval strength in contrast to the soaring strength of Russia.

The pamphlet states: "For the first time in its history, the Soviet Union is developing an offensive maritime strategy and is seeking supremacy at sea. The naval forces now being created by the Soviet Union and the use of sea power now being made by the U.S.S.R. are part of the overall design of total vic-

In Vietnam, submerged in the land that destroyed the hope and joy of the sixties — and on no side, for there are no sides, and one doesn't choose them — but he chooses not to inflict suffering on either side.

Everyone in the U.S. wants peace.

But it's not enough to condemn U.S. bombing and military tactics alone. Were were the cries of outrage and protest against the indiscriminate rocketing of civilian areas by the Viet Cong?

It's not enough to say that if the Americans weren't here, they wouldn't do it. They would do it because they're fighting a revolution. They are not rocketing the corrupt, war-enterprising segment of Vietnamese society. They are rocketing women and children, and I can show you an outpatient clinic in my area filled with burned children, the innocent sufferers who have taken us sides.

Is it too much effort to condemn both sides or is it a selfish motive to remain silent for fear of being called a humanist?

Sarge Probably Lost Votes
By Standing Firm On Beano

Governor Sargent may have earned additional respect when he vetoed the bill which would have revived beano, but his probably lost votes.

This was another instance of a Governor chipping away at his own popularity as he tried to do the right thing.

What public feeling there was on the beano issue favored the revival of the game which was so popular back in the 1930's and early 1940's.

Few people now remember the scandal which had developed before the then Governor Leverett Saltonstall in 1943 signed into law a bill which outlawed beano.

Only the older citizens in Malden recall that racketeers operating beano games in that city had virtually assumed control of its municipal government when beano was banned.

These, of course, were the considerations which prompted Governor Sargent to kill the bill which would have brought back beano.

Supporters of the measure, who sharply criticized Mr. Sargent's action, expressed the conviction that beano could be controlled this time, as it wasn't controlled 30 years ago and that it would be a source of revenue for charitable organizations, including churches.

Some organizations, especially veteran posts, were getting ready to seek permits for the operation of beano games when the Governor announced his veto.

One of the troubles a generation ago was that the members of veteran posts and other non-profit organizations did not want to do the work involved in running beano games.

So they allowed professional operators to conduct the games for them, and they accepted a weekly or monthly payment which actually represented a small percentage of the profits.

At the time the unsuspecting charitable organizations were serving as fronts for racketeers.

It was the fear that this could happen again which caused Governor Sargent to keep beano officially illegal in Massachusetts.

So the little old ladies who ride buses up into New Hampshire or down into Rhode Island in order to play a harmless game of beano will be obliged to continue doing so for at least another year.

Either that or attend one of the games held quiet in the Bay State in disregard of the law.

Legislature Should Restore Funds for Higher Education

Unless the State Senate restores budget cuts made by Governor Sargent and the House of Representatives in educational appropriations, several thousand deserving Massachusetts boys and girls may be denied the privilege of enrolling in college next September.

So say educational experts after studying the budget now awaiting action by the Senate.

A total of $123,711,802 originally was requested for the operation of the 29 state colleges and universities in Massachusetts during the next fiscal year.

Governor Sargent reduced that sum to $91,822,965, and the House put another dent in it, cutting it down to $88,765,673.

Educational experts assert that is not adequate to finance the expanded program of higher education planned for next September.

They insist that they're not crying wolf and that unless the appropriations are increased it will be necessary to turn away some students already accepted for enrollment in September.

It would seem that the public reaction against the demonstrations in universities and colleges is at least partly responsible for the budget reductions.

That reaction is understandable but entirely wrong.

This writer has been as vigorous as anyone in de-

Editor of The Graphic:

The Chairman of the Council on Drugs of the AMA, speaking as an individual, has publicly declared that brand names for drugs "should be abolished" and that "the public's best interest will not be served until this is done" since "they (the brand names) serve no constructive purpose." He termed arguments for brand-name prescribing "laughable" and "puerile." (Nelson Committee Hearings, May 20, 1969).

The medical profession has had two years, from May, 1967 to May, 1969, to clean house: to take up generic prescribing and rid itself of unhealthy financial ties to the drug industry but has failed to act. On the contrary, medical spokesmen even here in Massachusetts which has a larger share of enlightened doctors than any other state, have gone before the legislature and argued against the progressive and highly desirable Serrin Bill which would require doctors to write at least the generic name for a drug product on every prescription.

Last week the President of the AMA personally told me that "doctors should be free to prescribe as they wish," but overlooked that since each doctor is subject to at least $3000 worth of brand-name brain-wash per year, each is likely to be a captive of the drug industry. By definition, a captive is not free. The patent attempt by the Massachusetts Senate to kill the Serrin Bill by amending it and sending it to a committee for further consideration is irresponsible. Hitherto I have refrained from taking public sides on this issue because my natural inclination has been to favor voluntary over legislated change. George Washington would have recognized that I might have been naive. In a letter to John Jay in August, 1786, he wrote, "experience has taught us that men will not adopt and carry into execution measures the best calculated for their own good without intervention of a coercive power." Even today I would prefer that he had substituted "regulation where necessary" for "coercive power."

Taking courage from stated views of the present Chairman of the AMA's Council on Drugs and of ex-President George Washington, I go on record as supporting passage of the Serrin Bill in the form it had when unanimously passed by the lower House and I strongly suggest that individuals and consumer groups follow suit.

In addition to the resolution, I pointed out that public education is the basic foundation on which Democracy is built. My resolution was passed by unanimous vote of the School Committee. Unfortunately it did not receive much newspaper coverage so Betsy Goldman did not learn that the Newton School Committee was still solidly in support of education at all levels of the spectrum.

Miss Goldman's plea for support for public higher education should not go unheard. I wholeheartedly endorse her request that we all write to our State Representatives in support of the restoration of funds to the budget for higher education.

Sincerely,
Richard Burack, M.D.

Saltonstall Raps Campus Dissidents

Former Sen. Leverett Saltonstall called on the nation to strengthen itself against college dissidents as he spoke on Memorial Day at exercises honoring the dead of all wars.

It was the 44th time the sprightly 77-year-old former Senator marched and participated in Newton's Memorial Day parade.

Taking note of the altered date in Massachusetts for the Memorial Day observance, Saltonstall said, "Let us hope that in altering the day we do not lessen our gratitude to those whose courage and loyalty we commemorate."

He also noted the great turmoil on the college campuses and said the rioters are blocking "the educational opportunities of a great majority of their fellow citizens."

"It is for us — the law-abiding citizens — on this day when we come together to pay our tributes to our fallen comrades to live up to our responsibilities to advance the opportunities for our youth and to strengthen our country and its future," he said.

He called upon the law-abiding, too, to remain strong in the face of "the misdeeds of the few" in order to give youth the "future they deserve."

"So while we remember our past and think of our future all of us can stiffen our backs and resolve that these dissidents in our schools and colleges shall not weaken or destroy the country that we have built and loved."

Smith Homestead Land To Be Preserved Here

On May 3, the second incendiary fire within a year burnt the remains of one of Newton's historic landmarks, the Samuel Francis Smith Homestead in Newton Centre.

Its loss left a physical, as well as an historical, void in Newton.

Those citizens who have been most closely concerned with the Homestead are determined to heal the scar left by the fires.

The 133-year-old house was the home of the Rev. Samuel Francis Smith, author of the words of the hymn "America," better known as "My Country, 'Tis of Thee," for the last fifty years of his life.

Eleven years ago, a group of patriotic citizens, hoping to preserve the house as a shrine, formed the Samuel Francis Smith Homestead Society, Inc., a private, non-profit voluntary organization.

Last July 3, the house, at 181 Centre St., was partially destroyed by an incendiary fire. Since then, unsuccessful efforts have been made to secure sufficient funds to reconstruct the building.

At a meeting on May 22, after the second fire, the Board of Directors of the Society voted unanimously that the land be retained by the Society with the intention of landscaping and maintaining it as a "green spot" and as a continuing memorial to the man and the spirit of his poem.

The officers attending were Walter J. Kreske, President, Mrs. Parker F. Pond, Vice-President, Mrs. Worthing L. West, Treasurer, Miss Florence M. Alexander, Recording Secretary, and Wheaton Wilbar, Corresponding Secretary.

Directors present were Richard W. Douglas, Capt. and Mrs. Harold R. Keller, William A. Lincoln, Mrs. Donald M. Nash, Harry L. Walen, and Arthur C. Walworth, Jr.

A committee headed by Mrs. West was assigned to study the feasibility of financing such a memorial with present funds and future contributions from interested citizens.

The retention of this green area would maintain its harmony with the immediate adjoining park and recreation areas owned by the city and state. (M.D.C.)

The Society believes that this plan, honoring Dr. Smith who wrote of our country's "woods and templed hills," will find a sympathetic and generous response.

Those citizens of the Garden City who feel a sense of loss and indignation at the wanton destruction of this landmark are urged to join with the Society in preserving this memorial to Samuel Francis Smith. Their support will be warmly welcomed.

When you want to make small windows appear larger — or mismatched ones look alike — frame them with lambrequins of plywood or hardboard. Cover with a fabric to match or contrast with draperies, a self-adhesive paper, or regular wallpaper. You can finish edges with braid, gimp, tassels or fringe. For a coordinated look, trim the shade and perhaps a dressing table with matching border. Makes for a very attractive room, adding both size and character.

Newton High School Alumni Class of 1929 and 1930 are planning a reunion to be held in early 1970.

Both classes were large and it is hoped that a substantial number of Alumni of Newton High School classes of both years can be contacted and make plans to attend this affair when the date is definitely set.

Class members have traveled far and wide and live in other places as well as in the Newtons.

It will take some effort to locate people with whom there has been little or no contact over the past forty years since graduation from Newton High School.

Time and place of this meeting will be decided later by the committee working on this project. It is as follows: Mrs. Russell Clark (Betty Cudworth); Miss Lorraine Cotting; Mrs. George G. Harvey (Dorothy Howe); Mrs. Henry Waisler (Sylvia Riley); Mrs. Theodore Potter (Connie Dott); Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Smith (Dorothy Chubb).

NHS Baseball Team Wins Championship

By Jeff Grossman

In the midst of a furious four-way flag race at the beginning of the week reminiscent of the 1967 American League fight, the Newton High baseball team won their final three games of the year to capture the Suburban League Championship.

The team romped over Brookline and Waltham earlier in the week and shut out Newton South on Friday in a dramatic battle of cross town and contending teams.

Key man for Coach Howard Ferguson's nine in this final contest was Murray Road sportsman Norman Westlund. With the absence of Clark Berry due to arm trouble, Westlund has been the stopper for the team by compiling a 6 and 1 record.

The first two innings were scoreless as South's Jim Gamble matched Westlund.

But Gamble's control wasn't nearly as good as Westlund's. He gave up six walks compared to none for Westlund.

And the walks hurt South. Newton opened the scoring in the third inning. Another Murray Roader, second baseman Tom Keyes, walked and a Westlund sacrifice was unsuccessful due to an error and put Westlund on first.

After Rich Echlov struck out, Gamble dropped Tom Chalmers' pop up and first baseman Colin Clapton scored Westlund with a shot up the thunders.

Gamble permitted only three bottom of the sixth inning. Catcher John Marcus, who has really been hitting lately started the action with a single. Ernie Asaff fanned and Keyes walked again. Westlund sacrificed, this time successfully, and moved the runners up.

Rich Echlov hit a high bouncing chop down to shortstop Emmons Levine, seeing he had no play at first or home, attempted to nail Keyes at third. The throw went over third sacker John Lopez's head and Keyes scored. Echlov ended up on third.

South was put down 1, 2, 3 in their last chance, the bottom of the seventh.

Now Newton has gained the right to enter the Class A State Tournament as will the second place finisher in the Suburban League which appears to be either South, Brookton or Weymouth at this writing.

Sixteen teams will be entered in the tournament. Westlund has pitched well for the team all year but real hope has been provided for the tournament by the late season emergence of pitchers Paul Britt and Colin Clapton.

Up until the last few weeks Westlund was the only real proven pitcher but Britt has pitched well in his last three appearances. Clapton has looked good in relief with an ERA of 1.40 and sophomore Jethro Mills has settled down after some early season wildness.

NHS finished the Suburban League season with a 13-3 record.

Lions Lose "The" Big Game To Newton; Fall From Top

By LEWIS FREEDMAN

It was a tough week for the Newton South baseball team.

First, the Lions lost a 5-1 decision to lowly Cambridge Latin to fall out of first place in the Suburban League.

Then, South dropped a 3-0 verdict to arch-rival Newton High to fall into a second-place tie with Weymouth.

Thurston Tartar was the starter and loser against the Cantabs. Latin clinched the game in the sixth inning with four runs, the big blow being a two-run homer by John Campbell.

Latin hurler Al Houston was superb, scattering four hits while fanning 10. Tartar struck out eight.

The game with Newton, however, was the big one. A South win would have given them a share of the title with the Tigers.

South pitcher Jim Gamble was tough, but Newton twirler Norm Westlund was even tougher in the battle of left-handers.

Gamble permitted only three hits, all singles, and all three runs off him were unearned, coming as the result of three errors. Newton tallied first in the third frame and then added two insurance runs on two errors with two out in the sixth.

South could manage only two base-hits off Westlund, both coming in the second inning. Clem Virgilio reached on an infield hit and Lou Miller sacrificed him to second. In what proved to be a key play, Westlund picked Virgilio off second base. Catcher Ken Stuart followed with a single, which would have scored Virgilio, then was out attempting to steal second. Westlund was perfect thereafter, setting down the last 15 batters.

South, 11-5, is tied with Weymouth for second place. However, Brookton still must play Brookline and a Brookton win would result in a three-way tie. The eventual second place finisher will advance with Newton High, to the state tournament.

Cross-Towners Defeat South's Tennis Champs

Defending state tennis champions Newton South downed Lexington and Brockton, each 4-1, and then was topped by rival Newton High, by the identical score, to run its season standing to 10-2.

Against Lexington sophomore Dave Cohen easily disposed of his foe, 6-1, 6-1. Then, after senior Andy Levin was edged, 7-5, 6-4, another sophomore, John Kaufman, was victorious, 6-0, 6-1.

In doubles action, Ken Miller and Nat Kaitz triumphed, 6-3, 6-4, and Mike Blazer and Bob Kellner were on top, 6-4, 6-8, 8-6.

The Brockton match was equally as convincing. Cohen once again trounced his opponent, 6-0, 6-2. Kelner in third singles, dominated his man, 6-3, 6-2. Al Starr and Paul Cohen and Bill Starr and Miller each won in straight sets.

Dave Cohen continued his winning ways, running his record at number-one singles to 12-0, turning back Rick Martin, 6-1, 6-1, for Newton South's only point against Newton High.

None of the Lions' other participants won so much as a set in a complete reversal of South's earlier 3-2 win over the Tigers.

South Track Team Whipped By Brockton High, 100-39

Unbeaten Brockton High, 4-0, romped past Newton South, 100-39, to hand South its third consecutive Suburban League loss last Thursday at Dickinson Field.

The Lions showed well in the sprints, but were destroyed in the distance events and the field as the New England Cross-Country champs flexed their muscles in various ways.

South's strength was the sprints. Lion tracksters captured first in the 100 Robin Hirsch, 11.4, 220 - Dave Peters, 25.1, 440 - John Seeler, 54.1 and relay (Hirsch, Peters, Seeler and Bruce Kopelman). However, all times were slowed by a strong headwind.

Senior Nick Parnell was South's only other first-place finisher, copping the high hurdles, 100, mile, 440, 180 lows, 880, 220, and 2-mile.

Parnell's second place in 10 events for South, broad-jumping, throwing the javelin and running the 120 high hurdles, 100, mile, 440, 180 lows, 880, 220, and 2-mile.

Parnell's second place broad jump was his best to date at 18-5. Stahl, in third place, also had his best jump of 17-11.

Waltham's sensational Charlie Duckworth, owner of a 48.6 440 last year as a sophomore and 47.8 relay leg this spring, moved up to the 880 to win easily in 2:00.

The Lions go against winless Rindge Tech, this week, in their last dual meet, before the state meet on Saturday.

Bloom was one of two sophomores on the team, and was also a standout in doubles play. Teamed with Tommy Johnson of Worcester, the duo won all their matches easily. On two occasions the doubles win was the deciding point of the match.

"Jon really came into his own this year," praised UMass coach Steve Kosakowski. "He's come up with a big game this year, and he really knows how to use it." Kosakowski concluded.

Unitarian Young People Aid Vietnamese Kiddies

The Junior High Young People of the First Unitarian Society in West Newton hosted a "Vietnamese Luncheon" at the Parish Hall Sunday, May 25th at 12:15 p.m.

Traditional food was prepared and served in free professional services, cooperation and for the benefit of the Committee of Responsibility (To Save War-Burned and War-Injured Vietnamese Children) which has its regional offices in Cambridge. Mrs. Frank Ervin of the Cambridge chapter will direct the preparation of the special foods.

The Upper School of the Church School has undertaken a cultural study of Viet Nam and its people for the Spring term, and the luncheon was followed by a playlet developed from a Vietnamese myth—dragon and all having been built by the young people involved in the study.

Mrs. Kenneth Matheson of Auburndale and Mrs. John Friedman of Newtonville, members of the Junior High School Staff, were in charge of production and staging of the play.

Dr. Frank Ervin, a member of the National Board of Directors from the local chapter, presented a series of slides he has taken of the children of Viet Nam.

Proceeds of luncheon were donated to assist this movement to bring war-injured Vietnamese children to further information.

Mayor Reports At Meeting Of Upper Falls Association

At a recent meeting of the Newton Upper Falls Improvement Association Monte G. Basbas, Mayor, gave an accounting of the code enforcement program in the Village to the present time, and asked for patience with regards to the fulfillment of certain code enforcements in various dwellings.

Bruce G. Train, Administrative Assistant to the Mayor and Project Coordinator of the Code Enforcement Program, outlined the efforts being made to obtain additional funds for the code enforcement program. Acting City Solicitor, Charles H. Morang, explained to the Association members how code violations in the City of Newton are enforced.

City Engineer, U. M. Schiavone, explained the delay in completing the public improvements connected with the code enforcement program. As an example, he said the severe winter had delayed the delivery of granite curbstones. Also, in some instances, the wrong type of merchandise had been delivered.

Ward Five Alderman, Edward C. Uehlein, said that certain housing conditions in the Village, of which many residents complain, should be corrected promptly.

In the absence of David Downes, Supervisor of the program, Rev. Kent Millard, Pastor of the First Methodist Church of Newton, gave a detailed report of the Drop-In Center based in the church. He remarked about the feasibility of the program and stated that at times a good number of the teenagers from the village took advantage of the center.

This Week's Best Buys

Courtesy of Massachusetts Department of Agriculture.

Massachusetts farmers are making sure that homemakers can put more zest into their salads by introducing outdoor radishes this week, according to the Department of Agriculture. Native radishes are extra mild, with just a hint of the snappy flavor that enlivens so many other foods.

Other outdoor crops listed as "best buys" include chives,

Newton Banker Made V.P. For National Group

Frederick C. Ober, president of the Newton Savings Bank, became vice president of the National Association of Mutual Savings Banks, as the organization adjourned its 49th Annual Conference at Minneapolis recently. He will serve as vice president of the $72 billion savings bank industry for a term of one year.

Ober is a member of the NAMS Board of Directors and of its Executive Committee. He has served on NAMS's Education and Management Development, Dual System, Insurance and Protection, Internal Operations and Savings Services Committees. He is a faculty member at three NAMS schools its Graduate School of Savings Banking, Management Development Program and its School of Special Studies.

The Newton savings banker, a former president of the Savings Banks Association of Massachusetts and the Savings Bank Life Insurance Council of Massachusetts, is currently president of the Metropolitan Mortgage Bureau and director of the Savings Bank Investment Fund. His numerous civic and charitable affiliations include the Newton Chamber of Commerce, Red Cross and membership on the board of governors and trustees of the Newton-Wellesley Hospital.

Ober is a graduate of Harvard College and the Stonier Graduate School of Banking, Rutgers University. He is married to the former Dorothy Fenner. The Obers have three children, and reside in Wellesley Hills.

asparagus, rhubarb, spinach and scallions. Butternut squash from winter storage is still available at reasonable prices along with cucumbers, tomatoes and watercress from local greenhouses. All achieve "best buy" status by reason of good supply at reasonable prices.

No less than five varieties of apples from controlled atmosphere storage are on the "best buy" list with prices rated as reasonable for this time of the year. They include McIntosh, Red Delicious, Golden Delicious, Baldwins and Northern Spy.

Eggs continue very plentiful and low priced, with medium and extra large sizes the best buys in that order. With native asparagus so plentiful, it makes sense to take advantage of their availability with tasty recipes like Boston Fried Asparagus:

Cut asparagus into pieces 2-3" long. Cover bottom of frying pan with cooking oil and set heat at medium-low. Keep cover on while cooking, stirring occasionally. Remove when cooked and serve with butter and salt to taste.

Today's Agri-Fact: With native rhubarb now plentiful, homemakers may find this buying guide useful: the best rhubarb is fresh, firm, crisp, tender and bright colored. Stalks should not be excessively thin. The younger stems with immature leaves usually have the most tender, delicate flavor. Wilted, flabby stalks indicate poor flavor. Oversized stalks can be pithy and tough.

Passing of Underworld Leaders Spark Hidden Treasure Rumors

By BARNEY SEIBERT

CHICAGO (UPI) — Like pirates of old, the passing of the warlords of Chicago's bloody Prohibition Era has sparked legends of hidden treasure.

But if treasure exists, it is proving even more elusive than the doubleboons buried by 17th century buccaneers.

The overlords of Chicago's underworld kept their plunder spread through banks in safety deposit boxes rented under assumed names. Even if the boxes were found, there is a good chance that someone else would have gotten there first.

Among the hidden hoard currently sought by federal and local authorities is that of Murray "the Camel" Humphreys, who helped convert the late Alphonse Capone's underworld empire into a sophisticated business operation — equally ruthless but far more suave.

Last year, wreckers of the old Victoria Hotel combed fruitlessly through the rubble for riches rumored to have been concealed in its walls by a one-time tenant, the Capone gang.

But perhaps the biggest treasure trove, if it is ever found, would be that of the late Joseph Iburi, high flying mouthpiece for "the outfit," who used to boast he was a millionaire before he was 30.

Iburi had two wives, two families, two homes and a twin-engine $100,000 airplane so he could shuttle between them.

But after the plane crashed during a trip between wives, an inventory filed in probate court listed his entire estate as just $7,463 in cash, a few shares of stock, two cars and a Missouri cave — total value less than $1,000.

Subsequently, authorities found $60,000 in cash in a safe owned by Iburi, also known as Joseph I. Bulger. The money was turned over to a suburban park district of which Iburi — Bulger was secretary.

Cook County state's attorneys investigators have estimated that in the six years 1966, some $500,000 was siphoned from the park district million before a heart attack district.

As for Humphreys, federal authorities believe he may have hidden as much as $10 million before a heart attack took him in 1965.

The only clue to the alleged Humphrey hoard, if it is a clue, are the numbers, 46-400 at 20, scrawled in a notebook found in his skyscraper apartment.

Humphreys' visible estate was valued at a mere $100,000, representing barely a couple of years' outgo in the style to which he was accustomed. Federal agents maintain the $100,000 is only a small fraction of the Camel's actual wealth.

In addition to his underworld income sources, they say Humphreys was believed to have owned substantial interests in two Las Vegas gambling casinos. Internal Revenue Service agents who prepared a tax case against Humphreys pegged his known income from 1957-62 at $452,000. Under the name of Lewis Hart, he also owned a $250,000 mansion in Key Biscayne, Fla., where President Nixon now has a vacation home.

Humphreys' heirs are as eager as the authorities to locate any hidden wealth. After all, the government wouldn't get all of it.

So, presumably, are the several claimants of the Iburi — Bulger estate.

Imburgio, among his many achievements, was a one time supreme president of the Unione Siciliane, identified by some authorities as the American branch of the Mafia and the supplier of much of the illicit alcohol consumed during the Prohibition Era.

Some of Imburgio's suspected millions could be hidden somewhere in Cuba. He owned a hacienda there and was a power in Cuban gambling operations until they were closed down by Fidel Castro, who also seized the Hacienda.

Imburgio came to Chicago while still in his teens from his native New Orleans. He settled in suburban Melrose Park before World War I, married, and became the town's mayor during a period when it allegedly had more than 100 illegal alcohol stills.

During the Depression, Imburgio studied law at night while carrying on a real estate and insurance business and operating the Italian village night club at the 1933-34 Chicago World's Fair. On graduation in 1938, he changed his name to Bulger.

Bulger's legal career was meteoric. Six years after finishing law school, a time of life when most young attorneys are barely emerging from clerkdom, Bulger was defending the likes of Willie Mays against charges stem-

A new interest entered

Bulger's life. At a race track he met a 20-year-old blonde model. She later told reporters Bulger assured her he was a widower and they were married in Reno, Nev., in

Curtis Says Disorders Dishonor Nation's Vets

Former Congressman Laurence Curtis of Newton, declared that "one of the most sordid aspects" of the current disorders is the disloyalty shown to those who had fought and suffered for their country."

"They did not serve and sacrifice in order to return to a land torn by disunity, racked by violence, and where even the flag is often held in disrespect," he said.

The former Congressman, a past State Commander of the Disabled American Veterans, spoke at the Memorial Day ceremonies at Mt. Hope cemetery under the auspices of the Suffolk County Council of the American Legion and participated in six Posts of that organization.

Curtis recalled the Orders of the Day issued on May 5, 1868, by General John A. Logan of the Grand Army of the Republic, the civil war veterans organization. Curtis said that order was the enemy who is counting on moving force in initiating a collapse of American will on the home front. They encourage him to persevere with resulting increase of hearts cold in the solemn trust of remembrance, ours shall keep it well as long as the inept and indulgent responses. We demand an end to the inept and indulgent responses. We demand that effective measures be taken to restrain force, violence and storm-trooper tactics."

Curtis said that we were carrying on today in the spirit of those orders and quoted Henry Wadsworth Longfellow's poem on Memorial Day: "Your silent graves so green, we deck with fragrant flowers. Yours has the suffering been, the memory shall be ours."

Commenting on the current disorders, the former Congressman declared "we veterans know that the disorders at home and on college campuses encourage the enemy who is counting on the collapse of American will on the home front. They encourage him to persevere with resulting increase of hearts cold in the solemn trust of remembrance, ours shall keep it well as long as the inept and indulgent responses. ## Improved Transportation Seen In Bus-Trolley Swap

What has been described as improved transportation service will be provided to resident of Newton, Watertown and the Brighton-Allston sections of Boston, starting Saturday, June 21, when the existing trolley line is converted to a bus operation for at least an 11-week trial.

The announcement was made by the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority which said that the changeover to buses will result in a savings in operating costs, conservatively estimated at $325,000 a year. The conversion was approved at a meeting of the MBTA Board of Directors on Wednesday, May 7.

The fare will remain at the present 45 cents and the Authority pointed out that a bus operation will provide more reliable and faster trips to downtown Boston than the streetcars.

A study of delays on the line during the Winter timetable period, December 28, 1968, through March 23, 1969, showed there were 950 delays and in the current Spring timetable that became effective March 29, there have been 394 delays to date.

Ranging from 15 minutes to more than 40 minutes, the delays were caused by traffic congestion and tugs, trucks or cars blocking the rails, accidents, breakdowns, wire and track trouble, power failures and end stormy weather conditions.

According to statistics from the Authority's Safety Department,

Business Community Studies Three Training Plans For Disadvantaged

Possibility for joint cooperation between the Newton business community represented by the Newton Chamber of Commerce, and three training programs for disadvantaged inner city and Newton workers, were discussed at a luncheon at Vale's Restaurant, Chestnut Hill, recently.

Participants were 50 businessmen and women from Newton and the following five officials of inner city programs: Carl Freeman and David Taylor of the Opportunities Industrialization Center; Chester Kavanaugh of the Joint Center for Inner City Change and Gene Ragnante and Arthur Andrews of the Boston program of the National Alliance for Businessmen.

Kermit Greene, vice president of Sherman Division, St. Regis Paper Co., Newton Upper Falls and Edward Ehrenberg, president of West Ford, Newtonville, co-chairmen of the Chamber's Employment Opportunities Committee arranged the program.

The purpose of the meeting was to acquaint the suburban businessman with the scope and depth of training men and women in Boston for jobs.

The training programs are all geared to make the workers "job ready" and include programs for upgrading persons with existing jobs, training the hard-core unemployed and contractual programs providing support services for workers already employed in jobs.

Mentioned in particular were the needs for developing

William E. Halliday, Jr., will be a candidate for Ward 4 Alderman, according to his announcement released this week.

Mr. Halliday was born in Newton and has been a lifelong resident. He is a graduate of the Newton school system and holds a law degree from Northeastern University.

Mr. Halliday states the foremost problem facing Auburndale today is an immediate study of the land surrounding Norumbega Park.

He states that this problem should not wait until a developer comes up with plans. The people of Auburndale should be able to express their united views in advance, he added.

"There is no justification for tagging cars in parking lots that are not even half-full and as long as this practice is continued we will have empty stores and For Rent signs," he said.

"There are many problems facing the whole city which can be handled only by a man who knows the city well and has understanding and experience," Halliday stated.

LETTERS TO THE GRAPHIC

Law In Jeopardy

Editor of The Graphic:
It is shocking to learn that the leash law, in effect for nineteen days, was put into jeopardy by our Aldermen by scheduling a hearing for the fall to amend or repeal the law.

It is error to assert that the prior hearing was for the proponents of the law and this hearing for the opponents. The hearing last September summoned all people to come forward and be heard, and no justification for a second hearing can be sustained by such illogical reasoning.

How frustrating for people who believe in and trust our democratic processes to hear that political pressure from a minority of Newton residents could no longer be withstood, and to learn that the power of numbers will not endure when those numbers are not politically well placed.

The Aldermen well know that in no mathematical or political system do five hundred names on a petition equal two thousand.

Without going into the merits of the leash law anew, suffice it to say that such merits exist from 8 in the evening to 6 in the morning as well as from 6 in the morning to 8 in the evening. There can be no compromise with a just and meritorious law.

Think of the waste of time, effort and taxpayer's money that will have occurred in the purchase of equipment and the training of police personnel if the law is repealed or weakened - not to say anything of all those new meritorious law.

Many of the student volunteers are now graduating and will be leaving our institutions. The DMH is deeply grateful for the many hours of service they have so willingly contributed.

Our appreciation goes also to the administrators of the high schools and colleges involved in volunteer programs. Their interest and cooperation, which is so essential to the success of volunteer activities, has been generous indeed.

Applauds Symphony

Editor,
The Graphic:
I am writing to say how very fortunate I think the City of Newton is to have such a fine organization as the Newton Symphony Orchestra.

Recently I attended the third and last concert of the season. I was thrilled and inspired by the beautiful playing of this group, and its piano soloist, Malcolm Fraser.

I am most grateful, too, to Michel Sisson for his most able and devoted direction, and to all the people, orchestra members and others, who make this organization possible.

Week-Long Dance Program For JH and High School

Of interest to Newton parents is a special week-long program in the art of the dance which will be presented to three groups of Newton Junior High and High School students. To begin next Monday (June 2), the project is brought to Newton from New York under the auspices of Arts/Six, a federally funded Title III program.

Under the direction of Betty Jones (formerly first dancer with Jose Limon and currently on the faculty of the Juilliard School) and Swiss-born Fritz Ludin, a series of workshops will be conducted with varied focuses on the dance and involving the students intimately in a working rehearsal.

The public is invited to attend the Friday (June 6) performance which will be given without charge at 8:30 p.m. Students may attend the afternoon performance, both of which are the culmination of the week's work involving much student participation in dance movements as well as the processes of the unique art form. Details may be obtained by calling Newton South High School at 969-9310.

The public performance will include a program specially designed to introduce modern dance to new dance audiences. The evolution of Modern Dance will be made vividly clear, both in the stunning action of the performers and the informal and illuminating comments of Miss Jones.

Introducing the practicing professional artist to elementary and secondary school students is a major innovation of the Arts/Six project. In all of its programs — drama, music, film, dance and the visual arts — which will be in operation next year, the student will be able to participate

Local Entry In Brandeis Festival

The Country Players of Newton have selected Jean-Claude van Itallie's avant-garde "War" as their entry into the New England Theatre Conference 16th Annual Drama Festival, Friday-Sunday, May 30-31 and June 1, at Spindge Theatre, Brandeis University, Waltham.

Directed by James A. Cooke of Brookline and featuring Danny Kosow, Pat Pellow and John Fogel, it marks the first time since its inception 13 years ago that the Players will enter the competition. They will perform from second on the bill Saturday afternoon, with an approximate curtain time of 1:45 p.m.

The NETC Community Theater Division includes over 50 groups throughout New England and approximately 20 groups will participate. The Festival will open with performances on Friday at 7:30 p.m. Two sessions will follow on Saturday, at 1:00 p.m. and 7:30 p.m., and another on Sunday at 1:00 p.m. Productions are limited to 40 minutes.

The four top ranked groups will compete for "Best Production 1969" on Sunday, starting at 7:30 p.m. The four judges include Norman Twain, producer of the current Tony Richardson production of "Hamlet," starring Jean-Claude van Itallie's avant-garde "War" as their entry into the New England Theatre Conference 16th Annual Drama Festival, Friday-Sunday, May 30-31 and June 1, at Spindge Theatre, Brandeis University, Waltham.

Author Jean-Claude van Itallie, whose off-Broadway success "America Hurrah" skyrocketed him into the front rank of our most exciting and imaginative young playwrights, was born in Brussels and graduated from Harvard University.

A member of New York's experimental Open Theatre, where "America Hurrah" was first staged, Mr. van Itallie has also been widely produced in the coffeehouses of off-Broadway and on educational television. Winner of the coveted Vernon Rice Award for "America Hurrah," he has been hailed as the most original and provocative playwright of the decade.

In the mixed media "War," two actors, one young, one old, and a bizarre lady, engage in a series of fantasy-like improvisations, articulating the relentless war which humankind is doomed to wage against harsh reality and the inexorable passage of time.

Production staff for the Players includes Chris Ford, stage manager; Mark Aronson, lighting technician; Ron Buckley, assistant stage manager; George R. Cohen, sound technician; Cookie Kates, props chief; and Harvey Silverman, crew chief.

Community theatre enthusiasts and the general public are welcome. However, it is advised that no one will be seated during a performance.

Malloy, Fishman and Shea Fight For Mental Health Serv. Funds

Representative Paul Malloy, Democrat of Newton, successfully led the fight in the House of Representatives to assure that the State funds to help establishments of an adult mental health clinic and court clinic would not have to be deferred until next year.

The towns of Wellesley and Weston voted in their town meetings this Spring to provide financial support for these programs in addition to the children's program to be housed in Wellesley if the State made available the necessary positions. The City of Newton has given financial assistance for limited community mental health services for the past several years.

The second program will increase services in the court clinic at the Newton Court for delinquents and adult offenders. The court clinic has been operating on a very part time basis since last year with one professional "borrowed" one day a week from the Quincy Court.

These two services are among the first steps in a long range program geared to provide the citizens in the Newton area with comprehensive community mental health and retardation services. Future contemplated programs include inpatient, partial hospital, and emergency services to be based at Newton-Wellesley Hospital, day care programs for the mentally ill and mentally retarded, and a halfway house to be located in the community.

Representative Malloy, with the support and assistance of Representatives Irving Fishman and H. James Shea of Newton and other Representatives from Region

Local Right To Inspect School Building Wins

In cooperation with Newton's city officials, Rep. Theodore D. Mann filed House Bill number 3282 calling for repeal of the existing legislation that removes the requirement for local building inspection of school house construction.

Mann successfully led a fight to reject an adverse report on the Bill and it was referred to the Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives.

Rep. Mann agrees with the City Administration that a school house construction should be subjected to local building inspection as well as that of the State.

Mann pointed out that the procedure will be in keeping with the principle of local responsibility and will serve in the best interest of the city's taxpayers who furnish the major portion of the funds used for construction of school houses.

Two Concerts Score Hit For "Troubadours" Here

Bloodmobile At Memorial School On Tues. June 3

Tuesday, June 3, the Newton Red Cross Bloodmobile will be at the Memorial School, 60 Stein Circle, Oak Hill from 12:45 until 6:30 p.m.

It is hoped that since this is an open bloodmobile, there will be a big turnout not only from residents in that area, but also the school's and business organizations.

Eight out of every ten blood transfusions in Massachusetts last year were made possible by a volunteer donor. On-going regular donors might check their calendar to see if they last donated. If it is, they are eligible to give again.

There would never be a blood shortage if every donor set a pattern for giving every 8 weeks.

Massachusetts hospitals need 1000 pints of blood a day.

The holidays and summer vacations are coming along. If regular donors do not contribute constantly during this period another shortage could develop. It is hoped that the donors will give a pint of blood at this bloodmobile and once again in 8 weeks so that the blood supply will be adequate.

Call the Newton Red Cross, 527-6000 for an appointment.

Newton Class Is Host To Pupils From Dorchester

Last week Mrs. Hildebrand's second grade class at the Mason-Rice School in Newton was host to Mrs. Barber's second grade from the John Winthrop School in Dorchester.

The two classes had been exchanging letters, tapes and pictures since December, but the award of an EdCo grant last month enabled the two classes to meet one another.

EdCo stands for Educational Collaborative, an organization which pools the resources of 7 communities.

Small grants were awarded to individual teachers, some being to further Urban-Suburban cooperation. The Mason-Rice children had joined the Winthrop class two weeks ago for a very successful picnic and outing at the Franklin Park Children's Zoo.

This second trip saw the Winthrop group first visiting the Jackson Homestead in Newton. This tied in with an earlier study of Harriet Tubman, as years ago the Homestead had been a station on the Underground Railroad for escaping slaves.

The children then joined their Mason-Rice friends at the Newton Centre playground for a picnic lunch, at which time they were warmly greeted by Principal Elaine Panareta who knew most of the children from the earlier trip.

After an exhilarating time on the play equipment, the children flew kites in the high winds that had come up. Then both classes went to the gym where Mrs. Harding, Physical Education teacher, had a large surprise for the children, a colorful parachute which served as the basis for a series of exercises and games. These had the children shrieking with delight.

The Newton class received a gift for their library of Ann McGovern's new book Black Is Beautiful, which Mrs. Hildebrand was reading to her children as the Winthrop bus pulled away.

One more meeting is planned as the classes will join for a visit to the Prudential Skywalk. And then this very successful project will be over for the year.

High School Junior Has Exhibit at Free Library

Color photos by Newton Whitehouse Productions some sophisticated camera equipment with film, to try out for a month. At the end of the experimental period, a free lance writer will be assigned to spend a few days with the boys to work out perhaps two articles for national magazines, illustrated with pictures provided by Henry and Mark.

Whitehouse Productions is phasing out for July and August, while Henry returns to the Southwest as camp cook, and Mark sails off to his summer job. It's a sure thing the partners will be back in the fall, covering accidents and fires around Newton.

"Taking accident pictures may not be glamorous," says Henry, "but you can't make a living taking 'artsy-craftsy' pictures of inchworms."

"However, the more I think about it, the more I like the idea of producing TV shows."

By Newton's Archie Kaplan

Announcing that he was vice of reputable experts who doubled his gift to $200,000, Dr. A. Daniel Rubenstein, of Newton, Director of Hospital Facilities for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and president of New England Sinai Hospital, pointed out the extreme need that existed for the kind of facility to be built.

"This hospital's policy ever since it opened as an institution for the chronically ill," he said, "has been to keep a patient as long as possible."

Other donors named, who had followed the pattern of increased giving, were Arnold Ginsberg, formerly of Newton, $50,000; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gordon, $35,000, all of Newton.

"Inasmuch as discussions with interested parties are currently in progress, it would not be advisable to indicate what sites are being considered.

Announcement was also made of the hospital's decision to build on a site other than twice the acreage we have now but are much more suitable for hospital construction.

"Right now," continued Mr. Kaplan, "two new sites are under consideration, both of which not only offer more than twice the acreage we have now but are much more suitable for hospital construction."

Chairman of the luncheon was Mrs. Max Ginnis of Brookline. Bringing greetings were Mrs. David Giller, of Brookline, president of the Auxiliary Board of Governors; Regina Brooks, hospital administrator, Dr. Jack D. Cohen, Chief of Staff, and Mrs. Rose B. Pfau, honorary president.
